This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

New and Valuable Tide Table for 110 Places.

To find the time of high-water at any of the places named in the following table, add time indicated in the first column of figures to the time of "Moon South," or "Moon on Meridian," found in the calendar pages. If the result is more than 12 hours from noon, the time will be the next day in the morning; and if more than 12 hours from midnight, the time will be in the afternoon of the same day. The tide thus found is the first after the Moon's culmination. The second tide occurs 12 hours and 26 minutes later than the first.

To Get Correct Time.

When the shadow cast by the Sun reaches the noon-mark, set the clock at the time given in calendar pages of this Almanac, in the column of "Sun at Noon-mark," and it will be exactly right. If a meridian line is used instead of a noon-mark, the passing the lines by the Sun's center is the moment for setting the clock. Any skillful surveyor can make a noon-mark or meridian lines of small brass or copper wires. In doing so, he must allow for the variation of the magnetic needle from a true or astronomical north and south line.

Morning Stars.

Venus (♀) from Sept. 26 to end of the year.
Mars (♂) not this year.
Jupiter (♃) from June 30 to October 22.
Saturn (♄) until March 30.

Evening Stars.

Venus until September 26.
Mars all the year.
Jupiter until June 30, and after October 22.
Saturn from March 30 to end of the year.

A Table of Sixty-one Bright Stars.

To ascertain when any Star found in the following Table will be on the upper meridian, add the numbers opposite in the left-hand column of figures to the time of "Sidereal Noon" found in the calendar pages. For the RISING of a star, subtract the number opposite in the right-hand column of figures from its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to its meridian passage. Those marked (....) revolve in a circle of perpetual apparition, and do not rise nor set north of the latitude of New York (40° 42′ 40″), for which latitude the semi-diurnal arcs are calculated. The civil day begins at midnight, and consequently 24 hours after midnight, or 12 hours from noon, is morning of the succeeding day; and more than 24 hours from noon, is evening of the next day. From 12h. to 24h. from midnight, or from 0h. to 12h. from noon, will be in the afternoon of the same day. This table is arranged in the order of culmination.

Surveyors and Civil Engineers may obtain the declination of the magnetic needle by observations on the Pole Star when upon the meridian, or when at the greatest elongation east or west. POLARIS and other stars pass the lower meridian 11h. 58m. after their upper transit. To the time of upper transit of Polaris, add 5h. 54m. and it gives the time of greatest western elongation. If the 5h. 54m. be subtracted from the time of upper transit, it will give the time of greatest eastern elongation. Observations made at the time of greatest elongation are less liable to error than those made at the time of transit. The mean distance of Polaris from the pole this year is 1° 22′ 42 45″. To find its azimuth for any latitude, take from 18.8812298 the logarithmic cosine of the latitude, and the remainder is the logarithmic sine of the azimuth.

NOTE. In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by [].

PLANETARY CHARACTERS.—☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night,

at any time of the year, add 12 hours to the time of the Sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Leap-Year.—Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 without a remainder is a leap-year, except the last year of the century, which is a leap-year only when divisible by 400 without a remainder. Thus the year 1900 will not be a leap-year.

The Asteroids.

About 112 little planets, called Asteroids, have been discovered between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Some of them are so small that to call them worlds might seem inappropriate. But any body having an orbit, though not larger than a cannon-ball, is entitled to rank as a world. Many such may exist which will never be discovered because of their littleness. Very little asteroidal bodies are revolving around the earth, as the moon does. The aerolites, or falling stones, are really such asteroids whose orbits cross the earth's orbit, or else wind spirally inward to the earth as a center.

"THE CLOTHING TRADE OF NEW YORK CITY."

Among the many business houses of this city, there is none more worthy the notice or patronage of an appreciating public than the well-known firm of TRAPHAGEN, HUNTER & CO., Nos. 398, 400 & 402 Bowery, junction of Third and Fourth avenues, and nearly opposite the Seventh Regiment Armory.

Their immense establishment, consisting of three five-story buildings, devoted exclusively to the manufacture and sale of Gentlemen's, Youth's, and Children's Clothing, is one of the largest in the city.

The business of the above firm is conducted on the One Price Cash System, and the goods offered by them (the prices of which are marked in plain figures on each and every garment) are unsurpassed in point of style and quality, and full 20 per cent. below Broadway prices.

OUR CLOTHING.—The question, "Wherewithal shall we be clothed?" is one of the utmost importance to all, involving, as it does, so much that concerns our happiness and comfort. Suitable dress for all occasions and occupations is sometimes difficult to obtain.

FREEMAN & BURR,

Merchant Clothiers, 138 and 140 Fulton Street, New York always have ready for immediate use an Immense Stock of every description, for both men's and boys' wear. Orders, from any part of the country, are promptly filled and a perfect fitting insured in all cases by their New System for Self-Measurement, which, with patterns of goods and prices, are sent free on application.

FACTS FOR THE LADIES.

"I have used my WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINE six years without the least repairs, doing all my family sewing, consisting of coats, overcoats, pants, and vests, down to the finest of sewing, even patching old coats and pants. Beside that, I have earned six hundred dollars ($600) in the six years. I earned thirty dollars with one needle. Give me the WHEELER & WILSON in preference to all others.

Horace Greeley's Essays, "What I Know of Farming," which have been published in the Tribune every week during 1870, are to be printed in book form, and a copy will be sent, post-paid to each subscriber who sends $10 for The Daily $4 for The Semi-Weekly, or $3 for The Weekly Tribune, and requests the book at the time of subscribing. This will enable old subscribers to secure the Essays for preservation, on renewing their subscriptions, and new subscribers will, of course, be glad to obtain them, free of cost.

MAMMOTH DENT CORN

Has from 20 to 40 rows to each ear, and will weigh 60 lbs. to the bushel. It is the largest early field corn in America, and will ripen in 90 to 100 days.

In circumference of ear and depth of grain, it far surpasses any corn we ever saw.—N. Y. Bee Journal.

Price, by mail, 2lb. $1 6 pack. 2lb. each. $5. By express, 1 peck, $2; half bbl. $3. 1 bbl. $5 6 bbl. $25. No corn sent C O D. Send in orders at once. No order filled for less than $1. Send stamp for circular giving full description of corn and other choice seeds: also, fancy poultry, &c.

OUR CLOTHING.—The question, "Wherewithal shall we be clothed?" is one of the utmost importance to all, involving, as it does, so much that concerns our happiness and comfort. Suitable dress for all occasions and occupations is sometimes difficult to obtain.

FREEMAN & BURR,

Merchant Clothiers, 138 and 140 Fulton Street, New York always have ready for immediate use an Immense Stock of every description, for both men's and boys' wear. Orders, from any part of the country, are promptly filled and perfect fitting insured in all cases by their New System for Self-Measurement, which, with patterns of goods and prices, are sent free on application.

FACTS FOR THE LADIES.

"I have used my WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINE six years without the least repairs, doing all my family sewing, consisting of coats, overcoats, pants, and vests, down to the finest of sewing, even patching old coats and pants. Beside that, I have earned six hundred dollars ($600) in the six years. I earned thirty dollars with one needle. Give me the WHEELER & WILSON in preference to all others.

Horace Greeley's Essays, "What I Know of Farming," which have been published in The Tribune every week during 1870, are to be printed in book form, and a copy will be sent, post-paid to each subscriber who sends $10 for The Daily $4 for The Semi-Weekly, or $2 for The Weekly Tribune, and requests the book at the time of subscribing. This will enable old subscribers to secure the Essays for preservation, on renewing their subscriptions, and new subscribers will, of course, be glad to obtain them, free of cost.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS

PASSED AT THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS, WITH PUBLIC RESOLUTIONS AND PROCLAMATIONS.

CHAP. III.—To Promote Reconstruction in Georgia.—Provides for organizing the Legislature chosen under Gen. Meade's proclamation, each member to take all the constitutional oaths (including the one known as the "Iron clad"), members to be protected in their office; no exclusion by reason of race, color, or servitude; the Legislature to ratify the XVth Amendment before being represented in Congress.

CHAP. IX.—Retired Officers.—After the 20th Feb. 1870, no retired army officer shall be assigned to duty, or entitled to receive more pay than belongs to his grade.

CHAP. X.—Admission of Virginia.—The people, having adopted a Constitution and State government, are entitled to representation. Before any officer of the State, or member of the Legislature, can take official position, the regular oaths must be taken. False swearing is perjury, punished by imprisonment. Those who do not qualify within thirty days after the passage of this act are deemed to have vacated their offices. Virginia is admitted to representation in Congress, as one of the States of the Union, upon the following fundamental conditions: First, That the Constitution of Virginia shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote, who are entitled to vote by the Constitution herein recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at common law, whereof they shall have been duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said State: Provided, That any alteration of said Constitution, proscriptive in its effects, may be made in regard to the time and place of residence of voters. Second, That it shall never be lawful for the said State to deprive any citizen of the United States, on account of his race, color, or previous condition of servitude, of the right to hold office under the constitution and laws of said State, or upon any such ground to require of him any other qualifications for office than such as are required of all other citizens. Third, That the Constitution of Virginia shall never be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the school rights and privileges secured by the Constitution of said State.

CHAP. XI.—Against Presentation of Testimonials.—No officer or clerk in Government employ shall solicit contributions of other officials or employees for a gift or present to those in a superior official position; nor shall any such officials or clerical superiors receive any gift or present offered or presented to them as the contribution of those in government employ receiving a less salary than themselves; nor shall any officer or clerk make any donation as a gift or present to any official superior. Any officer or clerk violating the provisions of this bill shall be summarily discharged.

CHAP. XIII.—Bridge in Oregon.—Gives consent for the building of a bridge over the Willamette, at Portland.

CHAP. XIX.—Admission of Mississippi.—Bill substantially the same as that admitting Virginia.

CHAP. XXX.—Defaults.—Whenever any State shall have been, or may be, in default in the payment of interest or principal on investments in stocks or bonds issued or guaranteed by such State, and held by the United States in trust, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to retain the whole, or so much thereof as may be necessary, of any moneys due on any account from the United States to such State, and to apply the same to the payment of such principal and interest, or either, or to the reimbursement, with interest thereon, of moneys advanced by the United States, on account of interest due on such stocks or bonds.

CHAP. XXXIX.—Texas.—Act for admission, same as that for Virginia.

CHAP. XLVI.—Bridge over the Delaware.—Authorizes a drawbridge between Philadelphia and Camden.

CHAP. LVII.—Tunnel under Niagara River.—The city of Buffalo is authorized to make a tunnel under the river at Black Rock Harbor.

CHAP. LXIX.—Railroad in Oregon.—Grants lands to the Oregon Central Railroad Company, for a road and telegraph from Portland to McMinnville, on the Yamhill river.

CHAP. LXXV.—Steamship Company.—Incorporates a company to run steam vessels from Washington to Boston.

CHAP. LXXX.—General Incorporation Act.—An elaborate act, making a general law for the incorporation of companies and societies in the District of Columbia.

CHAP. CII.—Treasury Agents.—The Secretary may appoint not more than fifty-three special agents, to examine books, &c., of collectors, and other customs officers; they are in three classes, at $10, $8, and $5 per day, with necessary expenses.

CHAP. CVI.—The Lost Steamer Oneida.—Widows and orphans of officers and seamen lost in the Oneida to have twelve months additional pay.

CHAP. CXIV.—To Enforce the Rights of Citizens.—That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any State, Territory, district, county, city, parish, township, school district, municipality, or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude; any constitution, law, custom, usage, or regulation of any State or Territory, or by and under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding. All regulations with reference to preliminary matters concerning voting, such as registration, &c., to apply equally to all without regard to birth-place, color, or previous servitude. Any officer knowingly violating or failing to give full effect to this provision, may be fined $500, and imprisoned from a month to a year, and must pay cost. He is also liable to pay $500 to the aggrieved party. If, in case of preliminary work to qualify a voter, such person shall be hindered or deprived of the advantages common to all voters, upon proper evidence of such deprivation of privileges, his vote shall be received, and penalties as before mentioned may be inflicted upon upon offenders. If any person, by force, bribery, threats, intimidation, or other unlawful means, shall hinder, delay, prevent, or obstruct, or shall combine and confederate with others to hinder, delay, prevent, or obstruct any citizen from doing any act required to be done to qualify him to vote or from voting at any election as aforesaid, such person shall for every such offense forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, and shall also for every such offense be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both. That if any person shall prevent, hinder, control, or intimidate, or shall attempt to prevent, hinder, control or intimidate, any person from exercising or in exercising the right of suffrage, to whom the right of suffrage is secured or guaranteed by the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, by means of bribery, threats, or threats of depriving such person of employment or occupation, or of ejecting such person from rented house, lands, or other property, or by threats of refusing to renew leases or contracts for labor, or by threats of violence to himself or family, such person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month and not more than one year, or both. That if two or more persons shall band or conspire together, or go in disguise upon the public highway, or upon the premises of another, with intent to violate any provision of this act, or to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any citizen with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise and enjoyment of any right or privilege granted or secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having exercised the same, such persons shall be held guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court—the fine not to exceed five thousand dollars, and the imprisonment not to exceed ten years—and shall, moreover, be thereafter ineligible to, and disabled from, holding any office or place of honor, profit, or trust created by the Constitution or laws of the United States. District courts and all United States officers are charged with the proper execution of the provisions of this act, by indictment or upon information, and extra commissioners may be appointed by the courts when necessary. Marshals and other proper officers are to serve process, &c., under this act. It shall be lawful for the President of the United States to employ such part of the land or naval forces of the United States, or of the militia, as shall be necessary to aid in the execution of judicial process issued under this act. Persons ineligible to office under the third section of the fourteenth amendment, must not hold such office on penalty of misdemeanor, a year's imprisonment, and $1,000 fine. Equal rights in contracts, suits, evidence, and all legal proceedings are guaranteed in all the States and Territories of the Union, and State laws that may provide differently are repealed. If, at any election for representative or delegate in the Congress of the United States, any person shall knowingly personate and vote, or attempt to vote, in the name of any other person, whether living, dead, or fictitious; or vote more than once at the same election for any candidate for the same office; or vote at a place where he may not be lawfully entitled to vote; or vote without having a lawful right to vote; or do any unlawful act to secure a right or an opportunity to vote for himself or any other person; or by force, threat, menace, intimidation, bribery, reward, or offer, or promise thereof, or otherwise unlawfully prevent any qualified voter of any State of the United States of America, or of any Territory thereof, from freely exercising the right of suffrage, or by any such means induce any voter to refuse to exercise such right; or compel or induce by any such means, or otherwise, any officer of an election in any such State or Territory to receive a vote from a person not legally qualified or entitled to vote; or interfere in any manner with any officer of said elections in the discharge of his duties; or by any of such means, or other unlawful means, induce any officer of an election, or officer whose duty it is to ascertain, announce, or declare the result of any such election, or give or make any certificate, document, or evidence in relation thereto, to violate or refuse to comply with his duty, or any law regulating the same; or knowingly and willfully receive the vote of any person not entitled to vote, or refuse to receive the vote of any person entitled to vote; or aid, counsel, procure, or advise any such voter, person, or officer to do any act hereby made a crime, or to omit to do any duty the omission of which is hereby made a crime, or attempt to do so, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a crime, and shall for such crime be liable to prosecution in any court of the United States of competent jurisdiction, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years, or both, in the discretion of the court, and shall pay the costs of prosecution.

The remainder of this act provides against false registration, and declares the duties of officers, and the penalties for not obeying the law. The last section declares that whenever any person shall be defeated or deprived of his election to any office, except elector of President or Vice-President, representative or delegate in Congress, or member of a State legislature, by reason of the denial to any citizen or citizens who shall offer to vote, of the right to vote, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, his right to hold and enjoy such office, and the emoluments thereof, shall not be impaired by such denial; and such person may bring any appropriate suit or proceeding to recover possession of such office, and in cases where it shall appear that the sole question touching the title to such office arises out of the denial of the right to vote to citizens who so offered to vote, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude, such suit or proceeding may be instituted in the circuit or district court of the United States of the circuit or district in which such person resides. And said circuit or district court shall have, concurrently with the State courts, jurisdiction thereof so far as to determine the rights of the parties to such office by reason of the denial of the right guaranteed by the fifteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and secured by this act.

CHAP. CXVI.—Divorces.—In the District of Columbia divorces may be granted for habitual drunkenness for three years, cruelty endangering life and health, and willful desertion for two years.

CHAP. CXXVII.—Credits for Prisoners.—Enacts that prisoners sentenced under United States laws shall be entitled to the same system of credits for good behavior as other prisoners confined in the same prison. And the act approved March 2d, 1867, shall only apply to such persons as are confined in prisons where no credits for good behavior are allowed.

CHAP. CXXIX.—Treasurer at Baltimore.—Establishes an Assistant United States Treasurer in the city of Baltimore.

CHAP. CXXX.—Salaries.—Gives judges in the Territories $3,000 a year.

CHAP. CXXXII.—Disabled Soldiers.—Every soldier who was disabled during the late war, and who was furnished by the War Department with an artificial limb, or apparatus for resection, shall be entitled to receive a new limb or apparatus as soon after the passage of this act as the same can be practicably furnished, and at the expiration of every five years thereafter: Provided, That the soldier may, if he so elect, receive, instead of said limb or apparatus, the money value thereof, at the following rates, viz: For artificial legs, seventy-five dollars; for arms, fifty dollars; for feet, fifty dollars; for apparatus for resection, fifty dollars. That every soldier who lost a limb during the late war, but from the nature of his injury was not able to use an artificial limb, and consequently received none from the Government, shall be entitled to the benefits of this act, and shall receive money commutation.

CHAP. CXXXV.—Cruelty to Animals.—Incorporates a society in the District of Columbia for the prevention of cruelty.

CHAP. CL.—Department of Justice.—Such a department is established, the Attorney-General being at the head; he has an assistant known as Solicitor-General, who may perform his principal's duties in case of the latter's absence; law officers of other departments are transferred to this; questions of law, except such as involve a construction of the Constitution, may be submitted by the Attorney-General to his subordinates; the Attorney-General may order or decline argument in United States cases. (The details of the act are not of public importance.)

CHAP. CLIII.—Settling with Officers.—The proper accounting officers of the Treasury are authorized, in the settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers of the War and Navy Departments, arising since the commencement of the rebellion, and prior to the 20th day of August, 1866, to allow such credits for over payments, and for losses of funds, vouchers, and property, as they may deem just and reasonable, when recommended under authority of the Secretaries of War and Navy, by the heads of the military and naval bureaus to which such accounts respectively pertain. That the accounts of military and naval officers, whether of the line or staff, for Government property charged to them, may be closed by the proper accounting officers whenever, in their judgment, it will be for the interest of the United States so to do.

CHAP. CLXIV.—Loyal Citizens in the Rebel States.—The claims of loyal citizens in the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, and Virginia, for services rendered as United States marshals and their assistants in taking the eighth census in the year 1860, may be paid out of any unexpended balance of any moneys hitherto appropriated for the payment of United States marshals and their assistants, for services rendered in taking the eighth census in the year 1680.

CHAP. CLXVII.—Public Holidays.—The first day of January, commonly called New Year's day, the fourth day of July, the twenty-fifth day of December, commonly called Christmas day, and any day appointed or recommended by the President of the United States as a day of public fast or thanksgiving, shall be holidays within the District of Columbia, and shall, for all purposes of presenting for payment or acceptance, for the maturity and protest, and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks, and promissory notes, or other negotiable or commercial paper, be treated and considered as is the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and all notes, drafts, checks, or other commercial or negotiable paper falling due or maturing on either of said holidays, shall be deemed as having matured on the day previous.

CHAP. CLXVIII.—Steam Navigation.—Incorporates National Bolivian Navigation Company to run steamships from any United States port to any port in South America, or upon any navigable waters of Brazil and Bolivia.

CHAP. CLXIX.—Marine Hospitals.—After Aug. 1, 1870, there is to be collected 40 cents per month from seamen on United States vessels for the fund for the relief of sick and disabled seamen.

CHAP. CLXX.—Licensing Yachts.—Yachts belonging to a regularly organized club of any foreign nation which shall extend like privileges to the yachts of the United States shall have the privilege of entering or leaving any port of the United States without entering or clearing at the custom-house thereof, or paying tonnage tax.

CHAP. CLXXVI.—Bridge over Niagara.—Any bridge built over Niagara River will be a post road; the location must be approved by the Secretary of War bridge must have two draws of 160 feet each, railway companies shall have equal rights to the use of the bridge.

CHAP. CLXXXI.—Priority of Suits.—In United States Courts, where a State is party to a suit, such suits shall have priority over cases between private parties.

CHAP. CLXXXV.—Foreign and Coasting Trade.—Regulates trade by shipping with Canada and other British Provinces. (Interesting to merchants, ship owners and navigators only.)

CHAP. CLXXXVII.—Pay of Deputy Collectors.—Any deputy collector of internal revenue who has performed, or may hereafter perform, under authority of law, the duties of collector of internal revenue in consequence of any vacancy in the office of said collector, shall be entitled to, and shall receive the salary and commissions allowed by law to such collector, or the allowance in lieu of said salary and commissions allowed by the Secretary of the Treasury to such collector.

CHAP. CLXXXIX.—Furs in Alaska.—This act is to prevent the extermination of fur-bearing animals in the Territory of Alaska.

CHAP. CXC.—Port of Delivery.—Vallejo, California, is declared to be a port of delivery.

CHAP. CCXXIV.—Land and Emigration Company.—Incorporates in Colorado and New Mexico a company with $2,500,000 capital, the objects of which are to promote and encourage emigration to and establish settlements on the lands of said company in the San Louis Park, in the Territories of Colorado and New Mexico, and, in connection therewith, to establish such agencies as it may deem desirable; to purchase, hold, lease, sell, and mortgage any real estate situate in the San Louis Park in said Territories, or either of them, now owned or contracted for by any of the persons named in the first section with any co-tenant thereof, his or their heirs or assigns; to survey, lay out, and improve the same; to establish, maintain, and operate wagon roads to and upon its property; to construct and maintain a railroad and telegraph line from any point on lands of said company in the San Louis Park, to the nearest and most practicable point on either the Kansas Pacific railroad, the Union Pacific railroad, the Denver Branch railroad, or the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and the said company, for the purpose of building and operating such railroad, shall have the right of way through the public lands of the United States from and between the points aforesaid, the said right of way being to the extent of two hundred feet on each side of said railroad line; and such corporation shall possess all the franchises necessary to enable it to build and operate such railroad for the transportation of freight and passengers, and to collect and receive compensation therefor; and the powers, privileges, and franchises conferred on corporations by and under the provisions of chapter eighteen of the revised statutes of Colorado, or of any and all amendments thereto, are hereby confirmed to and invested in said corporation, subject to said statutes for the purposes of this act.

CHAP. CCXXV.—Pensions.—Pension agents must send, quarterly, the names of each one entitled to pension payable at his agency. On these lists, where found to be correct, payment is immediately made through the mails. Hereafter no pension shall be paid to any person other than the pensioner entitled thereto, nor otherwise than according to the provisions of this act, and no warrant, power of attorney, or other paper executed or purporting to be executed by any pensioner to any attorney, claim agent, broker, or other person, shall be recognized by any agent for the payment of pensions, nor shall any pension be paid thereon: Provided, That payment to persons laboring under legal disabilities may be made to the guardians of such persons in the manner herein prescribed. That in addition to the compensation now allowed by law, each pension agent shall be allowed, as full compensation for all service, including postage, required by the provisions of this act, the sum of thirty cents, and no more, for each voucher prepared and paid by him, which amount shall be paid by the United States.

That the fee of agents and attorneys for the preparation and prosecution of a claim for pension or bounty land, under any or all of the various acts of Congress granting the same, shall not exceed in any case the sum of twenty-five dollars. It shall be the duty of the agent or attorney of record in the prosecution of the case to cause to be filed with the Commissioner of Pensions, for his approval, duplicate articles of agreement, without additional cost to the claimant, setting forth the fee agreed upon by the parties, and which agreement shall be executed in presence of and certified by some officer competent to administer oaths. In all cases where application is made for pension or bounty land, and no agreement is filed with and approved by the Commissioner as herein provided, the fee shall be ten dollars and no more.

That any agent or attorney who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand, receive, or retain any greater compensation for his services as such agent or attorney, in any claim for pension or bounty land, than is prescribed or allowed under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall, for every such offense, be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

CHAP. CCXXX.—Patents and Copyrights. [This act revises and consolidates laws in reference to the above subjects. It puts the Patent Office under the Department of the Interior, retaining nearly all the officers, appoints additional clerks, copyists and laborers, and overhauls the regulations of the patent office, fixing new rules, &c. It is especially important to inventors and patentees, but much too long for even a synopsis in our Almanac.]

CHAP. CCLIV.—Frauds at Elections.—In all cases where any oath, affirmation, or affidavit shall be made or taken under or by virtue of any act or law relating to the naturalization of aliens, or in any proceedings under such acts or laws, and any person or persons taking or making such oath, affirmation, or affidavit, shall knowingly swear or affirm falsely, the same shall be deemed and taken to be perjury, and the person or persons guilty thereof shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years and not less than one year, and to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars. That if any person applying to be admitted a citizen, or appearing as a witness for any such person, shall knowingly personate any other person than himself, or falsely appear in the name of a deceased person, or in an assumed or fictitious name, or if any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit any oath, affirmation, notice, affidavit, certificate, order, record, signature, or other instrument, paper, or proceeding required or authorized by any law or act relating to or providing for the naturalization of aliens; or shall utter, sell, dispose of, or use as true or genuine, or for any unlawful purpose, any false, forged, ante-dated, or counterfeit oath, affirmation, notice, certificate, order, record, signature, instrument, paper, or proceeding as aforesaid; or sell or dispose of to any person other than the person for whom it was orighally issued, any certificate of citizenship, or certificate showing any person to be admitted a citizen; or if any person shall in any manner use for the purpose of registering as a voter, or as evidence as a right to vote, or otherwise, unlawfully, any order, certificate of citizenship, or certificate, judgment, or exemplication, showing such person to be admitted to be a citizen, whether heretofore or hereafter issued or made, knowing that such order or certificate, judgment, or exemplification has been unlawfully issued or made; or if any person shall unlawfully use, or attempt to use, any such order or certificate, issued to or in the name of any other person, or in a fictitious name, or the name of a deceased person; or use, or attempt to use, or aid, or assist, or participate in the use of any certificate of citizenship, knowing the same to be forged, or counterfeit, or ante-dated, or knowing the same to have been procured by fraud, or otherwise unlawfully obtained; or if any person, and without lawful excuse, shall knowingly have or be possessed of any false, forged, ante-dated, or counterfeit certificate of citizenship, purporting to have been issued under the provisions of any law of the United States relating to naturalization, knowing such certificate to be false, forged, ante-dated, or counterfeit, with intent unlawfully to use the same; or if any person shall obtain, accept, or receive any certificate of citizenship known to such person to have been procured by fraud or by the use of any false name, or by means of any false statement made with intent to procure, or to aid in procuring, the issue of such certificate, or known to such person to be fraudulently altered or ante-dated; or if any person who has been or may be admitted to be a citizen shall, on oath or affirmation, or by affidavit, knowingly deny that he has been so admitted, with intent to evade or avoid any duty or liability imposed or required by law, every person so offending shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to be imprisoned and kept at hard labor for a period not less than one year nor more than five years, or be fined in a sum not less than three hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or both such punishments may be imposed, in the discretion of the court. And every person who shall knowingly and intentionally aid or abet any person in the commission of any such felony, or attempt to do any act hereby made a felony, or counsel, advise, or procure or attempt to procure, the commission thereof, shall be liable to indictment and punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as the principal party guilty of such felony, and such person may be tried and convicted thereof without the previous conviction of such principal. That any person who shall knowingly use any certificate of naturalization heretofore granted by any court, or which shall hereafter be granted, which has been, or shall be, procured through fraud or by false evidence, or has been or shall be issued by the clerk, or any other officer of the court, without any appearance and hearing of the applicant in court and without lawful authority; and any person who shall falsely represent himself to be a citizen of the United States, without having been duly admitted to citizenship, for any fraudulent purpose whatever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in due course of law, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not exceeding two years, either or both, in the discretion of the court taking cognizance of the same. That the provisions of this act shall apply to all proceedings had or taken, or attempted to be had or taken, before any court in which any proceeding for naturalization shall be commenced, had, or taken, or attempted to be commenced; and the courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction of all offenses under the provisions of this act, in or before whatsoever court or tribunal the same shall have been committed. That in any city having upwards of twenty thousand inhabitants, it shall be the duty of the judge of the circuit court of the United States for the circuit wherein said city shall be, upon the application of two citizens, to appoint, in writing, for each election district or voting precinct in said city, and to change or renew said appointment as occasion may require, from time to time, two citizens resident of the district or precinct, one from each political party, who, when so designated, shall be, and are hereby, authorized to attend at all times and places fixed for the registration of voters, who, being registered would be entitled to vote for representative in Congress, and at all times and places for holding elections of representatives in Congress, and for counting the votes cast at said elections, and to challenge any name proposed to be registered, and any vote offered, and to be present and witness throughout the counting of all votes, and to remain where the ballot boxes are kept at all times after the polls are open until the votes are finally counted; and said persons and either of them shall have the right to affix their signature or his signature to said register for purposes of identification, and to attach thereto, or to the certificate of the number of votes cast, and statement touching the truth or fairness thereof which they or he may ask to attach; and any one who shall prevent any person so designated from doing any of the acts authorized as aforesaid, or who shall hinder or molest any such person in doing any of the said acts, or shall aid or abet in preventing, hindering, or molesting any such person in respect of any such acts, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment not less than one year. That in any city having upwards of twenty thousand inhabitants, it shall be lawful for the marshal of the United States for the district wherein said city shall be, to appoint as many special deputies as may be necessary to preserve order at any election at which representatives in Congress are to be chosen; and said deputies are hereby authorized to preserve order at such elections, and to arrest for any offense or breach of the peace committed in their view. That the naturalization laws are hereby extended to aliens of African nativity and to persons of African descent.

CHAP. CCLV.—To Reduce Internal Taxes, &c.—Repeals the act of June 30, 1864, and section two of March 2, 1867, except as to tax on brewers. After Oct. 1, 1870, repeals the tax on sales, except such as are paid by stamps, and taxes on tobacco and spirits, wines included. Repeals from same date tax on articles in Schedule A; on boats, barges, and flats; on legacies, successions and passports; on gross receipts. Also repeals stamp tax in Schedule B on promissory notes of less than $100, and on receipts of all kinds for payment of debts; stamp tax on canned and preserved fish. No stamp is required on an assignment of a mortgage once stamped. Certain commissions are allowed those who furnish their own dies for stamps on proprietary articles. The income tax is fixed at 2½ per cent. on all profits over $2,000 a year. This tax stops at the end of 1871. The exemptions of local taxes, rent, debts paid, losses, &c., remain substantially unchanged. Taxes to be assessed on the 31st of December, and levied on the 1st of March following—penalties as before. Persons taxable must make sworn returns, and assessors to have access to books in case of doubt as to accuracy. If the assessor is satisfied that the oath of a taxable declaring his income less than $2,000 is correct, he may exempt the person for the year. For 1871, 2½ per cent. is to be collected on interest or coupons paid, and on dividends, earnings, income and gains of banks, trust, insurance, savings, railroad, canal, turnpike, and slack water navigation companies; the sum to be deducted when payments are made to stockholders and other creditors; and the same tax on undivided profits or accrued earnings; the tax on dividends of insurance companies is not due until the dividends are payable; money returned to policy holders not considered dividends; companies and corporations to make sworn returns through their officers, $1,000 fine for default. [Sec. 17 repeals many items of tax from the 1st of August, 1870. These exemptions are already well known. The repeal does not affect suits or other proceedings in progress at the time.] The President may consolidate collection districts and supervisors' districts, and discharge superfluous officers. As soon as practicable, the number of assistant assessors to be reduced, especially where feasible in consequence of the repeal of taxes.

PUBLIC RESOLUTIONS.

No. 1.—For a commission to select a site for a building for the State Department.

No. 12.—The Secretary of War is authorized and required to provide for taking meteorological observations at the military stations in the interior of the continent, and at other points in the States and Territories of the United States, and for giving notice on the northern lakes and on the seacoast, by magnetic telegraph and marine signals, of the approach and force of storms.

No. 67.—That the Northern Pacific Railroad Company be, and hereby is, authorized to issue its bonds to aid in the construction and equipment of its road, and to secure the same by mortgage on its property and rights of property of all kinds and descriptions, real, personal, and mixed, including its franchise as a corporation; and, as proof and notice of its legal execution and effectual delivery, said mortgage shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Secretary of the Interior; and also to locate and construct, under the provisions and with the privileges, grants, and duties provided for in its act of incorporation, its main road to some point on Puget Sound, via the valley of the Columbia River, with the right to locate and construct its branch from some convenient point on its main trunk line across the Cascade Mountains to Puget Sound; and in the event of there not being in any State or Territory in which said main line or branch may be located, at the time of the final location thereof, the amount of lands per mile granted by Congress to said company, within the limits prescribed by its charter, then said company shall be entitled, under the directions of the Secretary of the Interior, to receive so many sections of land belonging to the United States, and designated by odd numbers, in such State or Territory, within ten miles on each side of said road beyond the limits prescribed in said charter, as will make up such deficiency, on said main line or branch, except mineral and other lands as excepted in the charter of said company of eighteen hundred and sixty-four, to the amount of the lands that have been granted, sold, reserved, occupied by homestead settlers, pre-empted, or otherwise disposed of subsequent to the passage of the act of July two, eighteen hundred and sixty-four. And that twenty-five miles of said main line between its western terminus and the city of Portland, in the State of Oregon, shall be completed by the first day of January, anno domini eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and forty miles of the remaining portion thereof each year thereafter, until the whole shall be completed between said points.

No. 87.—That the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of California may construct its road and telegraph line, as near as may be, on the route indicated by the map filed by said company in the Department of the Interior on the third day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven; and upon the construction of each section of said road, in the manner and within the time provided by law, and notice thereof being given by the company to the Secretary of the Interior, he shall direct an examination of each such section by commissioners to be appointed by the President, as provided in the act making a grant of land to said company, approved July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and upon the report of the commissioners to the Secretary of the Interior that such section of said railroad and telegraph line has been constructed as required by law, it shall be the duty of the said Secretary of the Interior to cause patents to be issued to said company for the sections of land coterminous to each constructed section reported on as aforesaid, to the extent and amount granted to said company by the said act of July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, expressly saving and reserving all the rights of actual settlers, together with the other conditions and restrictions provided for in the third section of said act.

PROCLAMATIONS.

ADOPTION OF THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Hamilton Fish, Secretary of State of the United States.

To all whom these presents may come, greeting: Know ye, that the Congress of the United States, on or about the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, passed a resolution in the words and figures following, to wit:

"A Resolution proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America

in Congress assembled (two-thirds of both Houses concurring), That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by three-fourths of said legislatures, shall be valid as part of the Constitution, namely: "ART. XV.—Sec. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Sec. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation." And further, that it appears from official documents on file in this Department that the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed as aforesaid, has been ratified by the legislatures of the States of North Carolina, West Virginia, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Maine, Louisiana, Michigan, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, New York, New Hampshire, Nevada, Vermont, Virginia, Alabama, Missouri, Mississippi, Ohio, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Nebraska, and Texas, in all twenty-nine States. And further, that the States where legislatures have so ratified the said proposed amendment constitute three-fourths of the whole number of States in the United States. And further, that it appears from an official document on file in this Department that the legislature of the State of New York has since passed resolutions claiming to withdraw the said ratification of the said amendment which had been made by the legislature of that State, and of which official notice had been filed in this Department. And, further, that it appears from an official document on file in this department that the legislature of Georgia has by resolution ratified the said proposed amendment:

Now, therefore, be it known that I, HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State of the United States, by virtue and in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress, approved the twentieth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and eighteen, entitled "An act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States and for other purposes," do hereby certify that the amendment aforesaid has become valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord

HAMILTON FISH.

NEUTRALITY WITH CANADA.

By the President of the United States of America:

Whereas, it has come to my knowledge that sundry illegal military enterprises and expeditions are being set on foot within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, with a view to carry on the same from such territory and jurisdiction against the people and district of the Dominion of Canada, within the dominions of Her Majesty, the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, with whom the United States are at peace:

Now, therefore, I, ULYSSES S. GRANT, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and all persons within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, against aiding, countenancing, abetting, or taking part in such unlawful proceedings; and I do hereby warn all persons that by committing such illegal acts they will forfeit all right to the protection of the Government, or to its interference in their behalf to rescue them from the consequences of their own acts; and I do hereby enjoin all officers in the service of the United States to employ all their lawful authority and power to prevent and defeat the aforesaid unlawful proceedings, and to arrest and bring to justice all persons who may be engaged therein.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-fourth day of May, in the year of our [L. S.] Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-fourth.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President:

HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

Switzler in '68, 436. David P. Dyer, Rep. bolter, received 3812 votes for Congress in '70. In 1870, whole vote for Gov., 166625; maj. for Brown, 41917. Whole vote for Gov. in '68, 141887. McClurg, Rep., over Phelps, 1927. The following additional State officers were elected in 1870—all bolters—by majorities of about 41000:

Lieut.-Gov.	J. J. Gravelly over	A. J. Harlan.
Sec. State	E. F. Weizel "	J. H. Stover.
Treasurer	Samuel Hays "	C. I. Filley.
Auditor	D. M. Draper "	G. A. Moser.
Atty-Gen.	A. J. Baker "	H. B. Johnson.
Ld Register	Fred. Solomon "	J. H. McGee.
School Sup.	Ira Devoll "	G. P. Beard.

David Wagner was elected Supreme Court Judge without opposition.

Several amendments to the State Constitution were adopted at this election, the most important of which was one intended to relieve the political disabilities of ex-rebel citizens.

The LEGISLATURE is in the control of the bolting Republicans in that body.

On the 2d of July, 1870, the people of Illinois adopted a new State Constitution, containing many novel and excellent provisions, among which are the following: providing for a minority representation in the State Assembly; prohibiting counties, cities, towns, or other municipalities, from subscribing to the stock of any railroad or other private corporation, and from making any gift to or lending its credit in aid of such corporation; prohibiting the consolidation of competing lines of railroad, and otherwise regulating railway corporations, and prohibiting any local or special legislation in all cases where the object sought can be attained by a general act. Many of the propositions in the Constitution were submitted to a separate vote, and were all adopted by majorities ranging from 29000 to 124000.

Favorite Journal.

In offering to the public Dr. McLane's Celebrated Liver
Bilious Complaints, we presume no apology will be needed.
Complaint and Bilious Diseases of all kinds throughout th the West and South, where, in the majority of cases, the patient ar physician, requires that some remedy should be provided tha the constitution, and yet be safe and effectual. That such LANE'S LIVER PILLS there can be no doubt. The great suc tended their use, will, we think, be sufficient to convince the most sincere wish that these Pills should be fairly and fully tested, and produced. That they have been so tested, and that the result has been able, we call thousands to witness who have experienced their beneficial e

Dr. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not held forth or recommended (like m medicines of the day) as universal cure-alls, but simply for LIVER COMPLA symptoms connected with a deranged state of that organ.

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.

The Liver is much more frequently the seat of disease than is generally supposed. The fu tion it is designed to perform, and on the regular execution of which depends not only t general health of the body, but the powers of the stomach, bowels, brain, and the whole ne vous system, shows its vast and vital importance to human health. When the Liver is serious diseased, it in fact not only deranges the vital functions of the body, but exercises a powerf influence over the mind and its operations, which cannot easily be described. It has so close connection with other diseases, and manifests itself by so great a variety of symptoms of a m doubtful character, that it misleads more physicians, even of great eminence, than any oth vital organ. The intimate connection which exists between the liver and the brain, and the gre dominion which I am persuaded it exercises over the passions of mankind, convince me th many unfortunate beings have committed acts of deep and criminal atrocity, or become wh fools term hypochondriacs, from the simple fact of a diseased state of the Liver. I have lo been convinced that more than one-half of the complaints which occur in this country, are to considered as having their seat in a diseased state of the Liver. I will enumerate some them: Indigestion, Stoppage of the Menses, Deranged State of the Bowels, Irritable an Vindictive Feelings and Passions, from trifling and inadequate causes, of which we afte ward feel ashamed; last, though not least, more than three-fourths of the diseases enumerat under the head of Consumption, have their seat in a diseased liver. This is truly a frightf catalogue.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.—Pain in the right side, under the edge of the rib increasing on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach affected with loss of appetite and sickness; bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternati with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the ba part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensati of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight dry cough is som times an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled; h feet are cold or burning and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are lo and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summ up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above sym toms attend the disease; but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination the body, after death, has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

Ague and Fever.—Dr. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, in cases of Ague and Fever, when tak with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used prepa tory to or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with the disease to gi them A FAIR TRIAL.

Directions.—Take two or three Pills going to bed, every second or third night. If they not purge two or three times by next morning, take one or two more; but a slight breakf should invariably follow their use. The Liver Pills may be used where purging simply is nec sary. As an anti-bilious purgative, they are inferior to none; and in doses of two or three, th give astonishing relief in Sick Headache, also in slight derangements of the Stomach.

PREPARED ONLY BY FLEMING BROS., PITTSBURGH, PA.,

EAT REMEDY,

WHICH HAS BEEN

Known and Extensively in New York City

AND VICINITY FOR UPWARDS OF

MADAME ZADOC PORTER'S

CURATIVE COUGH BALSAM,

Price 25, 50, & 75 Cents per Bottle.

The Best, Cheapest, and most effectual Remedy for Coughs, Colds, &c., the world has ever produced. Purely Vegetable, contains no MINERALS, or other DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

The CURATIVE BALSAM is Warranted, if used according to Directions, to CURE or RELIEVE in all cases, COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS.

Madame Zadoc Porter's Balsam is a purely Vegetable Expectorant, prepared with great care and scientific skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords.

Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the BLOOD through the LUNGS.

It enlivens the muscles and assists the skin to perform the duties of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the waste substance from the surface of the body.

It loosens the phlegm, induces free spitting, and will be found

VERY AGREEABLE TO THE TASTE.

It is not a violent remedy, but emollient, warming, searching, and effective: can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

If you have a Cold, if ever so slight, do not fail to give the Balsam a trial, as the very low price at which it is sold brings it within the reach of every one, that they may always keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a 25 cent bottle will often prove it to be worth one hundred times its cost.

☞ The 75 cent bottle is more profitable to the consumer, as it contains four times the quantity contained in the small bottle.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.—The Paper of the People.

THE TRIBUNE aims to be pre-eminently a News-paper. Its correspondents traverse every State are present on every important battle-field, are early advised of every notable Cabinet decision observe the proceedings of Congress, of Legislatures, and of Conventions, and report to us by tele graph all that seems of general interest. We have paid for one day's momentous advices from Europe by Cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advices reached our readers. If lavish outlay, unsleeping vigilance, and unbounded faith in the liberality and discern ment of the reading public, will enable us to make a journal which has no superior in the accuracy variety, and freshness of its contents, THE TRIBUNE shall be such a journal.

To Agriculture and the subservient arts, we have devoted, and shall persistently devote, more means and space than any of our rivals. We aim to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE such a paper that no farmer can afford to do without, however widely his politics may differ from ours. Our reports of the Cattle, Horse, Produce, and General Markets, are so full and accurate, our essays in eluci dation of the farmer's calling, and our regular reports of the Farmers' Club and kindred gatherings are so interesting, that the poorest farmer will find therein a mine of suggestion and counsel, of which he cannot remain ignorant without positive and serious loss.

THE TRIBUNE has been, is, and must be, a zealous advocate of Protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human progress, the bane of human happiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of Speculation, of Traffic, and of always overcrowded Professions, to the tranquil paths of Productive Industry. We would gladly deplete our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in misguided quest of "Something to Do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies absorbed in Agriculture, Mechanics and Manufactures. Holding the protection of Home Industry by discriminating duties on imported Wares and Fabrics essential to the rapid, beneficent diffusion of Production in all its phases and departments, and so to the instruction of our people in all the gainful arts of Peace, we urge our countrymen to adhere to and uphold that policy.

We sell THE WEEKLY to Clubs for less than its value in dwellings for waste-paper; and, though its subscription is already very large, we believe that a Half Million more farmers will take it whenever it shall be commended to their attention. We ask our friends everywhere to aid us in so commending it.

AS A FAMILY NEWSPAPER,

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is pre-eminent. In addition to Reviews, Notices of New Books, Poetry, &c., we publish Short Stories, original or selected, which will generally be concluded in a single issue, or at most in two or three. We intend that THE TRIBUNE shall keep in the advance in all that concerns the Agricultural, Manufacturing, Mining, and other interests of the country; and that, for variety and completeness, it shall remain altogether the most valuable, interesting, and instructive NEWSPAPER published in the world.

New and Valuable Tide Table for 110 Places.

To find the time of high-water at any of the places named in the following table, add the time indicated in the first column of figures to the time of "Moon South," or "Moon on Meridian," found in the calendar pages. If the result is more than 12 hours from noon, the time will be the next day in the morning; and if more than 12 hours from midnight, the time will be in the afternoon of the same day. The tide thus found is the first after the Moon's culmination. The second tide occurs 12 hours and 26 minutes later than the first:

To Get Correct Time.

When the shadow cast by the Sun reaches the noon-mark, set the clock at the time given in the column of "Sun at Noon-mark," and it will be exactly noon by regular time in and around the noon-mark, the passing the lines by the Sun's shadow. A meridian line is used instead of a noon-mark, the passing the lines by the Sun's shadow at the moment he reaches the meridian. Any skilful surveyor can make a noon-mark or meridian line of some form of proper value. In doing so, he must allow for the variation of the magnetic needle from a true or astronomical north and south line.

A Table of Sixty-one Bright Stars.

To ascertain when any Star found in the following Table will be on the upper meridian, add the numbers opposite in the left-hand column of figures to the time of "Sidereal Noon" found in the calendar pages. For the RISING of a star, subtract the number opposite in the right-hand column of figures from its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to its meridian passage. Those marked (....) revolve in a circle of perpetual apparition, and do not rise nor set north of the latitude of New York (40° 42′ 40″), for which latitude the semi-diurnal arcs are calculated. The civil day begins at midnight, and consequently 24 hours after midnight, or 12 hours from noon, is morning of the succeeding day; and more than 24 hours from noon, is evening of the next day. From 12h. to 24h. from midnight, or from 0h. to 12h. from noon, will be in the afternoon of the same day. This table is arranged in the order of culmination.

Surveyors and Civil Engineers may obtain the declination of the magnetic needle by observations on the Pole Star when upon the meridian, or when at the greatest elongation east or west. POLARIS and other stars pass the lower meridian 11h. 58m. after their upper transit. To the time of upper transit of Polaris, add 5h. 54m. and it gives the time of greatest western elongation. If the 5h. 54m. be subtracted from the time of upper transit, it will give the time of greatest eastern elongation. Observations made at the time of greatest elongation are less liable to error than those made at the time of transit. The mean distance of Polaris from the pole this year is 1° 22′ 23.37″. To find its azimuth for any latitude, take from 18.8795564 the logarithmic cosine of the latitude, and the remainder is the logarithmic sine of the azimuth.

NOTE.—In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS.—☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night,

at any time of the year, add 12 hours to the time of the Sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Leap-Year.—Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 without a remainder is a leap-year, except the last year of the century, which is a leap-year only when divisible by 400 without a remainder. Thus the year 1900 will not be a leap-year.

The Asteroids.

About 114 little planets, called Asteroids, have been discovered between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Some of them are so small that to call them worlds might seem inappropriate. But any body having an orbit, though not larger than a cannon-ball, is entitled to rank as a world. Many such may exist which will never be discovered because of their littleness. Very little asteroidal bodies are revolving around the earth, as the moon does. The aerolites, or falling stones, are really such asteroids whose orbits cross the earth's orbit, or else wind spirally inward to the earth as a center.

"THE CLOTHING TRADE OF NEW YORK CITY."

Among the many business houses of this city, there is none more worthy the notice or patronage of an appreciating public than the well-known firm of TRAPHAGEN, HUNTER & CO., Nos. 398. 400 & 402 Bowery, junction of Third and Fourth avenues, and nearly opposite the Seventh Regiment Armory.

Their immense establishment., consisting of three five-story buildings, devoted exclusively to the manufacture and sale of Gentlemen's, Youth's, and Children's Clothing, is one of the largest in the city.

MOON.—Lowest, 6th; perigee, 7th; apogee and highest, 19th.

Books and Periodicals devoted to specialties are numerous, yet but few journals give a variety of pure, interesting and instructive reading adapted to the various members of the Family Circle, in both Town and Country. But MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER, the great National Illustrated Rural and Family Weekly, is a notable exception, for, by meeting the wants of Men, Women, and Children, it has become the Favorite Farm and Fireside Journal of America.

The Rural New-Yorker is not only the Standard Authority on Agriculture, Horticulture, &c., but highly esteemed as a Literary and Family Paper. It carefully treats upon more subjects than are discussed in half a dozen ordinary journals, is finely illustrated, and by far the Largest, Best and Cheapest Journal of its Class, in the World. Indeed, as one of its contemporaries says: "MOORE'S RURAL is the most elegantly printed, ably edited, widely circulated, and heartily welcomed paper, as a whole, which now finds its way among the people."

The Rural New-Yorker contains 16 double quarto pages, weekly, with title-page, index, etc., every six months, making Two Large and Handsome Volumes a Year. It is first class, wide awake, progressive, and always up to the times—manifesting the true spirit of its inspiriting Motto, "Excel for," and Laudable Objects, "Progress and Improvement." Terms, $2.50 per year; only $2 in clubs with great Inducements to Agents. Specimen Numbers, Show-Bills, &c., sent free to all who address D. D. T. MOORE, 5 Beekman St., New York.

Good Soap, like good wine, is improved by age.

Among the ruins of Herculaneum and Pompeii Soap was found in a good state of preservation, after having been buried over 1700 years.

A box of Soap in a family is better than "money at interest," as when from three to six months old, one pound will go further than three pounds of new soap.

Ask your grocer for a box of CRAMPTON'S IMPERIAL LAUNDRY SOAP, and if he does not keep it, send your order to CRAMPTON BROTHERS, 84 Front St. New York.

SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO.

This is the best fertilizer, without exception. As an evidence of it, the sale has increased steadily in the past seven years so that in 1870, sixteen thousand tons were sold. Price $50 per ton. The agent is FACTS, established by comparison, carry a force with them that is irresistible.

That thousands of double-thread sewing machines are annually exchanged for the Willcox & Gibbs, is an indisputable fact.

Its special adaptability to the requirements of the FAMILY furnish the "reason why" of the numerous exchanges.

Ladies who have used other machines for years, when once made acquainted with its advantages invariably exchange for it.

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS

PASSED AT THE THIRD SESSION OF THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS, AND THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS, WITH RESOLUTIONS AND PROCLAMATIONS.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS—THIRD SESSION COMMENCED DEC. 5, 1870—CLOSED MARCH 4, 1871.

CHAP. II.—Lands for the Utah Central Railroad.—Grants 200 feet on each side of the road, besides land necessary for stations, shops, side tracks, &c. The road to be a post-route.

CHAP. VI.—Sugar.—Modifies and reduces the tariff on sugar; present rate from 1¼ to 4 cents per lb.

CHAP. XXII.—Internal Improvements.—Grants $300,000 to improve the Louisville and Portland canal for 1871.

CHAP. XXXIII.—Kansas.—Provides for reimbursing Kansas for expense of raising and equipping troops in the Rebellion; sum not stated.

CHAP. XXXIV.—Internal Improvements.—Appropriates $100,000 to improve St. Mary's Falls canal and river.

CHAP. XXXV.—Judicial Districts.—Divides Virginia into two judicial districts.

CHAP. XXXVIII.—Indians.—Provides for the sale of the Stockbridge Reservation in Wisconsin, and the removal of the Indians to another location.

CHAP. XLV.—Smuggling.—Amends the Act to Prevent Smuggling, with especial reference to the Canadian frontier.

CHAP. XLVIII.—Indian Lands.—Provides for the sale of not more than six townships of the Menominee Reservation in Wisconsin.

CHAP. L.—Pensions of 1812.—Provides that the Secretary of the Interior place on the pension roll the names of the surviving officers and enlisted and drafted men, including militia and volunteers, of the military and naval service of the United States, who served sixty days in the war with Great Britain of 1812, and were honorably discharged, and to such other officers and soldiers as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress for any specific service in said war, although their term of service may have been less than sixty days, and who at no time, during the late rebellion against the authority of the United States, adhered to the cause of the enemies of the government. The pension is $8 per month; widows who have not married again are provided for.

CHAP. LXII.—District of Columbia.—Provides a government for the District, making it substantially a regular Territory. The governor and secretary are appointed for four years by the President, confirmed by the Senate; there is a Legislature consisting of a Council of eleven members, and a House of Delegates of twenty-two members. (This Act was put in effect early in the summer.)

CHAP. LXVII.—Bridge over the Missouri.—Authorizes the Union Pacific Railroad Company to issue bonds for building a bridge at or near Omaha, Congress may regulate tolls and fares for the bridge.

CHAP. LXVIII.—Selling Military Reservations.—Provides for surveying and putting in market the military lands of Fort Lane and Walla Walla in Oregon, Fort Zarah in Kansas, Camp Garry in Nevada, Fort Sumner in New Mexico, Forts Jessup and Sabine in Louisiana, Forts Wayne and Smith in Arkansas, Fort Abercrombie on the Red River of the North, and part of Fort Bridger in Wyoming.

CHAP. XCIX.—Protection of the Right of Suffrage.—(This act is effective only when members of Congress are to be chosen.) Fraudulent registration for the purpose of voting, using force, or bribery, or in any way hindering a legal voter from registering, tampering with the registering officers, knowingly registering one not entitled to vote, making or using false papers, or doing any unlawful act to impede or falsify the registry, is declared a crime, punishable by the penalties named in the act of May 31, 1870. (See TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1871, pages 20-21.) In towns of over 20,000, upon written application of two citizens, the Judge of the United States Circuit Court shall, ten days before registration or election, appoint two citizens for each election district, of different political parties, who shall be known as supervisors of election. These supervisors must attend the registration, where there is any, to challenge suspected persons, scrutinize the books of registered names, sign their names to each page thereof, and do any lawful act to preserve the purity of the registration. They are also to attend the polls whenever members of Congress are to be chosen, to challenge any one whose right to vote is not clear, to remain with the ballot boxes until the canvass is fully made, to scrutinize the way in which the books and tallies are kept and the voting done; "and to the end that each candidate for the office of representative or delegate in Congress shall obtain the benefit of every vote for him cast, the said supervisors of election are, and each of them is, hereby required, in their or his respective election districts or voting precincts, to personally scrutinize, count, and canvass each and every ballot in their or his election district or voting precinct cast, whatever may be the indorsement on said ballot, or in whatever box it may have been placed or be found; to make and forward to the officer who, in accordance with the provisions of section thirteen of this act, shall have been designated as the chief supervisor of the judicial district in which the city or town wherein they or he shall serve shall be, such certificates and returns of all such ballots as said officer may direct and require, and to attach to the registry list, and any and all copies thereof, and to any certificate, statement, or return, whether the same, or any part or portion thereof, be required by any law of the United States, or of any State, territorial, or municipal law, any statement touching the truth or accuracy of the registry, or the truth or fairness of the election and canvass, which the said supervisors of election, or either of them, may desire to make or attach, or which should properly and honestly be made or attached, in order that the facts may become known, any law of any State or Territory to the contrary notwithstanding." The supervisors are to select such places in the registering or voting room as may best enable them to see and know how the business is conducted, any State or local law to the contrary notwithstanding. They will report any molestation or obstruction offered to them in the performance of their duty to the chief supervisor of the judicial district, who will apply for the proper remedy. In large cities, the United States Marshal may appoint two special deputies in each election district to assist the supervisors, and it shall be the duty of such special deputies, to keep the peace, and support and protect the supervisors of elections in the discharge of their duties, preserve order at such places of registration, and at such polls, prevent fraudulent registration and fraudulent voting thereat, or fraudulent conduct on the part of any officer of election, and immediately, either at said place of registration or polling-place, or elsewhere, and either before or after registering or voting, to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person who shall commit, or attempt or offer to commit, any of the acts or offenses prohibited by this act, or the act hereby amended, or who shall commit any offense against the laws of the United States: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, or of the supervisors of election, or either of them, and, for the purposes of arrest or the preservation of the peace, the supervisors of election, and each of them, shall, in the absence of the marshal's deputies, or if required to assist said deputies, have the same duties and powers as deputy marshals: And provided further, That no person shall, on the day or days of any such election, be arrested without process for any offense committed on the day or days of registration. Persons arrested must be taken before a commissioner, judge, or a court of the United States. Any person obstructing or refusing to assist the supervisors in their legitimate duties, or interfering in any way improperly with the supervisors or deputy mashals, is "liable to instant arrest without process, and on conviction to not more than two years imprisonment, or $3,000 fine, or both; and he shall pay the costs of the prosecution." Refusal to answer proper questions, or refraining from answering, or giving false information, is a misdemeanor, to be punished by 30 days imprisonment, or $100 fine, or both, and the offender shall pay the costs of prosecution. Supervisors and deputy marshals duly sworn in, who neglect or refuse to act without lawful excuse, are guilty of misdemeanor, with penalty of six to twelve months imprisonment, or $200 to $500 fine, or both. Marshals resisted in making arrests, may call on the bystanders or the posse comitatus for aid. One United States commissioner in each judicial district is to be appointed by the Circuit Court Chief Supervisor of Elections for such district, whose duty it is to provide books, forms, &c., and prepare instructions for the supervisors, receive their reports, &c. The supervisors and deputy marshals have $5 per day for actual duty, but not to exceed ten days for any one registration or election. All suits arising under this act, are to be brought in, or removed to the United States courts. "All votes for representatives in Congress shall hereafter be by written or printed ballot, any law of any State to the contrary notwithstanding; and all votes received or recorded contrary to the provisions of this section shall be of no effect."

CHAP. C.—Security of Life on Steam Vessels.—Steamers are to have pipes attached to the boilers to use steam for putting out fire; stoves and cooking ranges to be securely fastened, and wood-work near them carefully shielded; steamers carrying 50 passengers, or any passenger steamer carrying cotton, hay, or hemp, shall have a double-action steam fire-pump, or equivalent apparatus for throwing water, with a pipe on each side the vessel to carry water to upper decks, with sufficient hose to reach any part of the vessel. Steamers exceeding 100 tons must have two double-acting fire-pumps, to be worked by hand, with hose, &c.; pipes from the pumps to the water below the vessel's water-line must be in order; no loose hay, hemp, cotton, camphene, nitro-glycerine, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, petroleum, or other like dangerous articles, shall be carried either as freight or stores on passenger steamers. Careful regulations for carrying these and other dangerous articles are made in the act, with heavy penalties for neglect or violation of the rules. Steamers are to employ watchmen at night; must have small boats always ready for use; also life preservers, fire-buckets, water barrels or tanks, axes, convenient stairways, clear gangways, ample space for deck passengers, wire tiller-ropes and bell-pulls, and metal speaking tubes; $300 penalty for neglecting these matters. The system of inspecting steamers is improved, and incompetent inspectors are removed. Minute directions for inspecting boilers, engines and hulls, are enacted, and captains, chief mates, engineers, and pilots are to be licensed. A supervising inspector-general, and supervising inspectors for the several districts, meet once a year (third Wednesday in January) to further the enforcement of this act. (The act goes into minute directions, that are uninteelligible to the non-professional reader.)

CHAP. CV.—Our National Centenary Celebration.—Provides that an exhibition of American and foreign arts, products, and manufactures shall be held, under the auspices of the government of the United States, in the city of Philadelphia, in the year 1876. A commission to consist of not more than one delegate from each State and Territory, whose functions shall continue until the close of the exhibition, shall be constituted, whose duty it shall be to prepare and superintend the execution of a plan for holding the exhibition, and, after conference with the authorities of Philadelphia, to fix upon a suitable site within the limits of the city, where the exhibition shall be held. Said commissioners shall be appointed within one year from the passage of this act by the President of the United States, on the nomination of the governors of the States and Territories respectively. In the same manner there shall be appointed one commissioner from each State and Territory of the United States, who shall assume the place and perform the duties of such commissioner or commissioners as may be unable to attend the meetings of the commission. The commission shall hold its meetings in the city of Philadelphia. The commission shall report to Congress at the first session after its appointment a suitable date for opening and for closing the exhibition; a schedule of appropriate ceremonies for opening or dedicating the same; a plan or plans of the buildings; a complete plan for the reception and classification of articles intended for exhibition; the requisite custom-house regulations for the introduction into this country of the articles from foreign countries intended for exhibition; and such other matters as in their judgment may be important. No compensation for services shall be paid to the commissioners or other officers provided by this act from the treasury of the United States; and the United States shall not be liable for any expenses attending such exhibition, or by reason of the same. Whenever the President shall be informed by the governor of Pennsylvania that provision has been made for the erection of suitable buildings, and for the exclusive control by the commission of the proposed exhibition, the President shall make proclamation of the same, setting forth the time at which the exhibition will open and the place at which it will be held; and he shall communicate to the diplomatic representatives of all nations copies of the same, together with such regulations as may be adopted by the commissioners, for publication in their respective countries.

CHAP. CX.—Bridges over the Mississippi and the Missouri.—The Louisiana and Missouri Railroad Company may bridge the Mississippi at the city of Louisiana; and the same company may bridge the Missouri near Glasgow. The bridges to be not less than fifty feet above the water, or draw-bridges, as preferred. They are to be post-roads.

CHAP. CXVI.—Claims of Loyal Citizens.—The second section of the Army Appropriation bill provides for a board of three commissioners, to be appointed by the President, who shall consider the justice and validity of such claims as shall be brought before them, of those citizens who remained loyal adherents to the cause and the government of the United States during the war, for stores or supplies taken or furnished during the rebellion for the use of the army of the United States in States proclaimed as in insurrection against the United States, including the use and loss of vessels or boats while employed in the military service of the United States. The board sits in Washington, and provision is made for their guidance; they must report fully upon all claims presented.

CHAP. CXXII.—Texas Pacific Railroad.—This act names certain persons "who are hereby created a body politic and corporate in fact and in law, by the name, style, and title of the Texas Pacific Railroad Company, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in all courts of law and equity within the United States, and may make and use a common seal; and the said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to lay out, locate, construct, furnish, maintain, and enjoy a continuous railroad and telegraph line, with the appurtenances, from a point at or near Marshall, county of Harrison, Texas; thence by the most direct and eligible route, to be determined by said company, near the thirty-second parallel of north latitude, to a point at or near El Paso; thence by the most direct and eligible route, to be selected by said company, through New Mexico and Arizona, to a point on the Rio Colorado, at or near the southeastern boundary of California; thence by the most direct and eligible route to San Diego, California, to ship's channel, in the bay of San Diego, California, pursuing in the location thereof, as near as may be, the thirty-second parallel of north latitude, and is hereby vested with all the powers, privileges, and immunities necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act." The capital stock is not to exceed $50,000,000, in shares of $100. Right of way, and alternate sections of public land, are granted, with the usual provisions for conveyance, sale, &c. The face value of bonds issued by the company shall be one thousand dollars in gold, and shall be redeemable at such times, and to bear such rate of interest, payable semi-annually in gold, as may be determined by the directors. The total value of the construction bonds to be issued shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars per mile of said railroad, and the total face value of the land bonds shall not exceed two dollars and fifty cents per acre for all lands mortgaged; the total amount of each to be determined by the board of directors. The road shall be constructed of iron or steel rails manufactured from American ore, except such as may have heretofore been contracted for by any railroad company which may be purchased or consolidated with by the company hereby incorporated. The company shall commence the construction of its road simultaneously at San Diego, California, and from a point at or near Marshall, Texas, and so prosecute the same as to have at least fifty consecutive miles of railroad from each of said points complete and in running order within two years after the passage of this act; and to so continue to construct each year thereafter a sufficient number of miles to secure the completion of the whole line from the aforesaid point on the eastern boundary of the State of Texas to the bay of San Diego, California, within ten years after the passage of this act; and upon failure to so complete it, Congress may adopt such measures as it may deem necessary and proper to secure its speedy completion. The road is to be a military and post-route. Other railroads may cross or connect with this one.

CHAP. CXXIV.—Redemption of Small Coins.—Provides for the redemption at the Treasury Department of copper, bronze and nickel coins, when presented in sums of not less than $20.

indirectly, of depriving any person or any class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges or immunities under the laws, or for the purpose of preventing or hindering the constituted authorities of any State from giving or securing to all persons within such State the equal protection of the laws, or shall conspire together for the purpose of in any manner impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen of the United States the due and equal protection of the laws, or to injure any person in his person or his property for lawfully enforcing the right of any person or class of persons to the equal protection of the laws, or by force, intimidation, or threat to prevent any citizen of the United States lawfully entitled to vote from giving his support or advocacy in a lawful manner towards or in favor of the election of any lawfully qualified person as an elector of President or Vice-President of the United States, or as a member of the Congress of the United States, or to injure any such citizen in his person or property on account of such support or advocacy, each and every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high crime, and, upon conviction thereof in any district or circuit court of the United States, or district or supreme court of any Territory of the United States having jurisdiction of similar offences, shall be punished by a fine not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, as the court may determine, for a period of not less than six months nor more than six years, as the court may determine, or by both such fine and imprisonment, as the court shall determine. And if any one or more persons engaged in any such conspiracy shall do, or cause to be done, any act in furtherance of the object of such conspiracy, whereby any person shall be injured in his person or property, or deprived of having and exercising any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States, the person so injured or deprived of such rights and privileges may have and maintain an action for the recovery of damages occasioned by such injury or deprivation of rights and privileges against any one or more of the persons engaged in such conspiracy, such action to be prosecuted in the proper district or circuit court of the United States, with and subject to the same rights of appeal, review upon error, and other remedies provided in like cases in such courts under the provisions of the act of April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, entitled "An act to protect all persons in the United States in their civil rights, and to furnish the means of their vindication." That in all cases where insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations, or conspiracies in any State shall so obstruct or hinder the execution of the laws thereof, and of the United States, as to deprive any portion or class of the people of such State of any of the rights, privileges, or immunities, or protection, named in the Constitution and secured by this act, and the constituted authorities of such State shall either be unable to protect, or shall, from any cause, fail in or refuse protection of the people in such rights, such facts shall be deemed a denial by such State of the equal protection of the laws to which they are entitled under the Constitution of the United States; and in all such cases, or whenever any such insurrection, violence, unlawful combination, or conspiracy shall oppose or obstruct the laws of the United States or the due execution thereof, or impede or obstruct the due course of justice under the same, it shall be lawful for the President, and it shall be his duty to take such measures, by the employment of the militia or the land and naval forces of the United States, or of either, or by other means, as he may deem necessary for the suppression of such insurrection, domestic violence, or combinations; and any person who shall be arrested under the provisions of this and the preceding section shall be delivered to the marshal of the proper district, to be dealt with according to law. That whenever in any State or part of a State the unlawful combinations named in the preceding section of this act shall be organized and armed, and so numerous and powerful as to be able, by violence, to either overthrow or set at defiance the constituted authorities of such State, and of the United States within such State, or when the constituted authorities are in complicity with, or shall connive at the unlawful purposes of, such powerful and armed combinations; and whenever, by reason of either or all of the causes aforesaid, the conviction of such offenders and the preservation of the public safety shall become in such district impracticable, in every such case such combinations shall be deemed a rebellion against the government of the United States, and during the continuance of such rebellion, and within the limits of the district which shall be so under the sway thereof, such limits to be prescribed by proclamation, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, when in his judgment the public safety shall require it, to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, to the end that such rebellion may be overthrown: Provided, That the President shall first have made proclamation, as now provided by law, commanding such insurgents to disperse. That any person or persons, having knowledge that any of the wrongs conspired to be done and mentioned in the second section of this act are about to be committed, and having power to prevent or aid in preventing the same, shall neglect or refuse so to do, and such wrongful act shall be committed, such person or persons shall be liable to the person injured, or his legal representatives, for all damages caused by any such wrongful act which such first-named person or persons by reasonable diligence could have prevented; and such damages may be recovered in an action on the case in the proper circuit court of the United States, and any number of persons guilty of such wrongful neglect or refusal may be joined as defendants in such action: Provided, That such action shall be commenced within one year after such cause of action shall have accrued; and if the death of any person shall be caused by any such wrongful act and neglect, the legal representatives of such deceased person shall have such action therefor, and may recover not exceeding five thousand dollars damages therein, for the benefit of the widow of such deceased person, if any there be, or if there be no widow, for the benefit of the next of kin of such deceased person.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

This Treaty with Great Britain, signed at Washington, May 8, 1871, ratified on the 17th of June, and proclaimed by President Grant on the 4th of July, provides for the amicable settlement of all points of difference between the United States and Great Britain, more especially in the matters of the "Alabama claims" and the Canadian fisheries. We give all that is necessary to a clear understanding of the intent of the treaty.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

"Whereas differences have arisen between the Government of the United States and the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, and still exist, growing out of the acts committed by the several vessels which have given rise to the claims generally known as the 'Alabama claims': And whereas Her Britannic Majesty has authorized her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries to express, in a friendly spirit, the regret felt by Her Majesty's Government for the escape, under whatever circumstances, of the Alabama and other vessels from British ports, and for the depredations committed by those vessels:

"Now, in order to remove and adjust all complaints and claims on the part of the United States, and to provide for the speedy settlement of such claims, which are not admitted by Her Britannic Majesty's Government, the High Contracting Parties agree that all the said claims, growing out of acts committed by the aforesaid vessels and generally known as the 'Alabama claims,' shall be referred to a Tribunal of Arbitration to be composed of five Arbitrators, to be appointed in the following manner, that is to say: One shall be named by the President of the United States; one shall be named by Her Britannic Majesty; His Majesty the King of Italy shall be requested to name one; the President of the Swiss Confederation shall be requested to name one; and His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil shall be requested to name one."

Provision is made for filling vacancies in the Board of Arbitrators, who are to meet at Geneva, Switzerland, at a convenient and early day, "and shall proceed impartially and carefully to examine and decide all questions that shall be laid before them on the part of the Governments of the United States and Her Britannic Majesty respectively. All questions considered by the Tribunal, including the final award, shall be decided by a majority of all the Arbitrators. Each of the High Contracting Parties shall also name one person to attend the Tribunal as its agent to represent it generally in all matters connected with the arbitration."

Each side is to have access to all documents referring to claims, and ample regulations are made for the times and forms of procedure.

"In deciding the matters submitted to the Arbitrators, they shall be governed by the following three rules, which are agreed upon by the High Contracting Parties as rules to be taken as applicable to the case, and by such principles of International Law not inconsistent therewith as the Arbitrators shall determine to have been applicable to the case. A neutral Government is bound—

"'First, to use due diligence to prevent the fitting out, arming, or equipping, within its jurisdiction, of any vessel which it has reasonable ground to believe is intended to cruise or to carry on war against a Power with which it is at peace; and also to use like diligence to prevent the departure from its jurisdiction of any vessel intended to cruise or carry on war as above, such vessel having been specially adapted, in whole or in part, within such jurisdiction, to warlike use.

"'Secondly, not to permit or suffer either belligerent to make use of its ports or waters as the base of naval operations against the other, or for the purpose of the renewal or augmentation of military supplies or arms, or the recruitment of men.

"'Thirdly, to exercise due diligence in its own ports and waters, and, as to all persons within its jurisdiction, to prevent any violation of the foregoing obligations and duties.'

"Her Britannic Majesty has commanded her High Commissioners and Plenipotentiaries to declare that Her Majesty's Government cannot assent to the foregoing rules as a statement of principles of International Law which were in force at the time when the claims mentioned in Article I arose, but that Her Majesty's Government, in order to evince its desire of strengthening the friendly relations between the two countries and of making satisfactory provision for the future, agrees that in deciding the questions between the two countries arising out of those claims, the Arbitrators should assume that Her Majesty's Government had undertaken to act upon the principles set forth in these rules. And the High Contracting Parties agree to observe these rules as between themselves in future, and to bring them to the knowledge of other maritime Powers, and to invite them to accede to them.

"The decision of the Tribunal shall, if possible, be made within three months from the close of the argument on both sides. It shall be made in writing and dated, and shall be signed by the Arbitrators who may assent to it. The said Tribunal shall first determine as to each vessel separately whether Great Britain has, by any act or omission, failed to fulfil any of the duties set forth in the foregoing three rules, or recognized by the principles of International Law not inconsistent with such rules, and shall certify such fact as to each of the said vessels. In case the Tribunal find that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty or duties as aforesaid, it may, if it think proper, proceed to award a sum in gross to be paid by Great Britain to the United States for all the claims referred to it; and in such case the gross sum so awarded shall be paid in coin by the Government of Great Britain to the Government of the United States, at Washington, within twelve months after the date of the award."

Each party pays its own commissioners and their expenses. Record of all proceedings is to be kept.

In case the Tribunal finds that Great Britain has failed to fulfil any duty as aforesaid, and does not award a sum in gross, the Contracting Parties agree that a Board of Assessors shall be appointed to determine what claims are valid, and what amount shall be paid by Great Britain to the United States on account of the liability arising from such failure, as to each vessel, according to the extent of such liability as decided by the Arbitrators. The Board of Assessors shall be constituted as follows: One member thereof shall be named by the President of the United States, one member thereof shall be named by Her Britannic Majesty; and one member thereof shall be named by the Representative at Washington of the King of Italy: and in case of a vacancy it shall be filled in the same manner. As soon as possible after such nominations the Board of Assessors shall be organized in Washington. The members shall be sworn to hear on each separate claim, if required, one person on behalf of each Government, as counsel or agent. A majority of the Assessors in each case shall be sufficient for a decision. Every claim shall be presented to the Assessors within six months from the day of their first meeting, but they may, for good cause shown, extend the time for the presentation of any claim to a further period not exceeding three months. The Assessors shall report to each Government at or before the expiration of one year from the date of their first meeting the amount of claims decided by them up to the date of such report.

All awards are payable in coin, at Washington, within twelve months.

"The High Contracting Parties engage to consider the result of the proceedings of the Tribunal of Arbitration and of the Board of Assessors, should such Board be appointed, as a full, perfect, and final settlement of all the claims hereinbefore referred to; and further engage that every such claim, whether the same may or may not have been presented to the notice of, made, preferred, or laid before the Tribunal or Board, shall, from and after the conclusion of the proceedings of the Tribunal or Board, be considered and treated as finally settled, barred, and thenceforth inadmissible."

ALL OTHER CLAIMS.

The High Contracting Parties agree that all claims on the part of corporations, companies, or private individuals, citizens of the United States, upon the Government of Her Britannic Majesty, arising out of acts committed against the persons or property of citizens of the United States during the period between the thirteenth of April, 1861, and the ninth of April, 1865, inclusive, not being claims growing out of the acts of the vessels referred to in Article I of this Treaty, and all claims, with the like exception, on the part of corporations, companies, or private individuals, subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, upon the Government of the United States, arising out of acts committed against the persons or property of subjects of Her Britannic Majesty during the same period, which may have been presented to either Government for its interposition with the other, and which yet remain unsettled, as well as any other such claims which may be presented within the time specified in this Treaty, shall be referred to three Commissioners, to be appointed—One shall be named by the President of the United States, one by Her Britannic Majesty, and a third by the President of the United States and Her Britannic Majesty conjointly. The Commissioners shall meet at Washington at the earliest convenient period; and shall forthwith proceed to the investigation of the claims which shall be presented. They shall investigate and decide such claims in such order and such manner as they may think proper, but upon such evidence or information only as shall be furnished by or on behalf of the respective Governments. They shall be bound to receive and consider all written documents or statements which may be presented to them by or on behalf of the respective Governments in support of, or in answer to, any claim, and to hear, if required, one person on each side, on behalf of each Government, as counsel or agent for such Government, on each and every separate claim. A majority of the Commissioners shall be sufficient for an award in each case. The High Contracting Parties hereby engage to consider the decision of the Commissioners as absolutely final and conclusive upon each claim decided upon by them, and to give full effect to such decisions without any objection, evasion, or delay whatsoever.

Claims are to be presented within six months unless for satisfactory reasons, and are to be decided within two years, payment of awards to be made within a year, without interest.

THE FISHERIES.

It is agreed by the High Contracting Parties that British subjects shall have, in common with the citizens of the United States, the liberty, for the term of ten years, to take fish of every kind, except shell-fish, on the eastern sea-coasts and shores of the United States north of the thirty-ninth parallel of north latitude, and on the shores of the several islands thereunto adjacent, and in the bays, harbors, and creeks of the said sea-coasts and shores of the United States and of the said islands, without being restricted to any distance from the shore, with permission to land upon the said coasts of the United States and of the islands aforesaid, for the purpose of drying their nets and curing their fish; provided that, in so doing, they do not interfere with the rights of private property, or with the fishermen of the United States in the peaceable use of any part of the said coasts in their occupancy for the same purpose. It is understood that the above-mentioned liberty applies solely to the sea fishery, and that salmon and shad fisheries, and all other fisheries in rivers and mouths of rivers, are hereby reserved exclusively for fishermen of the United States. Fish oil and fish of all kinds (except fish of the inland lakes, and of the rivers falling into them, and except fish preserved in oil), being the produce of the fisheries of the United States, or of the Dominion of Canada, or of Prince Edward's Island, shall be admitted into each country, respectively, free of duty.

The Treaty provides for commissions to settle any disputed points in the matter of the fisheries, and prescribes rules for their proceedings.

RIVER NAVIGATION.

The navigation of the river St. Lawrence, from the forty-fifth parallel of north latitude, where it ceases to form the boundary between the two countries, from, to, and into the sea, shall forever remain free and open for the purposes of commerce to the citizens of the United States, subject to any laws and regulations of Great Britain, or of the Dominion of Canada, not inconsistent with such privilege of free navigation. The navigation of the rivers Yukon, Porcupine, and Stikine, from, to, and into the sea, shall forever remain free and open for the purposes of commerce to the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty and to the citizens of the United States, subject to any laws and regulations of either country within its own territory, not inconsistent with such privilege of free navigation.

It is provided that efforts shall be made to procure mutual privileges in navigating canals and lakes upon or contiguous to the Canadian boundaries; also that Lake Michigan shall be free to British vessels. Goods from Great Britain for Canada may be carried through United States territory without paying duty, and the same as to goods through Canada for the United States. The Government of the United States may suspend the right of carrying granted in favor of the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty under this article, in case the Dominion of Canada should at any time deprive the citizens of the United States of the use of the canals in the said Dominion on terms of equality with the inhabitants of the Dominion.

NORTHWESTERN BOUNDARY.

The unsettled boundary between Washington Territory and British Columbia, in which "the Government of Her Britannic Majesty claims that such boundary line should, under the terms of the Treaty of June 15, 1846, be run through the Rosario Straits, and the Government of the United States claims that it should be run through the Canal de Haro, it is agreed that the respective claims shall de submitted to the arbitration of the Emperor of Germany, who, having regard to the above-mentioned article of the said Treaty, shall decide thereupon, finally and without appeal, which claim is most in accordance with the true interpretation of said Treaty." His decision is to be a full settlement of the matter. Due provision is made for presenting evidence, &c., to the Emperor.

NOTE.—The narrow column under each census year shows the order of the States and Territories when arranged according to magnitude of population in the aggregate or in each class.

(a) To obtain the total population of the United States at the census of 1840, it is necessary to add to the printed total of the aggregate table 787, being the increase of the second enumeration of the county of Montgomery, Maryland, over the first enumeration.

(b) In the aggregate table of the census of 1820, the total of the State of Tennessee is printed 271,813 instead of 422,823, as given by the tables of Tennessee and the same census. This error of the total column of the aggregate table having been corrected, the above variance applies.

(c) In the aggregate table of the census of 1800, the total of Kentucky is printed 220,955. The table for Kentucky in the same census has it 220,955; also the total of the eastern district of Pennsylvania is printed 327,699 instead of 327,799. These errors of the total column of the aggregate table having been corrected, the above variance applies.

(a) To obtain the total white at the census of 1840 care must be taken to include 6,100 persons on board public ships, and 487, being the increase in the white of the second enumeration of the county of Montgomery, Maryland, over the white at the first enumeration.

(b) In the aggregate table of the census of 1820, at Tennessee, "White males to 45" are printed 27,340, instead of 27,540, as rightly given in the tables of the State of Tennessee. This error in the white column of the aggregate table having been corrected, and consequently the total white having been made 200 more than there printed, the above variance applies.

(c) In the aggregate table of the census of 1800, at New Jersey, "White males under 10," are printed 33,000 instead of 33,080; at District of Columbia, in the same column, 880 should be 669; at Kentucky "White males 16 and upwards," printed 0,238, should be 9,733; at Western District of Virginia, "White females 26 and under 45," printed 8,652, should be 15,169; and column "White females 45 and upwards," printed 15,169, should be 8,652. These errors of the white columns of the aggregate table having been corrected, the above variance applies.

a To obtain the total "free colored" at the census of 1840, it is necessary to add to the printed total of the aggregate table 58, being the increase in the free colored of the second enumeration of the county of Montgomery, Maryland, over the free colored at the first enumeration.

NOTE TO NATIVE AND FOREIGN TABLE, on page 16.—Of the sums contained in the ten columns in order, respectively, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh, in this table, that in the seventh is invariably the smallest, and that in the fourth invariably the largest. The sum given in column five is invariably be larger or smaller than that in column six, according to circumstances. It happens also in the case of every State, and of each of the Territories except Arizona and Utah, in the latter case for obvious reasons). The mathematical proof of column four is by adding columns five and six, and subtracting column seven. The difference between column six and column seven yields the number having foreign mothers but native fathers.

The Tribune for 1872.

THE consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful State, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through a series of crushing defeats, ending with the siege and capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne, and the substitution for them of a scion of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the kingdoms of Saxony, Württemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., under the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever-changing phases of our tidings from the Old World. THE TRIBUNE, through trusted correspondents stationed at all points in Europe where great movements are in progress or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-age Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand, and Nineteenth-Century skepticism and secularism on the other. Recognize a Divine Providence in all that proceeds, and is, it looks hopefully on the great conflict as destined (like our own recent convulsion) to evolve from strife, disaster, and seeming chaos, a fairer and happier future for the toiling masses of mankind.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our City, whereby the Government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking venality, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and confiding it in those worthiest and fittest to wield it. To this beneficient and vitally needed Reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights regardless of Color has divested our current politics of half their bygone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republicans are henceforth to be regarded as practically accepted by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and sinews—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberty until he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and firm foundations of our National edifice; and palsied be the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the noble fabric of Emancipation, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth, the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the blessings of Civilization—to stimulate Ingenuity to the production of new inventions for economizing Labor and thus enlarging Production—to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grains and of metals, and thus enhance the gains of Industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanges between farmers and artisans—such is the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain contribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work, THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agriculture will continue to be more especially elucidated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute.

No farmer who sells $300 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally valuable to those engaged in other departments of Productive Labor. We spend more and more money on our columns each year, as our countrymen's generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that our issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of 1872. Friends in every State! help us to make our journal better and better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

At the regular annual election, in April, State officers, other than Governor, were elected, as follows:

	Republicans.	Democrats.
Lieut. Governor	Stevens....7648..	Cutler....5717
	Scattering	1896
Sec. State	Bartlett....8092..	Miller....5314
Attorney Gen.	Sayles.....7918..	Bliss.....5357
Treasurer	Parker.....8900..	Congdon.5427

In October, 1871, a vote was taken upon three separate amendments to the State Constitution, which amendments were all rejected as follows:

ARTICLE V, Providing that every male citizen, 21 years of age, 2 years a resident of the State, 6 months of the town or city where he offers to vote, who can read the Constitution, may vote at ward and town meetings, but not upon questions involving taxation, unless he shall have paid a tax, was defeated by a vote of yeas, 3236; nays, 6960. ARTICLE VI, Providing that no registry tax shall hereafter be assessed, nor shall the payment of such tax be required as a qualification of an elector, was defeated by a vote of yeas, 3787; nays, 6100. ARTICLE VII, Providing that no sectarian or denominational school or institution shall receive any aid or support from the revenues of the State, was lost by a vote of yeas, 5177; nays, 4574. This proposition received a majority of 603, but was lost by reason of not receiving three-fifths of all the votes cast.

The proposition for a Convention to revise the State Constitution, which was submitted at this election, was carried by a vote of 266,668 to 100,412. It required a majority of all the votes cast at the election to carry the Convention. There were 367,080 affirmative and negative votes cast, and 460,462 for Governor, 93,382 of the voters who cast ballots for Governor made no expression on the Convention, but they are nevertheless counted against it. Subtracting the affirmative vote from the total vote on Governor, the total negative vote is found to be 193,794, leaving a majority for the Convention of 72,874.

P. M. B. Young over George P. Burnett, 9511; maj. for Gordon, 5205: White maj. in dist., 12029. Dem. maj. in State for Congress, 22496; maj. for Bullock in '68, 6868; White maj. registered in the State, 279.

THE LEGISLATURE is largely Democratic.

On the 14th of Dec., 1871, James Milton Smith Democrat, was elected Governor without serious opposition, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Rufus F. Bullock, Republican Benjamin Conley, President of the Senate, claims to be ex officio Governor of the State for the remainder of Bullock's term, and the courts will probably be called upon to decide who is Governor.

ILLINOIS.

An election was held in this State, in 1871, for Congressman at Large, in place of John A. Logan, elected to the U. S. Senate, and for a Congressman in the VIth District. For Congressman at Large the following was the vote:

HOW TO ACQUIRE TITLE TO GOVERNMENT LANDS.

e are two classes of public Lands sub- entry: one at $1.25 per acre, known as num, and one at $2.50, known as double num, the latter being the alternate sec- ilong the lines of railroads. Title may be ed by purchase at public sale, or by "pri- ntry," and in virtue of the Pre-emption omestead Laws.

Public Sale lands are offered at auction highest bidder, pursuant to proclamation lic notice.

vate Entry.—Lands subject to private are those which have been once offered at sale without finding purchasers. In to acquire title to these lands, a written ation must be made to the Land Register District in which the land is located, de- g the tract desired. The Register certifies ct to the Receiver, stating price, and the ant then pays the money and takes a re- and at the close of the month the Register eceiver make return of the sale to the al Land Office, when a patent or full title on due surrender of the receipt, and will livered at the option of the purchaser, at eneral Land Office in Washington, or by gister at the District Land Office.

d Warrants.—When lands are to be lo- with land warrants, application must be as in cash cases, accompanied by an as- warrant. When the tract is $2.50 per $1.25 per acre must be paid in addition to arrant. Receipts are given and patents red, as in the preceding case. At the f location, a fee of 50 cents for a 40 acre nt, and a corresponding amount for larger must be paid to the Register, and a like the Receiver.

icultural College Scrip.—This may be in the location of lands at private entry, only applicable to lands subject to entry 25 per acre, and is restricted to a technical ter section," and to 3 sections in each hip of land. The proceeding to acquire the same as in cash and warrant cases, es being the same as on warrants. This may be used in payment of pre-emption

-emptions.—Any person being the head family, or widow, or single man over 21 of age, and a citizen of the United States, erson who has filed his declaration to be- such, by settling upon and improving any "offered," "unoffered," or unsurveyed of the United States, may obtain a pre- n right to purchase 160 acres so occupied, regular Government price, whether it be or $2 50 per acre. Where the tract is ed" land, the settler must file with the t Land Office his statement as to the fact tlement, within 30 days thereafter, and one year must make proof to the Land of his actual residence and cultivation, cure the land by payment in cash or Land nt. Where the land has been surveyed and ered at public sale, the statement must be within three months after settlement, and nt made within 21 months. Where set- t is made upon unsurveyed lands, the is required to file a statement within months after the survey, and pay within en months thereafter. No person is en- to more than one pre-emption right.

The Homestead Privilege—The Homestead laws give to every citizen the right to a Homestead of 160 acres minimum, or eighty acres double minimum. To obtain Homestead, applicant must swear that he is the head of a family, or over the age of twenty-one, a citizen, or has declared his intention to become such; and that the entry is for his exclusive use and benefit, and for actual settlement and cultivation. When an applicant has made actual settlement upon the land he desires, he must make affidavit of the fact before the Land Register, and pay fees amounting on 160 acres of minimum land to $18, or an equal sum for eighty acres of double minimum, for which he gets a receipt; and after five years occupation and cultivation of the land, he is entitled upon proof of such cultivation to a patent or full title to the Homestead. Any loyal person in the naval or military service of the United States, may acquire a Homestead by reason of his family occupying land and making the application in his stead. All officers, soldiers and sailors, who have served in the army or navy for ninety days and remained loyal, may enter 160 instead of eighty acres of double minimum lands. The fees above for entering Homestead, apply to surveyed lands in Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas, Nebraska, Dakotah, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Florida, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois. In California, Nevada, Oregon, Colorado, New Mexico, Washington Territory Arizona, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming and Montana, the fees are $22 instead of $18. A settler having filed a pre-emption declaration, may change his filing into Homestead, and receive the benefit of the Homestead laws. If a Homestead settler does not wish to remain five years on his land before obtaining title, he may pay for it in cash or Land Warrants. Lands obtained under the Homestead laws are exempt from liability for debts contracted prior to the issuing of the patent.

United States Land Offices are located at Fort Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Fort Dodge, and Sioux City, Iowa; Menasha, Falls of St. Croix, Steven's Point, La Crosse, Bayfield and Eau Claire, Wisconsin; San Francisco, Marysville, Humboldt, Stockton, Visalia, Sacramento and Los Angelos, California; West Point, Beatrice, Lincoln, Dakota City, and Grand Island, Nebraska; Taylor's Falls, St. Cloud, Du Luth, Alexandria, Jackson, New Ulm, and Litchfield, Minnesota; Oregon City, Roseburg, and Le Grand, Oregon; Topeka, Junction City, Humboldt, and Augusta, Kansas; Carson City, Austin, Belmont, and Aurora, Nevada; Vermillion, Springfield, and Pembina, Dakota; Denver City, Fair Play, and Central City, Colorado; Boonville, Ironton, and Springfield, Missouri; Mobile, Huntsville, and Montgomery, Alabama; New Orleans, Monroe and Natchiloches, Louisiana; Detroit, East Saginaw, Ionia, Marquette and Traverse City, Michigan; Little Rock, Washington, and Clarksville, Arkansas; Boise City and Lewiston, Idaho; Chillicothe, Ohio; Indianapolis, Indiana; Springfield, Illinois; Jackson, Mississippi; Tallahassee, Florida; Olympia, and Vancouver, Washington Territory; Helena, Montana; Prescott, Arizona; Salt Lake City, Utah.

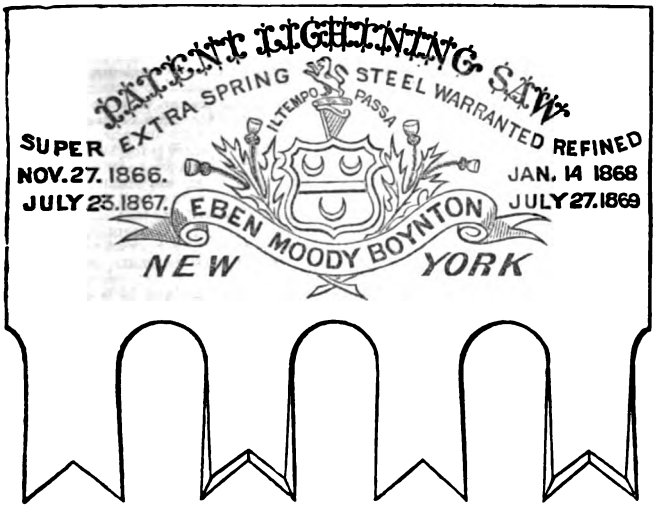
New 1871 Pattern.



SIMPLE AS OLD V TOOTH.
Not One Failed in 20,000.

NEW YORK AMERICAN INSTITUTE FAIR BUILDING, NOV. 4, 1871.

E. M. Boynton, 78 Beekman st., New York—Sir: This certifies that I saw the Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, worked by hand, by two men, Nov. 2, at this Fair. Said men and saw cut off a sound 8x9 inch chestnut log in 8¾ seconds; and 16 cuts of same, continuously, in 2 minutes and 18 seconds, or at the rate of a cord of wood in less than nine minutes. I am satisfied that for all purposes of cross-cutting large and small timber your cross-cuts and wood saws have no rival in speed, in ease, and in simplicity. I believe their universal use would save a vast amount of money and time, and lighten the toil of millions of men. J. W. BLAKE, Superintendent and Engineer American Institute Fair.

I select this from many letters regarding my latest improved Lightning Saws of 1871 pattern:

Mr. E. M. Boynton, 78 Beekman St., N. Y.:—Sir: The ninth shipment of your Cross-Cuts and Wood-Saws to us this season arrived last Wednesday. Please send us 50 more Lightning Cross-Cut Saws soon as possible. The sale of your Saws continues good, and we are nearly out. We shall require fully 500 Lightning Cross-Cuts and as many Wood-Saws to complete our year's purchases. We would like to have you reduce the price, if you can still keep up their unrivaled quality of manufacture. Our customers say the Lightning Saw saves the difference of cost in one day's use, are more simple to sharpen and run easier than any other. We think your new patent M tooth Saws do surpass in speed, in ease, in simplicity and perfect clearance anything we ever saw, and we are ready to indorse your challenge of $500, to settle by public contest their superiority over any other Saw in the world, which, of course, no one can question. EVERSON, FRISSELLE & CO.

In accordance with the above, I have reduced the retail price from $1 25 to $1 per foot, and the trade price proportionately, and solicit the patronage of the American public. Beware of worthless imitations and infringements, which will be prosecuted. Do not confound this 1871 pattern with my old 1867 pattern Clearing-Tooth Saws, now out of market. All clearing-teeth are complicated, as they require to be kept shorter than cutters and frequent readjustment. After much experience, I cannot recommend them. Each one of the new Lightning Cross-Cuts has my $500 challenge, and full directions for setting and sharpening any saw, engraved on it. Honest hardware men will procure the genuine for their customers, even if they are overstocked with inferior goods, but where they do not keep them, Agents are wanted. A six-foot Cross-Cut and Buck Saw sent on receipt of $6. Express will cost from 40 cents to $1 to places this side of the Mississippi River by special contract.

Most of the large Hardware Jobbing Houses in America now handle my goods.

N. B. Millions of Axes are used for cutting wood; a Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, either for one man or for two, will cut five times as fast as an ax. Why not try them?

Ordinary saw-set and a flat file only required in sharpening the saw, as all teeth are the same length and simple as hand-saw teeth, producing freest cutting both ways. See that the name and warrant are on each saw. Agents wanted where the hardware trade do not sell the genuine, which has my name and warrant on each saw.

THE BEST TONIC.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s FERRO-PHOSPHORATED ELIXIR of CALISAYA is a delicious cordial, made of the Pyrophosphate of Iron and Calisaya Bark; it is the most valuable tonic now in use for Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Wakefulness, Debility, Depression of Spirits, &c., &c. The pale, the nervous, and the debilitated should not fail to take it; particularly females suffering from those complaints incident to the sex. Physicians now give it the preference to all similar preparations. If taken during exposure to malaria it strengthens the system to resist this poison, and prevents chill and fever, bilious fever, and other intermittent attacks.

HAZARD & CASWELL'S
PURE COD LIVER OIL.

This Oil is the Purest and Sweetest in market.

It can be retained by the stomach when all others fail.

Prof. Parker of New York, says: "I have tried almost every other manufacturer's oil, and give yours the decided preference."

Patients, after trying the other oils and finding them of such nauseous and offensive character it was impossible for the stomach to retain them, have tried ours, and find it sweet and pleasant, to agree with the stomach perfectly, and soon come to like it. Physicians have pronounced it the best and most reliable remedy in use for Coughs, Consumption, Rheumatism, Bronchitis, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They also have declared it superior to any of the Brown oils.

Manufactured only by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s JUNIPER TAR SOAP.

The best and most convenient remedy for Chapped Hands and Face, Rough Skin, Pimples, and all Cutaneous Affections. It makes the skin soft and smooth; prevents the skin from chapping if used during cold weather; is easily applied, avoiding the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s CAMPHOR ICE with GLYCERINE

Is a most excellent article, and gives universal satisfaction.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s DIARRHŒA and CHOLERA REMEDY

(Known as VELPEAU'S REMEDY) has been used extensively for years with perfect success; it has become an absolute necessity in thousands of families. None should be without it, as one or two doses will cure the most obstinate attacks.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s INODOROUS BENZINE

Will be found a superior article for removing Paint, Grease Spots, &c., &c., leaving no stain, with little or no odor.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s No. 6 (or TOILET) COLOGNE

Is acknowledged by connoisseurs as superior to the German, and much cheaper.

Caswell, Hazard, & Co.'s CHLORATE OF POTASH LOZENGES,

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, &c.; they are more pleasant and efficacious than the disagreeable troches now in use.

Our Preparations are sold by all Druggists.

TAKE

No medicine which will increase the derangement of a system already disordered by disease. Violent cathartics that sweep through the bowels like a cataract, prostrating the strength and irritating the delicate membrane of the alimentary canal, are never needful. The best that can be given to persons suffering from dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation, or any disorder affecting the stomach, the liver, or the excretive organs, is to tone, cleanse and regulate these important viscera with TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. This agreeable alterative operates

the utmost mildness, yet thoroughly restores the functional action of the digestive organs and the intestines, and refreshes and renovates the whole physique. For more than a hundred years the water of the Seltzer Spa has been considered the finest corrective in the world, and this preparation is chemically identical with it. If

complaint is indigestion, costiveness, nervous debility, biliousness, gravel, or any affection of the kidneys, remember that the EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT is not only an unequaled purgative, but also a general invigorant, and that its saline principle has a powerful sanitary effect upon the vitiated secretions and the blood. In an age when the sick exercise their

and common sense in determining the merits of a medicine, it seems almost unnecessary to point out the advantages which a specific so gentle, safe and certain in its operation has over the nauseous and pungent drugs which exhaust the bodily energies of the patient, and literally scourge his internal organization, without effecting a radical cure. Invalids, TAKE COUNSEL OF YOUR REASON, and select the remedy which tones while it regulates, and leaves no sting behind.

Sold by all Druggists.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!

Strong, Pure, and Rich Blood, Increase of Flesh and Weight, Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion, secured to all, through

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Consumption, Glandular Disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands, and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all Weakening and Painful Discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the Life Principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it, for either of these forms of disease, its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will and does secure, a cure is certain; for, when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing. Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases, but it is the only positive cure for Kidney, Bladder, Urinary, and Womb Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substance like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back along the Loins.

BEVERLY, MASS., July 18, 1869.

DR. RADWAY: I have had Ovarian Tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried everything that was recommended, but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it, but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for TWELVE YEARS. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, one box of Radway's Pills, and used two bottles of your READY RELIEF; and there is not a sign of a tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel BETTER, SMARTER, and happier than I have for 12 years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish if you choose. * * * * HANNAH P. KNAPP.

This Map is invaluable to MINISTERS, ELDERS, and to every intelligent LAYMAN, as it shows at a glance the vast extent and geographical divisions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, as fixed at the Reunion; giving the boundaries of every Synod and every Presbytery from the Atlantic to the Pacific; with the cities and larger towns where there are Presbyterian churches, thus making a grand

CHART OF THE CHURCH.

The New York Evangelist has long ranked as one of the very best—as it is one of the oldest—religious newspapers in the country. Established in the city of New York more than forty years ago—in 1830—expressly to promote REVIVALS, and MISSIONS, TEMPERANCE, and other reforms, it has ever been faithful to its original purpose. For thirty years that the Presbyterian Church was divided, it was the earnest advocate of the New School, and did much to help that body in its low estate, when shattered and disorganized by the Division, and to bring it into that degree of organization and order which made it one of the most efficient religious bodies in the land. It was among the first TO FAVOR REUNION; while others were cold and indifferent, or positively hostile, it labored for it unceasingly for years, until it was accomplished. Since that great and happy event, its object has been to CONSOLIDATE and STRENGTHEN the Church more and more.

While The Evangelist aims by ITS NEWS and THE VARIETY OF ITS DEPARTMENTS—Literary, Scientific, Agricultural, and Domestic—to be A COMPLETE FAMILY NEWSPAPER, its chief distinction is the great fullness of its ECCLESIASTICAL INTELLIGENCE, giving the news of the Churches, of the Settlement and Dismission of Ministers, and all that concerns the Church at home and abroad. It has recently added a special DEPARTMENT FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS, furnishing a Weekly Series of Lessons on the UNIFORM NATIONAL QUESTIONS FOR 1872.

Among its contributors are some of the most distinguished Ministers and Theological Professors in the country. Rev. THEODORE L. CUYLER writes almost every week.

A. A. Constantine's Persian Healing

PINE TAR SOAP.

Each Cake is stamped "A. A. CONSTANTINE'S Persian Healing, or Pine Tar Soap, Patented March 19, 1867"—no other is genuine.

AS a Toilet and Hair Renovator, this SOAP is all the inventor claims for it. The proof is, its unprecedented popularity. It is THE SOAP for the people. All who use it say, "Try Constantine's Soap," "We want no other."

IT CURES Pimples on the Face, Catarrh, Chapped Hands, Salt Rheum, Frosted Feet, Burns, Fresh Cuts or Wounds, of all kinds, all Diseases of the Scalp and Skin, and is a GOOD SHAVING SOAP.

A. A. Constantine

WHAT THOSE SAY WHO USE IT:

"I have used your Soap in my practice extensively, and it has proved the best healing ever used. It has no equal as a soap for washing the heads and skin of children.
"L. P. ALDRICH, M.D., 19 Harrison St., N. Y."

BALDNESS CURED.—"I can recommend your Persian Healing Soap for Baldness it is bringing my hair in beautifully. I consider it the best hair renovator in use.
"M. H. COOMBS, 218 Atlantic St., Brooklyn, N. Y."

"I have used the Persian Healing Soap exclusively for three or four months as Toilet Soap. It cleanses the skin, and leaves it in a softer and better condition than any Soap I have ever used, and it makes an excellent lather for shaving.
"T. S. P. LORD, M.D., 101 Washington St., Chicago."

"From a personal trial of it, we believe it merits all the recommendations it has received."—Christian Times and Witness.

"A. A. Constantine's Soap is unsurpassed for the Bath and Nursery, and as a preventive and cure of eruptions of the skin. A trial will corroborate what we have said.—N. Y. Evening Post.

"We have given it a full and fair trial. In the bath-room and nursery, and also as an excellent shaving soap, we think it unsurpassed. The proprietor has been in foreign parts as a Baptist missionary, and now, in enfeebled health, has turned his attention to this business, having brought a combination of properties to bear in producing this excellent article. We recommend it honestly."—Methodist Home Journal.

"The cleansing, healing and tonic properties of this Soap render it valuable for the toilette, as well as in cases where cutaneous diseases prevail. For washing the wounds of horses, the Soap is highly recommended."—Ed. Turf, Field and Farm.

"It is efficacious in curing chapped hands, and is known to be a specific for dirty ones."—N. Y. Tribune.

Town Officers and Board of Health.

To whom it may concern: SING SING, June 14, 1870.

The Supervisor, Justices of the Peace, and Town Clerk, of the Town of Ossining (the Township in whose limits the chartered Village of Sing Sing is contained), hereby certify to the remarkable healthful effects produced by the use of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills. For many years these Pills have been prepared in this town; in 1886 Dr. Brandreth erected large buildings, in which to prepare and pack this great medicine for public use. At this time he employs over 100 persons, besides a steam engine of 100 horse-power.

We have a population of about 8,000, and almost every person uses them when sick. Their merits are recognized in every family, and our Druggists say they sell more of Brandreth's Pills than all the others put together.

We can point to cures effected by them in Scrofula, Rheumatism, Bilious Affections, Ulcers and Sores, White Swelling of the Knee, Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, General Debility, Want of Appetite, Typhus and Scarlet Fever, and Small-Pox. And from long observation and experience of the effects produced by Brandreth's Pills, we believe their general use would give more health and a longer average of life.

THOMAS LEARY, Supervisor.
J. URMY, Justice of the Peace.
NELSON H. BAKER, Justice of the Peace.
MORGAN HYATT, Justice of the Peace.
WILLIAM C. HOWE, Justice of the Peace.
C. H. CUMMING, Town Clerk.

The undersigned, the Board of Health of the village of Sing Sing, fully indorse the foregoing statement of the Town Officers of Ossining, knowing the same to be true.

MATTER OF DISEASE.

The matter which is always present when people are sick, is a fluid, like white of an egg, but more limpid. This fluid flows on the part where pain is felt, and spreads and insinuates itself wherever a weak spot or low vitality exists in the body. Sometimes this matter of disease becomes vapor, and subtly affects the nerves and brain. This hostile fluid to man's existence is never absent; it was implanted with life, but in the healthy it is divided so as not to be felt. But when, from fatigue, bad diet, conduct, or coming in contact with bad smells or contagious vapors, this matter of disease becomes aroused to activity and concentration, it settles, like dew, on the weakest part of the body, producing at once pain and disease.

Now, there may be many medicines which will reduce this hostile fluid, but there is one which never fails in cases of Dizziness, Pains in the Head, Rheumatism and Costiveness, Colds; in fact, Sickness is reduced, and finally vanquished, by BRANDRETH'S PILLS, whose use infallibly purifies the blood, and brings the matter of disease within manageable limits.

They remove impure and undigested accumulations from the stomach and bowels, cleanse the liver and the spleen, and generally purify the whole interior. In fact they purify the blood, and thus restore health.

Using this GREAT MEDICINE once or twice a month, will insure from attacks of Cholera, Small-Pox, and all infectious and contagious diseases; because they take out those matters from the blood and bowels, on which the vapor of infection spots and germinates.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

DISEASE OF THE HEART CURED.

Glen Riddle P. O., Delaware County, Pa., March 16, 1868.

Messrs. Thomas Allcock & Co.: Having been troubled with heart disease for a long time, and after doctoring with our physician for months, and obtaining no relief, I gave up in despair. I was troubled with sharp pains in my chest, and loud sounds about my heart, and often felt that death would be a blessing. At this time I was persuaded to apply one of your Porous Plasters. Within a few hours after placing one on my chest, I felt no more pain, and all throbbing ceased about my heart, and I have felt like a new man.

Yours respectfully, CHARLES BATTY.

KIDNEY INFLAMMATION CURED.

New York, August 19, 1869.

Thomas Allcock & Co., Sing Sing; For years I have suffered from inflammation of the kidneys. My physicians gave me little relief, and I moved about like an old man, bent down by years of suffering. At length your Porous Plasters were recommended to me. I applied one to each kidney, and the relief was immediate. I wore them for thirty days, when my back and kidneys were perfectly well, and I was once more able to walk erect. I think the half of the virtue of your plasters remain to be told, but should any one wish to hear thereof I shall be pleased to tell of my experience. I am yours, respectfully,

THOMAS J. JACKSON, 226 East Thirty-second street.

NERVOUS AFFECTION OF THE HEAD CURED.

For two years I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia in the head, and found only temporary relief from all the various remedies that I have tried, until I applied one of Allcock's Porous Plasters. I cut it into three strips, placing one under each shoulder blade, and the other over the small of the back; and for the past three months I have had scarcely a twinge of the old pain.

I advise all who suffer from nervous diseases to lose no time in making a trial of the wonderful Porous plaster. A. F. STERLING,

New York, June 8, 1868. Sec'y Singer Mfg. Co.

DISTRESSING COUGH CURED.

Letter from the Rev. Dr. Beattie.

Scotchtown, Orange County, N. Y., Oct. 20, 1869.

Thomas Allcock & Co., Sing Sing: Your Porous Plasters are a great blessing. My daughter, Isabella, had whooping cough some twelve months since; when the severity of the disease abated, she still for six months had a distressing cough, and became very weak and thin. Finding internal remedies of no avail, an Allcock's Porous Plaster was applied to her chest. The cough was relieved from the day it was put on, and in one month was entirely cured.

I am yours truly, D. BEATTIE.

Dr. John Sargent's Celebrated Family Medicines.

DR. J. SARGENT'S
BACK-ACHE PILLS,

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

The disease commonly called back-ache, and to which these Pills are particularly applicable, is found to exist in the aged or infirm, the laborious and sedentary, is caused by obstructions or chronic inflammation of the kidneys, ureter, bladders, &c., and is known by a deep-seated pain in the small of the back, sometimes extending round the loins to the abdomen, or a dull, heavy, or numbing pain, extending from the back, down the lower extremity of the right abdomen, to the inner part of the thigh. Great difficulty is experienced in voiding the urine, and many persons afflicted with this troublesome complaint are unable to endure violent exercise; many, when stooping, have difficulty in assuming an erect position. Persons suffering from these symptoms often mistake the disease for Rheumatism, and apply the ordinary remedies, such as plasters, liniments, &c., but without obtaining any relief.

DR. SARGENT'S BACK-ACHE PILLS

Strike at the root of such diseases, and, by removing the inflammation, and stimulating the organs to a healthy action, the patient is relieved from all weakness and pain. The certificates I publish are but a few of the many in the hands of the proprietor, and can be referred to at any time:

SANDY CREEK, PA.

GEORGE A. KELLY.—Dear Sir: I had been afflicted with an affection of the back for some years, being unable to walk without assistance. I had tried many remedies without being able to obtain any relief, until I was induced to try Dr. Sargent's Diuretic or Back-Ache Pills, and am happy to say they have been the means of restoring me to perfect health. You may use this, if you think proper, as I heartily recommend them for all such diseases as I have been troubled with.

WM. McCABE

Mr. McCabe has been in my store several times since the above was written, and has had no recurrence of the disease.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 27, 1868.

GEROGE A. KELLY.—Dear Sir: I was so badly afflicted with pain in the kidneys that I could hardly turn myself in bed, and breathing also caused me severe pain. I had given up all hopes of ever getting well again, when I bought a box of Dr. Sargent's Pills, which at once relieved me, and I believe they have been the means of the cure. I have also recommended them to others, where like complaints were made, and they have, in every case, proved efficacious. I cheerfully recommend them to any one suffering from this trouble, as I believe they are the best medicine for this class of diseases I have ever heard of. Any further information can be had by seeing me at the outer depot, or at my residence, No. 65 Arthur street.

A. J. WEAVER, Conductor Pennsylvania Railroad.

PITTSBURGH.

DR. SARGENT.—Sir: I take this opportunity to state that your Diuretic Pills are the most effectual medicine for the back-ache I ever met with. I can confidently recommend them from experience.

ALEX. McCLINTOCK.

These Pills are sugar-coated, and can be easily taken. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine. Price, 50 cents per box.

DR. SARGENT'S COUGH SYRUP.

An old preparation for the complete cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Difficulty of Breathing, Asthma, Quincy, Phthisic, Acute and Chronic Bronchitis, Night Sweats, Bleeding of the Lungs, and all diseases of the Lungs, Throat and Chest. Price, 50 cents per bottle.

DR. JOHN SARGENT'S SUGAR COATED ANTI-DYSPEPTIC & LIVER PILLS.

A certain cure for Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Bilious Attacks, Jaundice, Sick Head-ache, Colds, Costiveness, &c. Price, 25 cents per box.

Carbolic Salve.

The success that has attended the introduction of this Remedy has never been equalled in any single instance before in the history of medicine. Its virtues are recognised alike by rich and poor, and men of distinguished public reputation do not hesitate to give the widest publicity to their praise of so excellent an article as CARBOLIC SALVE.

Subjoined we give extracts from the letters of a few out of the many received from men whose statements and opinions are entitled to the greatest consideration, to say the least.

From D. R. LOCKE, (Petroleum V. Nasby,) of the Toledo Blade.

Mr. JOHN F. HENRY:—I had on the forefinger of my right hand one of those "pleasant pets" a "run'round." The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable, and was swollen to twice its natural size. A friend dressed it with Carbolic Salve, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much diminished as to give me a fair night's rest. D. R. LOCKE.

From Col. H. S. OLCOTT, Special Commissioner of the War Department, and formerly of the Tribune.

I have used Carbolic Salve myself, and have seen it used by members of my family and among my acquaintances, and in every case it was efficacious in effecting a cure.

Yours truly, H. S. OLCOTT.

From GEORGE B. LINCOLN, late President of the Board of Health.

Your Carbolic Salve, a package of which you were kind enough to hand me, proves an excellent article, and I thank you for it. Yours, GEORGE B. LINCOLN.

The Carbolic Salve is sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, PRICE, 25 CENTS.

PARKS' BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY AND TAR,

For Coughs, Colds and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs.

The following testimonial from a well known citizen of New York, will bear evidence of the great value of this time tried medicine.

From the Principal Salesman, for Seventeen years in the Wholesale Establishment of A. T. STEWART & CO.

Mr. JOHN F. HENRY:—I contracted a severe cold, followed by an obstinate cough, which so completely prostrated me that I was obliged to abandon business. I had the advice of most eminent physicians, and also used many standard medicines, but still continued to grow worse. At length I commenced the use of Parks' Balsam, and I am happy to say that by its use I became speedily convalescent. I feel fully persuaded that it has saved my life, and I am not only eminently well pleased with it, but my confidence in it is so great that I never fail to advise my friends to use it, and this confidence is constantly strengthened by witnessing the beneficial results whenever used. I consider it the finest thing for the voice I have ever known, and I would earnestly recommend its use by all VOCALISTS and SPEAKERS. Yours truly, G. S. FANCHER.

PLANTATION BITTERS.—S. T. 1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

It is now about twelve years since this grand desideratum was introduced under the name of

and from that time to the present its progress has been without a parallel in the history of proprietary medicines. With the spirit of the sugar cane—the most nutritious of all stimulants—for its basis, and medicated solely with the juices and extracts of rare vegetable specifics, such as Calisaya Bark, the best known Tonic that the world produces, and which makes it by all odds the most unobjectionable invigorant, corrective and general alterative that has ever been placed by science within the reach of the sick, the suffering, and the despondent. Hence it has overleaped all competition, and Plantation Bitters is to-day the most popular Tonic on either side of the Atlantic. Sold by all Druggists.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

Probably few articles have ever had so extensive a sale, while none have been more universally beneficial than the celebrated MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Children, Adults, Horses and Domestic Animals, are always liable to accident, and it is safe to say, that no family can pass a single season without some kind of emollient being necessary. It becomes a matter of importance then to secure the best.

The merits of the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT are well known throughout the habitable world. From the million upon million of bottles sold, no complaint has ever reached us. It is recommended for Cuts, Bruises, Sprains, Rheumatism, Swellings, Bites, Chilblains, &c., upon man, and for Spavins, Founders, Ring-bone, Poll Evil, Scratches, Wind-Galls, Hoofale, &c., upon horses.

Important to Owners of Horses.

"This is to certify, that the Mexican Mustang Liniment has been extensively used in our stables throughout the country (we have 2,500 horses) with the greatest benefit in all cases of galls, kicks, sprains, lameness, stiffness, etc. Many of our men have had occasion to use it in their families, and all speak of it in the highest terms. One of our men got kicked and badly cut and bruised; as usual, the Mustang Liniment was resorted to; the lameness was removed, and he was almost well in four days. We can cheerfully recommend it as a valuable preparation for man or beast.

Yours respectfully, J. DUNNING, Foreman of Adams & Co.'s Express Stables, N. Y."

"We take great pleasure in recommending the Mexican Mustang Liniment as an indispensable and valuable article, and the best we have ever used for Sprains, Sores or Galls on horses. Some of our men have also used it for severe burns and sores, as well as rheumatic pains, and all say it acts like magic. J. H. HEWITT, Foreman,

For American Express Co., 10 Wall Street; Harnden's Express Co., 74 Broadway; Pullen, Virgil & Co., Express Co., 14 Wall St.; Wells, Fargo & Co., 14 Wall Street."

Over three hundred livery stables in the city of New York alone are using the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT, in all of which it gives unusual satisfaction.

CAUTION.

Some unprincipled parties have undertaken to counterfeit this Liniment. The genuine is wrapped in a fine Steel Plate engraving, with "G. W. Westbrook, Chemist," and "Trade Mark, MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT," engraved across the face of each wrapper. The whole bears the proprietor's private United States Revenue Stamp, and not a common stamp, as used by druggists.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

THE METHODIST comes to us this week enlarged in size and generally improved in appearance. There are few journals which we receive with so much pleasure as this able and courteous organ of Methodist opinion. The thoroughly competent administration of Dr. Crooks has been recently reenforced by the pen of Dr. Abel Stevens, whose capacities as a writer have been familiar aforetime to the readers of these columns. We tender to the METHODIST new welcome and a fresh God-speed. —Chr. Union.

THE METHODIST.—The last number of this independent organ of American Methodism appears much enlarged and improved. It is edited with great ability by Drs. G. R. Crooks and Abel Stevens, and has a corps of accomplished contributors. The sermons of Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, are published in its columns, and we regard it by far the ablest and most interesting journal of the Methodist church.—Lutheran Observer.

THE METHODIST, according to previous announcement, appeared, July 1st, in its greatly enlarged and—but for the almost interminable report of the Book Concern investigation—improved form. The next number, we expect, will contain its promised variety of literary and religious information. This paper has always commanded our admiration for its ability, liberality, and unbending adherence to the true lights and landmarks of Methodism, and a degree of enterprise which has placed it ahead of any denominational journal we have seen in any part of the world. Claiming to be as loyal a Methodist as the next man, we heartily wish this paper the greatest success in its new era of existence. and widening sphere of usefulness.—Meth. Home Journal.

THE METHODIST, a paper which has reached a national, rather than a local circulation, celebrates the commencement of its twelfth year by donning a new typographical dress, and by an enlargement of eight columns. The paper; although started independently of conference management, and meeting with some distrust and opposition on that account, has been very successful, and has become influential.—Detroit Post.

"THE METHODIST," published in New York, and edited with distinguished ability, came to us last week much enlarged and beautified with new and bright-faced type. It now takes precedence in size of any Methodist journal in the denomination, and no paper makes a show of more genius in adapting their columns to popular and family reading. The style of the paper is pleasing to us. It is also highly honorable to the Methodist independent press of the country, which soon must take leading influence in the church.—Buffalo Advocate.

Many other similar notices might be added did space permit.

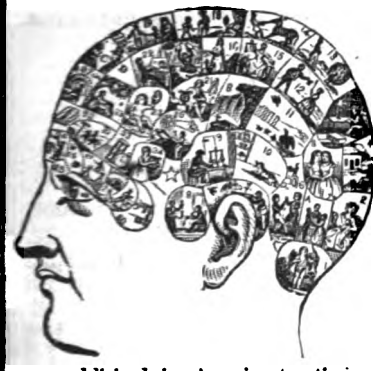
PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.



THIS MAGAZINE has been so long before the reading world (a third of a century), that it is scarcely necessary to make a new announcement that it will continue to treat those important topics to which it has been devoted. But the nature and scope of the journal demand far more consideration than that expressed by a circulation of twenty or thirty thousand. It should be known and read by the vast aggregate of those who claim a place in the highest civilization of this modern era. When it is understood that this journal is the only one published in America treating of man in all his relations, and especially those mental relations which distinguish him pre-eminently among the works of creation, its right to a wide-spread circulation is fully vindicated. It is true that there are many magazines and periodicals published which possess a high order of literary merit, and which illustrate the rapid progress made by Americans in those civilizing influences which properly belong to intellectual culture; but their treatment of those subjects which belong to the organization of mind, per se, is infrequent and partial. The PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL makes the study of the human mind its chief feature, its specialty.

IRON AND SULPHUR POWDERS,

INVIGORATE THE BODY AND PURIFY THE BLOOD.

RIVERS OF IMPURE BLOOD flow and vibrate through the system of those tainted with Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Barbers' Itch, Syphilis, Eruptions or Pimples on the Face, Roughness or Redness of the Skin and other impurities of the Blood. The combination of Stafford's Iron and Sulphur Powders are charged with two elements, which science declares that the weak and nervous need—Iron to augment the vital forces and Sulphur to disinfect the blood and the secretions.

Nothing tones the blood like Iron, nothing purifies the blood like Sulphur, all eruptions vanish from the face, bosom, arms or any other part of the body under the effect of Stafford's Iron and Sulphur Powders, they drive out all impurities, and effect an immediate and permanent cure; no outward application will do this. For Sale by all Druggists 1 package 12 powders, $1.00, 3 packages, $2.50, mailed free, registered letters, or P. O. orders. Send at our risk.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER.

The first number of the NEW YORK LEDGER for the new year contains an original poem by ALFRED TENNYSON, the poet-laureate of England, written expressly for the LEDGER. The LEDGER also contains original contributions from Rev. JAMES McCOSH, D. D., LL. D., President of Princeton College, Rev. JOHN HALL, D. D., of New York, Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, Hon. HORACE GREELEY, Hon. JOHN G. SAXE, and other very distinguished writers.

From the New York Ledger.—WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.—We have made arrangements with Mr. BRYANT for a number of original peoms by him, to be written expressly for the LEDGER during the new year.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER

FOR THE NEW YEAR, 1872.

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER.

THE BEST WITHOUT REGARD TO COST.

We continue to conduct the LEDGER on our established rule, which is to procure and publish, without regard to money or price, the best original matter that can be had in the world.

Young men and young ladies will find the LEDGER full of advice and instruction especially intended for them, and which is calculated to influence, for good and for happiness, the whole future of their lives.

It would be as impossible for us to enumerate beforehand all the good things which we shall publish within the coming year, as to tell in advance what the weather will be for every day.

Distinguished public men, including Foreign Ministers, Members of the Cabinet and Senators in Congress, write for the LEDGER.

More money is spent upon the LEDGER to make it a good paper than is spent upon any other paper in the world.

More people take it and like it than ever took any other paper on this continent.

It is so interesting that families who once begin to take it can never bear to give it up; and they always consider that the small price which it costs affords them more for the money than anything else that they buy.

The LEDGER is always full of life. Nobody ever complains that even a single number is dull.

It has the largest number of great and distinguished writers.

It contains the purest, sweetest, and most delightful love stories, striking narratives, and instructive biographical and historical sketches.

It has the most popular and carefully prepared collection of scientific facts.

All questions growing out of the domestic relations, lovers' quarrels, law and business matters, are regularly answered in its columns. A vast amount of useful information is given through this attractive department of the LEDGER.

Many of the most distinguished clergymen of the country write for it.

All the old writers—their names are familiar to the public, and it is needless to repeat them here—will continue to write for the LEDGER; and we have engaged exclusively for the LEDGER the very best and most popular of the rising authors.

Good as the LEDGER has heretofore been, the volume for 1872 will be better than any one ever yet published.

The BEST that a long experience enables us to select, and that money, without stint, can buy, will be constantly spread before the readers of the LEDGER.

OUR TERMS FOR 1872—NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE

Single copies, $3 per annum; four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies (all sent at one time), will be entitled to a copy FREE. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterwards add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. Canada subscribers must send twenty cents in addition to the subscription, to pay the American postage. When a draft or money-order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. The postage on the LEDGER to all parts of the country is only twenty cents a year, or five cents a quarter, payable at the office where the paper is delivered.

GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT

PIANOS,

UNIVERSAL EXPOSITION, PARIS, 1867.

OFFICIAL CERTIFICATE of the President and Members of the International Jury on Musical Instruments, (Class X.)

I certify that the FIRST GOLD MEDAL for American Pianos has been unanimously awarded to Messrs. STEINWAY, by the Jury of the International Exposition. First on the List in Class X.

This unanimous decision of the International Jury, affirmed by the Imperial Commission, in classifying this Medal First in order of Merit over all other American Exhibitors, and over more than 400 Pianos entered by nearly all the celebrated manufacturers of Europe, being the final Verdict of the only Tribunal determining the rank of the Awards at the Exposition, place

THE STEINWAY PIANOS AT THE HEAD OF ALL OTHERS.

MESSRS. STEINWAY & SONS' MAMMOTH MANUFACTORY is now conceded to be not only the most perfectly arranged, but at the same time the most extensive establishment of its kind in the world, the official Revenue Returns as published for the years 1866–69 having revealed the startling fact that the number of pianos manufactured by Messrs. Steinway (sixty instruments per week,) and the amount of their sales are more than double those of the next largest manufacturer in America, and exceed those of the twelve largest piano makers of New York combined.

THE STEINWAY PIANOS are preferred to all others by the most celebrated pianists of the world and used by all the principal Concert troupes whenever attainable.

STEINWAY & SONS are the only American firm whose Pianos have a "world wide" reputation, being exported in large and constantly increasing numbers to Europe and all parts of the civilized world. Steinway's Pianos are sought to be copied by nearly all American and European piano makers, many of the latter announcing through the public papers that their pianos are constructed on the "Steinway" system.

Every Pianoforte Warranted for Five Years.

New and Valuable Tide Table for 110 Places.

To find the time of high-water at any of the places named in the following table, add the time indicated in the first column of figures to the time of "Moon South," or "Moon on Meridian," found in the calendar pages. If the result is more than 12 hours from noon, the time will be the next day in the morning; and if more than 12 hours from midnight, the time will be in the afternoon of the same day. The tide thus found is the first after the Moon's culmination. The second tide occurs 12 hours and 26 minutes later than the first:

To Get Correct Time.

When the shadow cast by the Sun reaches the noon-mark, set the clock at the time given in calendar pages of this Almanac, in the column of "Sun at Noon-mark," and it will be exactly right. If a meridian line is used instead of a noon-mark, the passing the lines by the Sun's center is the moment for setting the clock. Any skillful surveyor can make a noon-mark or meridian lines of small brass or copper wires. In doing so, he must allow for the variation of the magnetic needle from a true or astronomical north and south line.

A Table of Sixty-one Bright Stars.

To ascertain when any Star found in the following Table will be on the upper meridian, add the numbers opposite in the left-hand column of figures to the time of "Sidereal Noon" found in the calendar pages. For the rising of a star, subtract the number opposite in the right-hand column of figures from its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to its meridian passage. Those marked (....) revolve in a circle of perpetual apparition, and do not rise nor set north of the latitude of New York (40° 42′ 40″), for which latitude the semi-diurnal arcs are calculated. The civil day begins at midnight, and consequently 24 hours after midnight, or 12 hours from noon, is morning of the succeeding day; and more than 24 hours from noon, is evening of the next day. From 12h. to 24h. from midnight, or from 0h. to 12h. from noon, will be in the afternoon of the same day. This table is arranged in the order of culmination.

Surveyors and Civil Engineers may obtain the declination of the magnetic needle by observations on the Pole Star when upon the meridian, or when at the greatest elongation east or west. POLARIS and other stars pass the lower meridian 11h. 56m. after their upper transit. To the time of upper transit of Polaris, add 5h. 54m. and it gives the time of greatest western elongation. If the 5h. 54m. be subtracted from the time of upper transit, it will give the time of greatest eastern elongation. Observations made at the time of greatest elongation are less liable to error than those made at the time of transit. The mean distance of Polaris from the pole this year is 1° 22′ 4.3″. To find its azimuth for any latitude, take from 18.3778781 the logarithmic cosine of the latitude, and the remainder is the logarithmic sine of the azimuth.

NOTE.—In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS.—☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night,

at any time of the year, add 12 hours to the time of the Sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Leap-Year.—Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 without a remainder is a leap year, except the last year of the century, which is a leap-year only when divisible by 400 without a remainder. Thus the year 1900 will not be a leap-year.

The Asteroids.

About 119 little planets, called Asteroids, have been discovered between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Some of them are so small that to call them worlds might seem inappropriate. But any body having an orbit, though not larger than a cannon-ball, is entitled to rank as a world. Many such may exist which will never be discovered because of their littleness. Very little asteroidal bodies are revolving around the earth, as the moon does. The aerolites, or falling stones, are really such asteroids whose orbits cross the earth's orbit, or else wind spirally inward to the earth as a center.

DISTRESSING COUGH CURED.—Letter from Rev. Dr. Beattie.—Smithtown, Orange Co., N. Y., Oct. 20, 1869.—Messrs Allcock & Co., Sing Sing: Your Porous Plasters are a great blessing. My daughter, Isabella, had whooping cough some twelve months since; when the severity of the disease abated, she still for six months had a distressing cough, and became very weak and thin. Finding internal remedies of no avail, an Allcock's Porous Plaster was applied to her chest. The cough was relieved from the day it was put on, and in one month was entirely cured. I am yours, truly, D. BEATTIE.

Principal Agency, Brandreth House, New York, and by Druggists, at 25c. each, and also by the yard, and any size to suit.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

Dr. Valentine Mott, Dr. Johnson, of Hartford, and Myers, of Savannah, have spoken of them in the hig terms. The great Mott said: "They were all that c be hoped for in a Plaster—simple cleanly and adhe perfect as artificial supporters of the muscles, and pains, because of their mild counter-irritant qualities, ally at once giving ease." Local weakness of the b breast and side always benefited, thus curing lumbag a few hours, sometimes in a few minutes. In scie hip disease, and neuralgia affections, they have c when other means failed.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER,

Besides, a peculiar pleasant odor, hole, or atmosphere exhales from them by the warmth of the body, imperceptible to the eye, but which envelopes the body in a cloud of thin vapor through which contagion cannot penetrate. In fact, Allcock's Plasters supply an atmosphere like that of a balsam or pine woods, and no doubt already some. When contagious or infectious diseases are about, they should be worn on the chest or back as preventives.

Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents each, and by the yard, or any size to suit.

THE BUTLER HEALTH LIFT, LEWIS G. JANES, Manager, Park Bank Building, 214 Broadway, New York. A scientific system of concentrated, cumulative exercise.

"Thousands of our sedentary workers with brain and quill might try 'The Lifting Cure' with lasting profit."—Horace Greeley.

"I commend The Butler Health Lift to the attention of all persons whose avocations severely tax the brain, and to all whose nervous system is run down."—Henry Ward Beecher.

"As a means of retaining, and in certain chronic cases of disease, of regaining health, I regard Butler's Lifting Exercise as of great value."—F. J. Bumstead, M.D., Professor in College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The remaining sections of this act, 12 to 47 inclusive, are amendatory of the internal revenue laws:

Distilled Spirits.—The amendments relating to distilled spirits took effect on August 1st, and are substantially as follows:

The following taxes theretofore existing were repealed: The special tax of $400 imposed upon distillers, and the tax of $4 per barrel on each barrel of 40 proof gallons produced in excess of 100 barrels in any one year; also the tax of 1 per cent. on the sales of dealers in liquors, and the tax of 50 cents on each barrel rectified by rectifiers, in excess of 200 barrels in any one year. In lieu of the taxes thus repealed and of the tax of 50 cents per proof gallon theretofore imposed upon spirits distilled, the following are imposed or continued: On spirits produced, 70 cents per proof gallon. Rectifiers of spirits, $200 per annum. Wholesale dealers in liquors, selling in quantities of 5 gallons and upwards, $100 per annum. Retail dealers in liquors, selling in quantities less than 5 gallons, $25 per annum. When the same party sells both at wholesale and retail, both taxes are imposed. A tax of 10 cents each pint and 20 cents each quart bottle is imposed upon all wines made in imitation of Champagne, when not made from grapes, currants, rhubarb, or berries grown in the United States. The tax imposed upon brewers remains as before, viz., $1 per barrel of 31 gallons on all ale, beer, porter, and lager beer produced: In addition to which brewers are subject to an annual special tax of $100, if producing 500 barrels and upwards per year, or $50 if not exceeding 500 barrels a year.

Dealers in fermented liquors (ale, beer, porter, and lager beer) exclusively, were formerly rated and taxed as other dealers in liquors were taxed. Under this Act, however, they are rated separately, and are taxed, if selling in quantities upwards of 5 gallons, as wholesale dealers in malt liquors, $50 per annum if only in quantities of 5 gallons or less, as retail dealers in malt liquors, at $20 per annu

Tobacco, Snuff, and Cigars.—The amendments relating to these articles took effect July 1st. The rate of tax on snuff remains before, 32 cents per lb. Tobacco, forme taxable at 16 cents and 32 cents—the low rate being for that made from leaf with all stems and buts in, and the higher for th made from the leaf stripped from its stems a buts—is now taxable on all grades at the u form rate of 20 cents per lb.: In addition which the manufacturer is required to pay annual special tax of $10 and to give bonds th he will faithfully comply with the law..

Cigars remain taxable as before at $5 M., and in addition thereto the manufactu is required to pay an annual special tax of $ and to give bonds, as in the case of manuf turers of tobacco and snuff. The tax of $2 each $1,000 of sales in excess of $5,000 per num formerly imposed upon cigar manuf turers is repealed. So also is repealed the li tax on sales formerly imposed upon dealers leaf tobacco and dealers in manufactur tobacco and cigars. The following annu taxes are continued: On dealers in leaf tobac $25 per annum. On dealers in manufactur tobacco, $5 per annum.

Banks and Bankers.—The taxes impos by section 110 of the Act of June 30, 1864, a continued, with the amendment that hereaf they shall be paid semi-annually, in lieu monthly, as heretofore, and that the wo "capital employed" in said section shall include money borrowed or received from d to day, in the usual course of business, fr any person not a partner of or interested in t said bank, association, or firm. These ta are as follows: On capital, 1-24 of 1 per ct. month. On deposits, 1-24 of 1 per ct. per mon On circulation, if in excess of 5 per ct. of capit 1-12 of 1 per ct. per month, except that on t issue of any State bank circulation a tax of per ct. is imposed. Savings Banks are exempt from the tax on deposits except on the avera amount that may be credited to any one positor in sums exceeding $2,000, and of su deposits are taxable only on the excess of th investments in U. S. bonds.

The tax on gas was repealed to take eff August 1.

The stamp taxes in schedule B. were pealed to take effect Oct. 1, excepting only the tax of 2 cents on bank checks.

The following stamp taxes imposed schedule C are continued: On proprietary patent medicines; perfumery and cosmeti friction matches; wax tapers; cigar ligh playing cards.

The income tax ceased by limitation w the year 1871.

The amendment to sec. 49 of the Act of Ju 20, 1868, reduces the number of supervisors Internal Revenue from 25 to 10.

Section 43 provides for a reduction of number of Internal Revenue Districts to the present number is (prior to January 1873), 243.

have been erroneously assessed or collected, or any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority, or for any sum which it is alleged was excessive, or in any manner wrongfully collected, shall be brought within two years next after the cause of action accrued and not after; and all claims for the refunding of any internal tax or penalty shall be presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within two years next after the cause of action accrued and not after; Provided, That actions for claims that have accrued prior to the passage of this Act, shall be commenced in the courts or presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within one year from the date of said passage; And provided further, That where a claim shall be pending before said commissioner the claimant may bring his action within one year after such decision and not after; And provided further, That no right of action barred by any statute now in force shall be revived by anything herein contained.

Section 46 continues in force all the provisions of the Acts and parts of Acts repealed for issuing and collecting liabilities that may have accrued under them.

CHAP. CCCXVI.—Army Appropriations.—Appropriates for the support of the army for the year 1872–3 as follows:

Pay of the Army	$12,105,591
Subsistence of regular troops	2,770,944
Regular supplies of Quartermaster's Department	4,000,000
Incidental expenses	1,200,000
Transportation	4,000,000
Hire of quarters, storehouses, &c.	1,250,000
Other items	3,357,080
Total	$28,683,615

CHAP. CCCXXII.—To Authorize the Appointment of Shipping Commissioners.—This Act provides for the appointment by the Circuit Courts of the U. S. of Shipping Commissioners in certain seaports to superintend the shipping and discharge of seamen engaged in American Merchant Ships, and for the further protection of seamen. The general business of a shipping-commissioner under this Act is to afford facilities for engaging seamen by keeping a register of their names and characters, to superintend their engagement and discharge; to provide means for securing the presence on board at the proper times of men engaged; to facilitate the making of apprenticeships to the sea-service and to perform other duties prescribed by law. In ports where there are no shipping commissioners the duties are devolved upon collectors or deputy-collectors of the ports.

CHAP. CCCXXXV.—To Revise the Postal Laws.—This Act revises, consolidates, and amends previously existing statutes relating to the Post Office Department from March 3, 1791, to April 27, 1872, contains 327 sections, and repeals 119 Acts and parts of Acts and resolutions or parts of resolutions. Lacking space for a proper abstract of this important Act we must refer readers to the Law itself.

CHAP. CCCXXXVII.—Redemption and Sale of U. S. Lands held for Taxes.—Provides that all lands now held by the United States for non-payment of direct taxes may be redeemed and restored to such of the former owners as shall make application therefor to the Secretary of the treasury, through the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within two years from the passage of this Act, upon the payment of the tax and charges and 10 per cent. interest from the time the tax became due. Unredeemed lands at the expiration of the two years are to be sold at public auction.

CHAP. CCCXLII.—Increasing Pensions.—Provides that every person previously entitled to a pension of less than $18 per month, who shall, while in the service, have lost both eyes or both hands or both feet, or shall otherwise have been totally disabled, shall receive $31 25 per month; those losing one hand and one foot $24 per month, and those losing one hand or one foot $18 per month.

CHAP. CCCXLVI.—Security of Bank Reserves.—Authorizes the secretary to receive on deposits U. S. notes from National Banks without interest and to issue certificates therefor in denominations of not less than $5,000 payable on demand, which certificates may be held by the banks as part of their legal reserve, and may be accepted in the settlement of clearing house balances.

CHAP. CCCLIII.—Artificial Limbs for Soldiers.—Amends the Act of June 30, 1870, for supplying artificial limbs, or commutation therefor to officers, soldiers, and seamen, so that it shall apply to all officers, non-commissioned officers, enlisted and hired men of the land and naval forces who in the line of their duty as such shall have lost limbs or sustained bodily injuries depriving them of the use of their limbs.

CHAP. CCCLXVI.—To Reimburse Kansas.—Appropriates $337,054 to reimburse the State of Kansas for disbursements in aid of suppressing the rebellion.

CHAP. CCCLXIX.—To Reimburse Kentucky.—Appropriates $1,000,000 for war disbursements made by the State of Kentucky.

CHAP. CDXV.—Sundry Civil Expenses.—Appropriates for sundry Civil Expenses of the Government for the year 1872–3 as follows:

Under Treasury Department	$1,741,117
Public Works under Treasury Department	3,050,000
Judiciary	3,700,000
Light Houses, Beacons, &c.	2,435,249
Interior Department	2,769,015
Under War Department	3,078,598
Under Navy Department	1,184,200
Miscellaneous and other Appropriations	2,012,535
Total	$19,940,714

Federal Supervision of Elections.—This Act amends the Act of Feby. 28, 1871, relative to the right of citizens to vote, so that whenever in any county, parish, or congressional district, ten citizens prior to any registration of voters for a congressional election shall prefer a written request to the Judge of the U. S. Circuit Court, he shall appoint two supervisors of election for each of such election districts as proper application may be made for: Provided, That no compensation shall be allowed to the supervisors herein authorized to be appointed, except those appointed in cities or towns of 20,000 or more inhabitants. And no person shall be appointed under this Act as supervisor of election who is not at the time of his appointment a qualified voter of the county, parish, election district, or voting precinct for which he is appointed. And no person shall be appointed deputy-marshal under the Act of which this is amendatory, who is not a qualified voter at the time of his appointment, in the county, parish, district, or precinct in which his duties are to be performed. And section 18 of the Act of which this is an amendment shall be construed to authorize and require the Circuit Courts of the United States in said section mentioned to name and appoint, as soon as may be after the passage of this Act, the commissioners provided for in said section, in all cases in which such appointments have not already been made in conformity therewith. And the third section of the Act to which this is an amendment shall be taken and construed to authorize each of the judges of the Circuit Courts of the United States to designate one or more of the judges of the district courts within his circuit to discharge the duties arising under this Act or the Act to which this is an amendment. And the words "any person" in section 4 of the Act of May 31st, 1870, shall be held to include any officer or other person having powers or duties of an official character under this Act or the Act to which this is an amendment: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to authorize the appointment of any marshals or deputy-marshals in addition to those heretofore authorized by law: And provided further, That the supervisors herein provided for shall have no power or authority to make arrests or to perform other duties than to be in the immediate presence of the officers holding the election, and to witness all their proceedings, including the counting of the votes and the making of a return thereof.

CHAP. CDXVI.—Repair and Completion of Public Works.—Appropriates for the repair, preservation, and completion of certain public works on rivers and harbors, $5,286,000, which amount is about equally divided between the works on or near the sea coast and those in the interior. The Act also provides for various surveys with a view to farther improvements of rivers and harbors.

CHAP. CDXVII.—Fortifications and Defensive Works.—Appropriates for the construction, preservation, and repairs of fortifications and other works of defense, $2,087,000.

APPROPRIATIONS RECAPITULATED.

With the exception of a few indefinite sums the following shows the appropriations made by Congress at the Session of 1871-2:

For Pensions	$30,480,000
For the Post Office Service	29,019,340
For the support of the Army	28,668,615
For sundry Civil Expenses	19,940,714
For the Naval Service	18,188,088
Legislative, Executive, and Judicial	17,894,146
For various Indian Tribes	6,898,477
For Deficiencies in former Appropriations	6,065,367
For River and Harbor Improvements	5,286,00
For Fortifications, &c.	2,087,00
For Custom House, Court House, &c., at Chicago	2,000,00
For Consular and Diplomatic Expenses	1,219,60
Other Expenditures	2,198,10
Total	$169,405,50

Bridging Rivers.—The construction of bridges are authorized by various Acts of Congress as follows: Across the Missouri River at St. Joseph, Mo.; across the Mississippi, near Clinton, Iowa; across the Mississippi between the counties of Carroll and Whiteside, Ill., and the counties of Jackson and Clinton in Iowa; across the Mississippi at La Crosse, Wis.; across the Missouri River at Boonville, Mo.; across Lake Saint Croix at Hudson, Wis.; across the Mississippi River at Quincy, Ill.; also at Wasaw, Ill.; over the tide water of Dunstan River in the town of Scarboro', Me.; across the Mississippi at Fort Madison, Iowa; across the Arkansas at Little Rock, Ark.; across the Missouri at Nebraska City; also at Brownville, Neb.; across the Mississippi at Red Wing, Min.

Railroad Grants.—Right of Way.—Various Acts of Congress grant the right of way through the public lands as follows: For a railroad from Great Salt Lake to Portland, Oregon; Texas and Pacific Railway succeeds to the franchises and rights of the Texas Pacific Railway; Chicago and North Western Railway Co. are authorized to change their projected line of railway in Michigan, Dakota Southern Railway from Sioux City, Iowa, to the west line of Bon Homme Co., Dakota; Dakota Grand Trunk Railway Co. line of road not yet fixed; Utah, Idaho, and Montana Railroad Co., by way of Malade River and Snake River Valley through Utah, Idaho, and Montana Territories to a connection with the Northern Pacific Railroad, or with the Helena and Utah Northern Railroad; Great Southern Railway Co. from St. Mary's River to Key West, Fla.; Jacksonville and St. Augustine Railroad Co., between Jacksonville and St. Augustine, Fla.; Denver and Rio Grande Railway Co., from Denver to the northern boundary of Mexico; New Mexico and Gulf Railway, from the north-western boundary of New Mexico to the junction of the San Juan with the Rio Mancos, and down the Pecos River Valley to the passage of the said Pecos River into the State of Texas at the 32nd parallel; Eastern Nevada Railroad Co., from Elk to Hamilton City, Nevada.

Custom Houses, Court Houses, &c.—Provision is made by various Acts for the purchase of sites or the structure of buildings for Post Offices, Court Houses, Custom Houses, &c., as follows: At Chicago, Ill.; Albany, N. Y.; Trenton, N. J.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Hartford, Ct.; St. Louis, Mo.; Rockland, Me.; Fall River, Mass.; Utica, N. PROGRESS AND IMPORTANCE OF RAILWAYS.

The subject of railway construction in this country is one of great interest and importance. Commencing no longer ago than 1830 with 23 miles, the number of miles constructed up to January, 1872, was 60,852. During 1869, the mileage constructed was 4,999; in 1870, 6,145; and in 1871, 7,453; making in the three years a total of 18,597 miles. The largest mileage in any previous year was in 1856, when it reached 3,643. During the four years of our civil war but 3,373 miles were built. The State of Massachusetts has one mile of railway to 4.86 square miles of territory. A similar ratio would give to the States of New York and Pennsylvania 10,000 miles of line respectively, and to Illinois 11,000 miles, or more than twice its present mileage. The cost of railroads in this country will average $50,000 per mile—the total for the 60,852 miles being, in round numbers, $3,000,000,000. The cost of mileage constructed in 1871, at $30,000 per mile, was about $225,000,000, while at least $50,000,000 were expended in new works and equipments on old roads, making a total expenditure for the year of $275,000,000. The rapidity of the increase of business of the railroads of the United States, and the quantity and value of their gross tonnage traffic is still more remarkable than the rapid progress of these works. In 1851 the total earnings from passengers were, for 8,838 miles, $29,274,254, and from freights $20,192,100—an aggregate of $39,466,358. In 1861, the total earnings were $130,000,000; and in 1871, $154,-000,000. The tonnage of all the railroads in 1871 is estimated at 69,000,000 net tuns for 31,256 miles; while, in 1871, the net tonnage was 100,000,000 tuns on 60,852 miles. The net tonnage reduced to pounds of all the railroads of the country, in 1851, equaled 464 lbs. to the head of population; in 1861, 1,012 lbs.; and in 1871, 5,000 lbs. per head. The value of this tonnage per head, in 1851, equaled $35 34; in 1861, $116 92 and in 1871, $375 per head. The increase of mileage of railways constructed from 1851 to 1861 was at the rate of about 20 per cent. per annum. From 1861 to 1871 the rate of annual increase was about 10 per cent. The increase of tunnage from '51 to '61 was 50 per cent. per annum; from '61 to '71, at the rate of 23 per cent. per annum. The increase of population from '51 to '61 was at the rate of 3.5 per cent. per annum. From '61 to '71, at the rate 2.3—10 per cent per annum.

The cost of transporting Indian corn and wheat over ordinary highways is about 20 cents per tun per mile. At such rate the former will bear transportation only 125 miles to market, while its value is equal to 75 cents per bushel, the latter only 250 miles, while its value is $1 per bushel. With such highways only, our most valuable cereals will have no commercial value outside of circles having radii of 125 miles and 250 miles respectively. Upon a railroad the transportation equals 1¼ cents per tun per mile, thus increasing the circle within which corn and wheat, at the prices named, will have a marketable value to radii of 1,600 and 3,200 miles respectively. The area of a circle having a radius of 125 miles is 49,087 square miles, while that of a circle drawn upon a radius of 1,600 miles is about 160 times greater, or 8,042,406 square miles. Such a difference is enormous as it is, only measures the value of the agencies at present employed in transportation, and the results achieved compared with the old.

HORACE GREELEY.

HORACE GREELEY, the founder of the NEW YORK TRIBUNE, was born at Amherst, Hillsborough Co., New Hampshire, on the 3d of February, 1811. He was the son of Zaccheus and Mary (Woodburn) Greeley, and his father was a plain, hardworking farmer, struggling to pay for land which he had bought at a high price, and Mr. Greeley's earliest years were passed in such farm labor as a mere boy was equal to—in riding horse to plow, in picking stones, and in watching the charcoal pits. He himself states in his "Recollections" that he was "a feeble, sickly child, often under medical treatment, and unable to watch, through a closed window, the falling of rain, without incurring an instant and violent attack of illness." His mother had lost her two former children just before his own birth, which led her to regard him with more than common tenderness and anxiety. From the first he manifested signs of extraordinary intelligence. These his mother, who was a woman of uncommon intelligence and information, marked with affectionate interest. She was a great reader, and she naturally imparted to her child the same love of books which she herself entertained. Mr. Greeley says that the stories which she told him awakened in him "a thirst for knowledge and a lively interest in reading and writing." He could read before he could talk—that is before he could pronounce the longer words. When he was but two years old the Bible was his favorite book. The newspaper, which was given to him as a plaything, he examined with curiosity; inquiring first about the pictures, then the capital letters, then the smaller ones. At three years of age, he read correctly any book prepared for children, and at four any book whatever. He himself draws a pretty picture of his learning to read at his mother's knee. "I can," he says, "faintly recollect her sitting at her little wheel with her book in her lap whence I was taking my daily lessons; and thus I soon acquired the facility of reading from a book sidewise or upside down as readily as in the usual fashion—a knack which I did not suppose at first peculiar, but which, being at length observed, became a subject of neighborhood wonder and fabulous exaggeration." It has been stated that so soon as he could form any resolution, he determined to be a printer. In his third winter he attended the district school of Londonderry, where his maternal grandfather resided. He was early distinguished for his recitations and for the skill which he displayed in the spelling exercises. He was a gentle and timorous child, but it was observed that ghost stories never frightened him.

In his seventh year even the limited success which had attended his father's farming ceased, and ruin could be no longer postponed by unflinching hard work. When the child was ten the ruin was consummated, and his father was an exile and fugitive from his native State. He began the hard business of life again in the town of Westhaven, Rutland Co., Vt., where he was employed by a country gentleman of large estate. In 1826, young Greeley entered the office of The Northern Spectator, at East Poultney, Vt., as an apprentice to the art of printing. He was now at the college of which he was destined to be one of the most distinguished graduates. It need not be said that he went on acquiring, for it was nature with him to acquire. He had a plenty of newspapers to pore over, and a tolerable store of books. He joined the village Lyceum, which was also a Debating Society, of which he was "the real giant." His parents were away upon a new farm in Pennsylvania, but twice he visited them, walking a great part of the distance of 600 miles, and accomplishing the rest on a slow canal boat. At this early period he was already a teetotaler, and though the apprentice boarded at a tavern where the drinking was constant, he continued a rigorous abstinent. His fund of information was such that he came to be regarded as a sort of walking encyclopedia, and to him the disputes of the villagers were referred. As a printer he was reckoned the best workman in the office. But the newspaper made no money, and when Horace was in his 20th year its publication was discontinued. He immediately looked out for work elsewhere, after he had written his parents in Pennsylvania, and he obtained employment as a journeyman in Jamestown and Lodi in New York, and Erie, Pa.

It was in August, 1831, that he came to the city of New York, poor in everything except good principles and indomitable energy. He found employment first as a compositor, after much difficulty. Subsequently in copartnership with a Mr. Story he started the Morning Post, the first penny daily ever printed in the world, and which soon glided into bankruptcy. The printing office continued, obtaining some job work, and the concern was becoming comparatively prosperous when Story was drowned. Mr. Winchester came in, and The New Yorker was started. This was a literary newspaper which, though its publication was not long continued, won so excellent a reputation that any particular account of it is here unnecessary. In Mr. Greeley's autobiography he gives a touching account of the difficulties which he encountered in this enterprise. The newspaper did a fairly good business, but it was not profitable to the proprietors, and the publication was stopped in 1841. All this time Mr. Greeley was eking out his slender income by other labors. He supplied leading articles to The Daily Whig, and had previously, in 1838, edited The Jeffersonian, a political weekly campaign paper, published in Albany and New York. Everybody will remember The Log Cabin, the great Whig campaign newspaper, which Mr. Greeley edited in the stormy contests of 1840. The weekly issues of The Log Cabin ran up to 80,000, and with ample facilities for printing and mailing might have been increased to 100,000. Mr. Greeley afterwards said that, with the machinery of distribution now existing, the circulation might have been swelled to a quarter of a million.

On the 10th day of April, 1841, the first number of the NEW YORK TRIBUNE was issued. It was a small sheet, retailed for a cent, Whig in its politics, but, to use Mr. Greeley's words, "a journal removed alike from servile partisanship on the one hand and from gagged and mincing neutrality on the other." The editor went gallantly to his work. He was thirty years old, in full health and vigor and worth about $2,000, half of it in printing material. Mr. Greeley was his own editor. Mr. Henry J. Raymond, afterwards so celebrated in journalism, but then a lad fresh from college, was his first assistant, a post which he continued to hold for nearly eight years. Mr. George M. Snow took charge of the Wall st., or financial department, and held it for more than twenty-one years. THE TRIBUNE was started with five hundred names of subscribers, and of the first number five thousand were either sold or given away. The current expenses of the first week were $590; the receipts were $92; but soon the income pretty nearly balanced the outgo. About six months after the commencement of THE TRIBUNE, and when it had reached a self-sustaining basis, Mr. Thomas McElrath, who had some capital, took charge of the business, leaving Mr. Greeley free to attend to the editorial department, and the famous firm of Greeley & McElrath was established. In Mr. Greeley's autobiography he pays a warm tribute to the business abilities of his partner. "He was," says Mr. Greeley, "so safe and judicious that the business never gave me any trouble, and scarcely required of me a thought, during that long era of all but unclouded prosperity."

Of the subsequent career of THE TRIBUNE newspaper, it is hardly necessary that we should speak to the readers of THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC. Not more in what he wrote for it, than in what others wrote for it, it bears the impress of his vigorous intellect and unswerving integrity; of his unceasing observation of public affairs, and of his indomitable industry. It was a Whig newspaper, but it was never blindly and indiscriminately the newspaper of any party. It was always the advocate of a liberal protection to American industry, but its editor constantly admonished the American workman that by assiduity and intelligence he must protect himself. It boldly discussed social questions; it followed Fourier in his ideas of associated labor, without indorsing the errors of his social doctrine; it exposed the corruptions of New York politics, and when the leaders of the party threatened its destruction, it simply defied them, and went on with its valiant work; it fought for independence of criticism, and for the right to publish the news, in the libel suit which Mr. Cooper brought against it; it introduced a better style of literary work than was common in newspapers at that time, and employed the best writers who were to be obtained. It was not too busy with home affairs to forget the wrongs of Ireland; and it always rebuked without mercy the spirit of caste which would reduce persons of African descent to social degradation. Always, whatever it discussed, THE TRIBUNE, when Mr. Greeley had hardly anybody to help him in its management and conduct, was wide-awake, vigorous and entertaining. It never forgot those who were struggling for liberty in other lands, whether they were Irish, English, or French, Hungarians, or Poles. It was the newspaper of universal humanity.

In 1848, Mr. Greeley was elected a Member of the House of Representatives, and he served in that body from December 1, of that year, to March 4, 1849. His career as a national lawmaker was a short one, but he made himself felt. He did not at all mince matters in writing to THE TRIBUNE his first impressions of the House. In the very beginning, he brought in a bill to discourage speculation in public lands, and establish homesteads upon the same. The abuses of mileage he kept no terms with. Members did not relish the exposure of their dishonesty, but all their talking did not in the least disturb Mr. Greeley's equanimity. He opposed appropriations for furnishing members with libraries at the public expense. No member was ever more faithful to his duties, and no one ever received smaller reward.

In 1851, Mr. Greeley visited Europe, and in London acted as one of the jurors of the Great Exhibition. He also appeared before the Parliamentary Committee having under consideration the newspaper taxes, and gave important and useful information respecting the newspaper press of America. His letters written during his absence to THE TRIBUNE are among the most interesting productions of his pen. In 1855, Mr. Greeley again visited Europe for the purpose mainly of attending the French Exhibition. In 1856, he spent much of the winter in Washington, commenting for THE TRIBUNE upon the proceedings of Congress, and it was at this time that he was brutally assaulted by Mr. Rust, a Member of Congress from Arkansas. In 1856, THE TRIBUNE was indicted in Virginia—at least a man was indicted for getting up a club to promote its circulation, and Mr. Greeley was indicted with him. It was of little use that the tone in which THE TRIBUNE discussed slavery was moderate; its crime was that it discussed the subject at all. The absurdity was in supposing that such a topic could be kept out of the newspapers.

In 1859, Mr. Greeley journeyed across the plains to California. In Utah, he had his well-known interview with Brigham Young, by which he was more decidedly not convinced of the beauties of polygamy. At Sacramento and San Francisco he had a cordial public reception.

The National Convention of the Republican party met in Chicago in May, 1860, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Greeley attended the convention as a delegate for Oregon, by request of the Republicans of that State. The crisis was an important one, and the opinions of members in regard to the Presidential nomination were various. The choice of Mr. Greeley was Edward Bates, of St. Louis. "I believed," says Mr. Greeley, in his autobiography, "that he could poll votes in every slave State, and if elected, rally all that was left of the Whig party, therein to resist secession and rebellion. If not the only Republican whose election would not suffice as a pretext for civil war, he seemed to me that one most likely to repress the threatened insurrection, or, at the most, to crush it." The convention having nominated Mr. Lincoln, with Mr. Hamlin for Vice-President, Mr. Greeley cheerfully acquiesced. The election of Mr. Lincoln, followed by a secession of several of the slave States, brought on the rebellion. Mr. Greeley has left on record the course which at that dangerous and difficul moment he thought it the most prudent an advisable to pursue. He took the groun that if it could be shown, upon a fair vote that a majority of the citizens of the seceding States really desired such secession, then th remaining States should acquiesce in the rup ture. "We disclaim," he said, "a union o force—a union held together by bayonets; le us be fairly heard; and, if your people decid that they choose to break away from us, we wil interpose no obstacle to their peaceful with drawal from the Union." This doctrine, naked ly stated, exposed those who propounded it t no little misapprehension, and consequent ob loquy. Mr. Greeley always thought to the en of his life, that if a fair vote could be taken, i would be found that the South was not for seces sion, and that all the efforts of the disunionist had alienated but a minority of the Souther States or people from the Federal Union. H even insisted that it was because of his cer tainty that a majority of the Southern peopl were not in favor of secession, that he urge the popular vote; and that the vote, wher ever fairly taken, fully confirmed that view. H believed that the traitorous leaders had precip itated action because they feared that dela would be fatal to their schemes. When hostilitie had actually commenced, he thought that th Government showed irresolution and delay. Th result was "weary months of halting, timid nerveless, yet costly warfare," while the rebel lion might have been stamped out ere the clos of 1861. In 1864, Mr. Greeley was engaged i another attempt at accommodation. In conse quence of overtures made by Clement C. Clay of Alabama, James P. Holcombe, of Virginia, an George N. Sanders, a plan of adjustment wa submitted by Mr. Greeley to President Lincoln This proposed the restoration and perpetuity o the Union; the abolition of slavery; amnest for all political offences; the payment o $400,000,000 five per cent. United States stoc to the late slave States, to be apportioned, pr rata, according to their slave population; rep resentation in the House on the basis of thei total population; and a national convention t ratify the adjustment. Mr. Greeley believed just peace to be attainable. He thought tha even the offer of these terms, though they shoul be rejected, would be of immense advantage t the national cause, and might even prevent Northern insurrection. The negotiations, it a matter of history, utterly failed, but it woul be difficult to show that they did any injury t the cause of the Union. In connection with th Richmond negotiation, which was simultaneou they showed that "the war must go on until the Confederacy should be recognised as an independent power, or till it should be utterly, finally overthrown," "and the knowledge of this fact," said Mr. Greeley afterwards, "was worth more than a victory to the national cause."

The final victory of the Union arms was clouded by the assassination of President Lincoln. Mr. Greeley summed up his estimate of the character of that good man by saying: "We have had chieftains who would have crushed out the rebellion in six months, and restored the Union as it was, but God gave us the one leader whose control secured not only the downfall of the rebellion, but the eternal overthrow of human slavery under the flag of the great Republic."

In 1864, Mr. Greeley was a Presidential Elector for the State of New York, and a Delegate to the Philadelphia Loyalists' Convention.

The rebellion finally crushed, and the Union restored, so far as operations in the field could restore it, Mr. Greeley's mind was at once turned to projects of real and substantial pacification. The armies of the short-lived Confederacy were scattered, and its great chief was a prisoner in the hands of the Federal authorities—an unwelcome embarrassment, since the Government could much better have connived at his escape from the country. He could have been tried for treason; but his conviction was by no means certain, should he be brought to trial. Meanwhile his imprisonment was prolonged with what Mr. Greeley thought to be "aggravations of harsh and needless indignity." He could not be tried summarily by court-martial and shot; if tried by a civil court, he could not possibly be convicted, at any point where he could legally be tried. The provisions of the Federal Constitution were explicit, that "in all criminal prosecutions, the accused should enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed." Mr. Greeley said frankly to the attorney for Davis, that if his name were necessary upon a bail bond, it would not be withheld. When apprised that his name was needed, he went to Richmond, and, with Mr. Gerrit Smith, the eminent Abolitionist, and others, signed the bond in due form. The act has been grossly misrepresented, and used for partisan purposes in the unfairest way. It cost Mr. Greeley fair hopes of political preferment; it almost stopped the sale of his History of the Rebellion; and when he became a candidate for the Presidency with Mr. Gerrit Smith himself among his most active opponents, the suretyship for a criminal whom the Government never tried, and never had intended to try, was constantly and bitterly urged against him. The unfairness of this will now be acknowledged by the most eager partisan of the Administration; then it was considered a sharp and clever electioneering expedient.

In 1867, Mr. Greeley was a Delegate at Large to the New York State Convention for the revision of the Constitution, where he was prompt and efficient in the performance of his official duties.

In 1861 Mr. Greeley's friends presented his name before the Republican Legislative Caucus at Albany for U. S. Senator. There were three Republican candidates before the caucus, viz.: Mr. Greeley, Ira Harris and William M. Evarts. Mr. Greeley started out with a large support, and for several successive ballots gained largely upon his opponents, but was finally defeated in a nomination, which would have been equivalent to an election, by reason of the supporters of Mr. Evarts going over in a body to Mr. Harris, which secured his nomination, and of course his election. During that senatorial campaign Mr. Greeley was at the west delivering lectures, and thence wrote to an intimate friend at Albany saying that he had heard it intimated that some of his supporters at the State capital were inclined to "fight fire with fire." To this he entered his earnest protest, saying that, while he should feel flattered with a seat in the U. S. Senate, if it should be the unbiased wish of the Legislature to send him there, he earnestly hoped that no friend of his would do any act to secure his election the publication of which would cause such friend to blush. Six years later, in 1867, Mr. Greeley's friends were again anxious to send him to the Senate, and before the meeting of the Legislature the almost unanimous expression of the leading Republicans of the State, as well as that of the principal journals of the party, favored his election. But immediately after the close of the civil war he had declared, as the basis for reuniting the republic in the bonds of friendship and brotherhood, in favor of "universal amnesty and impartial suffrage." In this he was, as usual, in advance of his party, though they have since seen the wisdom of his suggestion, and have substantially adopted his plan of pacification. Against the judgment of his friends, but in order that he should not be elected under any possible misapprehension as to his views on the pacification of the South, he reiterated them just before the meeting of the Legislative caucus, in a strong and vigorous article in THE TRIBUNE, over his own signature. This threw him out of line for the Senatorship, as he expected it veal', and so said to his intimate friends, who vainly tried to induce him to suppress the article "till after the election." In 1869, in a fervern hope, after two or three Republican candidates who had been nominated had declined to run for State Controller, he accepted the position, and though defeated in the contest, as every one expected he would be, he ran ahead of the entire Republican State ticket, seven candidates in all, with the single exception of Gen. Franz Sigel, who received a considerable German vote which was not cast for the other Republican nominees.

In 1870 he ran for Congress in the 6th District, against the Hon. S. S. Cox, and though too ill to make a single speech in the district, he reduced the Democratic majority there from about 2,700, two years before, to about 1,000, and ran 300 ahead of Gen. Woodford, the Republican candidate for Governor in 1870.

The political year of 1872 found the United States in a yet unsatisfactory and disunited condition. The States lately in rebellion were yet abandoned almost entirely to anarchy, with the laws inefficiently enforced, with a great portion of the population uneasy and discontented, with the public treasuries depleted by systematic robbery, and a considerable portion of the inhabitants groaning under what they regarded as no better than despotism. This was of itself, to many honest and patriotic minds, a sufficient reason for opposing the re-election of Gen. Grant; yet there were others almost equally weighty. The Civil Service, by general admission, was not what it should be. There were grave charges of Executive corruption, which were not then and have not yet been satisfactorily explained. There was at least an unpleasant suspicion of nepotism in the distribution of the public patronage, which demanded but did not receive investigation. There was a general desire for an honest Government. It was under these pressing circumstances that the Liberal Convention met at Cincinnati on May 1st. It was attended by a vast delegation from all parts of the Union. Mr. Carl Schurz, who presided, very ably and forcibly stated the reason and aim of the Convention. He alluded to the "jobbery and corruption stimulated to unusual audacity, by the opportunities of a protracted civil war invading the public service of the Government, as almost all movements of the social body"—to "a public opinion most deplorably lenient in its judgment of public and private dishonesty," —to "a Government indulging in wanton disregard of the laws of the land, and resorting to daring assumptions of unconstitutional power," —to "the people, apparently at least, acquiescing with reckless levity in transgressions, threatening the very life of our free institutions." He thought the opportunity "grand and full of promise." Judge Matthews, of Ohio, subsequently spoke of the necessity of "emancipating the politics and business of the country from the domination of rings." The platform adopted by the Convention, with the accompanying resolutions, was conceived in a similar spirit. It arraigned the Administration for acting "as if the laws had binding force only for those who are governed, and not for those who govern." It charged the President with "openly using the powers and opportunities of his high office for the promotion of his personal ends,"—with "keeping notoriously unworthy and corrupt men in places of responsibility, to the detriment of the public interest,"—with "using the public service of the Government as a machinery for partisan and personal influence, and interfering with tyrannical arrogance in the political affairs of States and municipalities,"—with "receiving valuable presents, and appointing to lucrative office those who gave them,"—with resorting to arbitrary measures, and failing to appeal "to the better instincts and latent patriotism of the Southern people, by restoring to them those rights, the enjoyment of which is indispensable for a successful administration of their local affairs." The platform was in accordance with these views, calling for local self-government, for a reform of the Civil Service, for a speedy return to specie payments, for a removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the rebellion, and pledging the Liberal party to maintain the Union, emancipation, and enfranchisement, and to oppose reopening of the questions settled by the XIIIth, XIVth, and XVth Amendments. Upon the sixth ballot, after various changes, Mr. Greeley received a clear majority of all the votes cast, and was declared the nominee of the Convention for the Presidency, and B. Gratz Brown was also nominated for the Vice-Presidency. After many demonstrations of the warmest enthusiasm the Convention adjourned.

Mr. Greeley, in accepting the nomination of the Convention, took the ground that "all the political rights and franchises which have been acquired through our late bloody convulsion must and shall be guaranteed, maintained, enjoyed, respected evermore," and that "all the political rights and franchises which have been lost through that convulsion should and must be promptly restored and re-established, so that there shall be henceforth no proscribed class and no disfranchised caste within the limits of the Union, whose long-estranged people shall reunite and fraternize upon the broad basis of Universal Amnesty with Impartial Suffrage." Mr. Greeley also wrote strongly in favor of the maintenance of the equal rights of all citizens, and of the policy of local self-government, as contradistinguished from centralization. Upon other points, Mr. Greeley advocated Civil Service Reform, a reservation of the public lands for actual settlers, the maintenance of the public faith and national credit, a due care for the soldiers and sailors of the Republic; and he concluded by promising, if elected, to be the President "not of a party, but of the whole people." In July following, Mr. Greeley also received the nomination of the Democratic Convention at Baltimore, and he was now fairly before the country as the Presidential candidate of two great parties.

The canvass which followed developed a faculty in Mr. Greeley for which he had hardly received credit, even from his admirers. He spoke constantly, and in all parts of the country; and the test to which he thus voluntarily subjected himself was admitted by almost universal consent, to have been nobly maintained. He discussed all the great questions before the country boldly, and without hesitation or concealment. He was attended and eagerly listened to on such occasions by immense throngs of the people; and he bore the immense strain upon both his physical and intellectual powers without flinching. He had, as a matter of course, upon his nomination, retired from the editorial charge of THE TRIBUNE, but he was still affectionately welcomed by his old readers, with the same cordiality, when he came to speak to them with the living voice.

The result of the canvass is detailed in another part of this publication. Our system of Presidential elections is such that a candidate may receive, as Mr. Greeley did, a large popular vote, and, at the same time, a very small one in the Electoral Colleges. Mr. Greeley did not carry many States, but the results of the Liberal movement were at once felt in fresh promises from the incoming Administration, and in an assurance, at least semi-official, that the errors and mistakes of which the complaint had been so loud, would not be repeated. Mr. Greeley came back cheerfully and philosophically to his old TRIBUNE chair, and girt himself for the old work, which alas! he was not to continue.

The strong physical and mental constitution of the man was already broken by many cares, by enormous labors, and by the loss of a wife to whom he was devotedly attached, and who had been for so many years his helper and his cheerer. For THE TRIBUNE he wrote hardly at all, and at last he was obliged to give up visiting the office regularly. His sleeplessness was followed by inflammation of the brain, and under this he rapidly sank, dying on Friday, Nov. 29. The earthly life which had been so busy, so laborious, and so fruitful, was over.

The obsequies of Mr. Greeley were of a kind rarely accorded to any save great public characters. In the pulpits of New York and of other cities, upon the subsequent Sunday, allusions were made to the event. The remains were taken to the City Hall, where they were visited by an immense concourse of the population. Upon the day of the funeral the streets were thronged by a crowd of respectful spectators, anxious to show their respect for the departed. Among those who attended the funeral were the President and Chief Justice of the United States, several heads of departments, many Representatives and Senators, and State and city officials. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Chapin, pastor of the deceased, and by the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. After these the procession moved to Greenwood, where the remains of Mr. Greeley were deposited.

Such was the life and such the death of Horace Greeley. Our limits have compelled us to epitomize that which might have been, and indeed has already been, extended to volumes. But most of the readers of THE TRIBUNE ALMANAC are already familiar with the career of one whose course they were accustomed to watch with interest, affection and respect. No man was ever more generally respected—no man ever died more generally regretted. He has passed from the busy scenes of earth, in which he was one of the most useful and busy; but as the self-cultivated man of letters, the philanthropist, the reformer, and the unsurpassed journalist, he will be honorably remembered as long as the history of the Republic shall survive.

John A. Dix's maj. for Governor, 53,451; John C. Robinson's maj. for Lieut. Governor, 46,75 Reuben W. Stroud's maj. for Canal Commissioner, 45,581; Lyman Tremain's maj. for Congre man at Large, 37,599; Grant's maj. 53,456; Seymour's maj. in 1868, 10,000. Total vote for Gov nor, 838,151; for Lieut. Governor, 841,285; for Canal Commissioner, 842,305; for Congressman Large, 839,193; for President, 828,020; for President in 1868, 849,766. Ezra Graves, Adm., w elected State Prison Inspector by a vote of 444,362 against 398,417 for Enos C. Brooks, Liber An "Anti-Dram-Shop" ticket, headed by Charles C. Leigh for Governor was in the field a received 177 votes. The O'Conor ticket received 1,454 votes, and the Temperance electo ticket 201.

NOTE.—The vote above given for President is that of Amasa J. Parker and Stewart L. Woo ford, who each received about 50 more votes than the average of the 35 electors on their resp tive tickets. The vote for Woodford, however, is about 10 votes less than that of the Gra electors, excluding Fred. Douglas, who ran 1,850 behind the ticket, and Emil Sauer, who ran behind. We have carefully revised the official canvass, in which, as issued from the Sec tary of State's office, there were several gross errors. The votes cast in Niagara County John F. Hubbard, instead of John F. Hubbard, jr., are included in our table.

Governor Parker's maj. in 1871, 5979; Grant's maj. in 1872, 15200; Seymour's maj. in 1868, 2870. Total vote in 1872, 168467; in 1871, 158745; in 1868, 163,132. The O'Conor Electoral ticket received 606 votes.

The vote for President in 1872, above given, is that of Olden, Adm., and McClellan, Dem. The average vote of the Liberal Electors is about 400 less than the above figures, for the reason that in Somerset County there were 388, and in Warren County 242 votes cast for John F. Boppe, instead of John A. Boppe; and in Somerset County, 388, and in Warren Co., 1163 for Sidney A. Bevans, instead of Sidney B. Bevans, both Boppe and Bevans being Electors on the Greeley ticket. The average vote of the Greeley Electors, with the above-mentioned votes thrown out, is 76397, and of the Grant Electors, 91,593; maj. 15196.

David P. Lewis's maj. for Governor, 8407; Grant's maj. 10828; in 1868, 4276. Total vote for Governor, 171239; for President in 1872, 169716; for President in 1868, 148454.

THE LEGISLATURE is claimed by both parties. There being a number of contested seats in the House, and the Democrats holding the certificates of election, the Administration members seceded and organized a separate body. The Democrats met in the State Capitol and were recognized by the out-going Governor. Afterwards, in accordance with suggestions from Washington, the Administration members met with the Democrats in the State House, but still preserved their separate organization. No settlement had been reached at the time this ALMANAC went to press.

Besides the Governor, the following State officers, all Administration, were elected: Lt. Governor, Alexander McKinstry, of Mobile; Secretary of State, Patrick Ragland, of Jackson; Auditor, Robert T. Smith, of Randolph; Treasurer, Arthur Bingham, of Talladega; Attorney General, Benjamin Gardner, of Barbour; Superintendent of Public Instruction, Joseph H. Speed, of Perry; Commissioner of Industrial Resources, Thomas Lambert, of Coosa.

Greeley's maj by Warmoth's returns, 6,492, Grant's maj. by Kelogg's returns, 14634; Kellogg's maj. for Governor, by Kellogg's returns, 18811, Graham s maj. for Auditor in 1870, by Warmoth's returns, 24,522; Seymour's maj. for President in 1868, 46692. By Warmoth's returns, the vote for Governor was: McEnery, 65570; Kellogg, 55973; McEnery's maj 19600.

THE LEGISLATURE.—There are two bodies, each claiming to be the Legislature, and basing their pretensions on the reports of the respective returning boards. The Kellogg Legislature, however, has been installed in power by Judge Durell, of the U. S. District Court, aided by U. S. troops.

NOTE.—The above are the pretended returns of a series of the most fraudulent elections ever held in any country. A comparison of the aggregate number of votes cast, with the voting population as returned by the census, will show only a small portion of the frauds, but is conclusive so far as it goes. In the city of New York, containing in 1870, 188276 voters, less than 135000 votes were polled last November. In the county of St. Lawrence, containing 17,612 voters, less than 16,000 were polled—a very high proportion, much higher than we should look for in Louisiana. Yet, in the counties of Assumption Avoyelles, Lafourche, St. John Baptist, Terrebonne and Washington, the pretended vote actually exceeds the number of voters, while the general proportion through the State is only in the ratio of 13 to 16, and in many counties less than 2 to 3. We can only say that such a succession of monstrous and transparent debaucheries of the ballot box affords no indication of the political views of the people of Louisiana.

Silas Woodson's majority for Governor, 35,442; Greeley's majority for President, 32,238; Grant's majority in 1868, 21 232. Total vote for Governor, 277,986; for President in 1872, 270,630; in 1868, 152,488. The O'Conor ticket received 2,429 votes.

NOTE.—The vote for President in 1868 is, as near as possible to obtain it now, the vote cast by the people, of whom many thousands in Missouri were at that time disfranchised. The State authorities rejected the returns from the counties of Dunklin, Jackson, Monroe, Oregon, Platte, Ripley, Shannon and Wayne, together with portions of other counties, bring out the following as the official result: Grant, 83,887; Seymour, 58,005; Grant's maj., 24,982.

The following State and judicial officers (Liberals) were also elected in November, 1872:

Lt.-Gov	C. P. Johnson	over	J. H. Stover.
Sec. State	E. F. Weigel	"	C. W. Voerdl.
Treasu'r	H. W. Salmon	"	D. W. Draper.

Elisha Baxter's maj. for Governor, 3263. Grant's maj., 3416; in 1868, 3034. Total vote for Governor, 80066; for President, 79300; in 1872 41195. There is reason to believe that both in 1868 and 1872 the actual vote of Arkansas was different from that given above. It is alleged that there were gross frauds in 1872, and in 18 the votes of 14 counties, casting a large Democratic majority, were rejected.

The aggregate vote for other State offices was as follows:

Lieut. Gov. ... Volney V. Smith, Adm. ... 410

PARTY PLATFORMS IN 1872.

LIBERAL REPUBLICAN AND DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

[Adopted by the Liberal Republican Convention at Cincinnati, in June, and by the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore, in July, 1872.]

First—We recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of Government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatever nativity, race, color, or persuasion, religious or political.

Second—We pledge ourselves to maintain the union of these States, emancipation, and enfranchisement, and to oppose any reopening of the questions settled by the Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution.

Third—We demand the immediate and absolute removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the Rebellion, which was finally subdued seven years ago, believing that universal amnesty will result in complete pacification in all sections of the country.

Fourth—Local self-government, with impartial suffrage, will guard the rights of all citizens more securely than any centralized power. The public welfare requires the supremacy of the civil over the military authority, and freedom of persons under the protection of habeas corpus. We demand for the individual the largest liberty consistent with public order; for the State, self-government; and for the nation, a return to the methods of peace and the constitutional limitations of power.

Fifth—The Civil Service of the Government has become a mere instrument of partisan tyranny and personal ambition, and an object of selfish greed. It is a scandal and reproach upon free institutions, and breeds a demoralization dangerous to the perpetuity of republican government. We therefore regard such thorough reforms of the Civil Service as one of the most pressing necessities of the hour; that honesty, capacity, and fidelity constitute the only valid claim to public employment; that the offices of the Government cease to be a matter of arbitrary favoritism and patronage, and that public station become again the post of honor. To this end it is imperatively required that no President shall be a candidate for reelection.

Sixth—We demand a system of Federal taxation which shall not unnecessarily interfere with the industry of the people, and which shall provide the means necessary to pay the expenses of the Government economically administered, the pensions, the interest on the public debt, and a moderate reduction annually of the principal thereof; and, recognizing that there are in our midst honest but irreconcilable differences of opinion with regard to the respective systems of Protection and Free Trade, we remit the discussion of the subject to the people in their Congress Districts, and to the decision of the Congress thereon, wholly free of Executive interference or dictation.

Seventh—The public credit must be sacredly maintained, and we denounce repudiation in every form and guise.

Eighth—A speedy return to specie payment is demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government.

Ninth—We remember with gratitude the heroism and sacrifices of the soldiers and sailors of the Republic, and no act of ours shall ever detract from their justly-earned fame for the full reward of their patriotism.

Tenth—We are opposed to all further grants of lands to railroads or other corporations. The public domain should be held sacred to actual settlers.

Eleventh—We hold that it is the duty of the Government, in its intercourse with foreign nations, to cultivate the friendship of peace, by treating with all on fair and equal terms, regarding it alike dishonorable either to demand what is not right, or to submit to what is wrong.

Twelfth—For the promotion and success of these vital principles, and the support of the candidates nominated by this Convention, we invite and cordially welcome the cooperation of all patriotic citizens, without regard to previous affiliations.

THE ADMINISTRATION PLATFORM.

[Adopted by the National Administration Convention at Philadelphia, June, 1872.]

The Republican party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 5th and 6th days of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

First—During eleven years of supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved their loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased, with a firm hand, the resultant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise policy toward the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generally aided and successfully conducted; the public lands freely given to actual settlers; immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. A uniform national currency has been provided; repudiation frowned down; the national credit sustained under most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates; the revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions of rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's presidency at the rate of $100 000,000 a year. A great financial crisis has been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and the power of the nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future. We believe the people will not intrust the government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step of this beneficial progress.

Second—Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established, and effectually maintained throughout the Union, by efficient and appropriate State and federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect of citizen by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Third—The recent amendments to the national Constitution should be cordially sustained, because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can be safely trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

Fourth—The national government should seek to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

Fifth—Any system of the civil service under which the subordinate positions of the government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing; and we, therefore, favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage, and make honesty, efficiency, and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life-tenure of office.

Sixth—We are opposed to further grants of the public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the national domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

Seventh—The annual revenues, after paying the current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal, and the revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, be raised by duties upon importations, the duties of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to labor, and promote the industries, growth and prosperity of the whole country.

Eighth—We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union; their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to the length of service or the cause of such discharge.

Ninth—The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance—"Once a subject always a subject"—having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the individual's right to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former government; and we urge the continual and careful encouragement and protection of voluntary immigration.

Tenth—The franking privilege ought to be abolished, and the way prepared for a speedy reduction in the rate of postage.

Eleventh—Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognise the duty of so shaping legislation as to secure full protection, and the amplest field for capital, and for labor the creator of capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

Twelfth—We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions, and for the protection of the ballot-box, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the nation.

Thirteenth—We denounce repudiation of the public debt in any form or disguise as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of the debt and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption of specie payments.

Fourteenth—The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America, for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom. Their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

Fifteenth—We heartily approve the action of Congress in extending amnesty to those lately in rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

Sixteenth—The Republican party propose to respect the rights reserved by the people to themselves as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and to the federal government. It disapproves of the resort to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or national government.

Seventeenth—It is the duty of the general government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and shipbuilding.

Eighteenth—We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, the sound judgment, the practical wisdom, the incorruptible integrity and the illustrious services of Ulysses S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

1,500,000 ACRES of the most FERTILE and eligibly located LANDS, suitable for FARMING and GRAZING, are offered FOR SALE to actual settlers, on the most liberal terms, by the ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER CITY RAILROAD COMPANY, lying along their line of road in the State of Nebraska.

The superior advantages that these lands possess in point of location, lying on the direct highway running East and West between New York and San Francisco, is at a glance comprehended by every one looking to a rapid increase in the value of real estate and farming lands.

The SOIL is DEEP and RICH, and produces the heaviest Grain Crops in the country. The temperature of this section of the United States is particularly favorable for raising Fruits and all kinds of Garden Vegetables to perfection. And as a grazing country it even excels Kansas, not only in point of the luxuriance of its grasses, but from the absence of the fly that troubles cattle—this section has abundance of good water, and is destined to become, before long, the fattening grounds of the large herds in the West. The climate is the most even and salubrious. The most liberal facilities will be extended to settlers on these lands. For further information and pamphlets, address,

HEALTH! BEAUTY!

Strong, Pure, and Rich Blood, Increase of Flesh and Weight, Clear Skin and Beautiful Complexion, secured to all, through

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Consumption, Glandular Disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands, and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all Weakening and Painful Discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the Life Principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it, for either of these forms of disease, its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will and does secure, a cure is certain; for, when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing. Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases, but it is the only positive cure for Kidney, Bladder, Urinary, and Womb Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substance like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back along the Loins.

BEVERLY, MASS., July 18, 1869.

DR. RADWAY: I have had Ovarian Tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried everything that was recommended, but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it, but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for TWELVE YEARS. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, one box of Radway's Pills, and used two bottles of your READY RELIEF; and there is not a sign of a tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel BETTER, SMARTER, and happier than I have for 12 years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish if you choose. * * * * HANNAH P. KNAPP.

THE BEST TONIC.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s FERRO-PHOSPHORATED ELIXIR of CALISAYA is a delicious cordial, made of the Pyrophosphate of Iron and Calisaya Bark; it is the most valuable tonic now in use for Dyspepsia, Nervous Affections, Wakefulness, Debility, Depression of Spirits, &c., &c. The pale, the nervous, and the debilitated should not fail to take it; particularly females suffering from those complaints incident to the sex. Physicians now give it the preference to all similar preparations. If taken during exposure to malaria it strengthens the system to resist this poison, and prevents chill and fever, bilious fever, and other intermittent attacks.

HAZARD & CASWELL'S
PURE COD LIVER OIL.

This Oil is the Purest and Sweetest in market.

It can be retained by the stomach when all others fail.

Prof. Parker of New York, says: "I have tried almost every other manufacturer's oil, and give yours the decided preference."

Patients, after trying the other oils and finding them of such nauseous and offensive character it was impossible for the stomach to retain them, have tried ours, and find it sweet and pleasant, to agree with the stomach perfectly, and soon come to like it. Physicians have pronounced it the best and most reliable remedy in use for Coughs, Consumption, Rheumatism, Bronchitis, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They also have declared it superior to any of the Brown oils.

Manufactured only by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s JUNIPER TAR SOAP.

The best and most convenient remedy for Chapped Hands and Face, Rough Skin, Pimples, and all Cutaneous Affections. It makes the skin soft and smooth; prevents the skin from chapping if used during cold weather; is easily applied, avoiding the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s CAMPHOR ICE with GLYCERINE

Is a most excellent article, and gives universal satisfaction.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s DIARRHŒA and CHOLERA REMEDY

(Known as VELPEAU'S REMEDY) has been used extensively for years with perfect success; it has become an absolute necessity in thousands of families. None should be without it, as one or two doses will cure the most obstinate attacks.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s INODOROUS BENZINE

Will be found a superior article for removing Paint, Grease Spots, &c., &c., leaving no stain, with little or no odor.

Caswell, Hazard & Co.'s No. 6 (or TOILET) COLOGNE

Is acknowledged by connoisseurs as superior to the German, and much cheaper.

Caswell, Hazard, & Co.'s CHLORATE OF POTASH LOZENGES

For Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, &c.; they are more pleasant and efficacious than the disagreeable troches now in use.

Our Preparations are sold by all Druggists.

TAKE

No medicine which will increase the derangement of a system already disordered by disease. Violent cathartics that sweep through the bowels like a cataract, prostrating the strength and irritating the delicate membrane of the alimentary canal, are never needful. The best that can be given to persons suffering from dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation, or any disorder affecting the stomach, the liver, or the excretive organs, is to tone, cleanse and regulate these important viscera with TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. This agreeable alterative operates

COUNSEL

WITH

the utmost mildness, yet thoroughly restores the functional action of the digestive organs and the intestines, and refreshes and renovates the whole physique. For more than a hundred years the water of the Seltzer Spa has been considered the finest corrective in the world, and this preparation is chemically identical with it. If

YOUR

complaint is indigestion, costiveness, nervous debility, biliousness, gravel, or any affection of the kidneys, remember that the EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT is not only an unequaled purgative, but also a general invigorant, and that its saline principle has a powerful sanitary effect upon the vitiated secretions and the blood. In an age when the sick exercise their

and common sense in determining the merits of a medicine, it seems almost unnecessary to point out the advantages which a specific so gentle, safe and certain in its operation has over the nauseous and pungent drugs which exhaust the bodily energies of the patient, and literally scourge his internal organization, without effecting a radical cure. Invalids, TAKE COUNSEL OF YOUR REASON, and select the remedy which tones while it regulates, and leaves no sting behind.

ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.

This article is equal as a remedy to the Spanish fly blister, yet makes no sore, and never affects the kidneys; is convenient for all ages and conditions, usualy only producing a "blush" on the skin, and more certainly curative than liniments or blisters, and without prostration and pain of the latter.

And this is true even in Croup, Quinsy, Pleurisy, Lung and Throat Affections. But the utility of this sanitary invention has been warmly welcomed. They are largely sold in every part of the world, and it is believed that not less than five hundred thousand persons are well and attending to the duties of life, free from pain, who have an Allcock's Porous Plaster somewhere about them, and who, but for the said plaster, would be prostrate upon a bed of agony. Besides a peculiar piny pleasant odor, halo or atmosphere exhales from them by the warmth of the body, imperceptible to the eye, but which envelopes the body in a cloud of thin vapor, through which contagion cannot penetrate. In fact, Allcock's Plasters supply an atmosphere like that of a balsam or pine woods, and no doubt attracts ozone. When contagious or infectious diseases are about, they should be worn on the chest or back as preventatives.

The Allcock Porous Plaster soothes pain, reanimates torpid limbs, seem in many cases to revive the powers of life. The great demand proves them to be used as a universal remedy. They are convenient of application, and safe for all, being incapable of producing any injurious effects.

Dr. Valentine Mott, Dr. Johnson, of Hartford, and Dr. Myers, of Savannah, have spoken of them in the highest terms. The great Mott said: "They were all that could be hoped for in a Plaster—simple, cleanly and adhesive, perfect as artificial supporters of the muscles, and for pains, because of their mild counter-irritant qualities, usually at once giving ease." Local weakness of the back, breast, and side, always benefited, thus curing lumbago in a few hours, sometimes in a few minutes.

In serous, heart, and chest affections their use causes an absorption or evaporation of water, by which dropsy of the heart and hydrothorax have undoubtedly been cured.

Letter from J. R. Decatur, Esq.

197 WATER STREET, NEW YORK, AUGUST 7th, 1872.

THOMAS ALLCOCK & CO.: For many years I have suffered from lame and weak back, it being so weak I could not raise a ten-pound weight from the floor. It was painful for me to stand five minutes without leaning on something for support, and it was necessary for me to be very careful in walking, for the least misstep or jar caused me intense pain. The Allcock's Porous Plaster was often recommended, but my predjudices were so strong that it was a long time before I concluded to try them. At length, suffering so much, I was prevailed upon to give one plaster a trial. Wonderful to relate, it gave me immediate relief, and now I have, as it were, a new back; have no difficulty in standing, walking or lifting. I send you this evidence for the benefit of my fellow men. I feel that I would like evey person to know of the value of Allcock's Porous Plasters for weak backs. I have recommended to many of my friends, who have sincerely thanked me for the good they have done them.

Yours, respectfully, J. R. DECATUR.

NEW YORK, APRIL 5TH, 1872.

T. ALLCOCK & CO., GENTLEMEN.—Your plaster, which ought to be called "the magic plaster" has wrought such a cure on my lame back, that duty compels me to speak to you and the public through you of their efficiency. A few weeks ago, I commenced to have a light pain across the small of the back, which gradually increased—until it became almost intolerable—sitting, standing or lying made no difference—the pain finally becoming continual and very painful. A friend, who had formerly recommended your invaluable plaster, (which I tried two years ago with great success.) mentioned the fact, which induced me to try it again, and I am happy to say, three days only have elapsed, and every vestige of the pain has ceased. Publish this if you wish, for I am anxious to help applaud a thing that I have received so much ease from using. Hoping for your continued prosperity, I remain very gratefully yours, etc.,

Carbolic Salve.

The success that has attended the introduction of this Remedy has never been equaled in any single instance before in the history of medicine. Its virtues are recognized alike by rich and poor, and men of distinguished public reputation do not hesitate to give the widest publicity to their praise of so excellent an article as CARBOLIC SALVE.

Subjoined we give extracts from the letters of a few out of the many received from men whose statements and opinions are entitled to the greatest consideration, to say the least.

From D. R. LOCKE, (Petroleum V. Nasby,) of the Toledo Blade.

Mr. JOHN F. HENRY:—I had on the forefinger of my right hand one of those "pleasant pets" a "run'round." The finger became inflamed to a degree unbearable, and was swollen to twice its natural size A friend dressed it with Carbolic Salve, and in twenty minutes the pain had so much diminished as to give me a fair night's rest. D. R. LOCKE.

From Col. H. S. OLCOTT, Special Commissioner of the War Department, and formerly of the Tribune.

I have used Carbolic Salve myself, and have seen it used by members of my family and among my acquaintances, and in every case it was efficacious in effecting a cure.

Yours truly, H. S. OLCOTT.

From GEORGE B. LINCOLN, late President of the Board of Health.

Your Carbolic Salve, a package of which you were kind enough to hand me, proves an excellent article, and I thank you for it. Yours, GEORGE B. LINCOLN.

BEWARE OF SPURIOUS IMITATIONS!

The genuine Henry's Carbolic Salve bears the fac-simile signature of JOHN F. HENRY on each and every Label, to counterfeit which is a PENAL OFFENSE.

GREEN'S
Oxygenated Bitters.

This well-known and standard remedy still maintains its well deserved reputation. As a purely medicinal preparation for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, BAD APPETITE and all the various disorders of the stomach, it has no equal. It contains no Alcohol, and cannot, therefore, in any way injure the stomach or digestive organs. The benefit derived from its use is not the result of a mere temporary and injurious stimulation of the organs of digestion, but it effects a radical cure by restoring the normal functions of the stomach to a condition of health, and by acting in concert with nature to dispel disease, rather than by stimulating and goading that organ to accomplish more than nature intended it to do, especially when it is in a disordered state.

By this false system of stimulation more injury than good is done by the majority of Alcoholic Bitters offered to the public, a fact that should be borne in mind by every intelligent person.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

The Laws of Life are written upon the face of Nature. The Tempest, Whirlwinds and Thunder Storms bring health from the Solitudes of God. The Tides are the daily agitators and purifiers of the mighty world of Waters.

What these Providential means are as purifiers of nature, BRANDRETH'S PILLS are to Man.

Because their use produces an activity in the circulation which occasions the blood to throw off what is hurtful. And their good effects are not counterbalanced by any inconvenience. Being composed entirely of herbs, they do not expose those who use them to any danger; their effects are as certain as they are salutary. They are daily and safely administered in infancy, youth, manhood, old age, and to woman in the most critical and delicate circumstances; they do not disturb or shock the animal functions, but restore their order and re-establish their health.

Those who are sick and use a few boxes hardly know themselves afterward. From being dull, they are lively; from being sallow their complexions are clear; from having no appetite they long for the dinner hour. And after their use, all the functions of nature go on with regularity. If the bowels were costive, they are so no more; if the sleep was disturbed, it is now sound and refreshing; if there were pains or local affections, they are now gone.

MATTER OF DISEASE.

The matter which is always present when people are sick, is a fluid, like white of an egg, but more limpid. This fluid flows on the part where pain is felt, and spreads and insinuates itself wherever a weak spot or low vitality exists in the body. Sometimes this matter of disease becomes vapor, and subtilely affects the nerves and brain. This hostile fluid to man's existence is never absent; it was implanted with life, but in the healthy it is divided so as not to be felt. But when, from fatigue, bad diet, conduct, or coming in contact with bad smells or contagious vapors, this matter of disease becomes aroused to activity and concentration, it settles, like dew on the weakest part of the body, producing at once pain and disease.

Now, there may be many medicines which will reduce this hostile fluid, but there is one which never fails in cases of Dizziness, Pains in the Head, Rheumatism and Costiveness, Colds; in fact, Sickness is reduced, and finally vanquished, by Brandreth's Pills, whose use infallibly purifies the blood, and brings the matter of disease within manageable limits.

In fact, Brandreth's Pills remove impure and undigested accumulations from the stomach and bowels, cleanse the liver and the spleen, and generally purify the whole interior.

Every time one is purged by this remedy he has less poison in his system, and relatively more life. Persons of spare habit and delicate organization gain flesh and vigor while using them.

Their fame is extending; even the whole of the Town Officers, where they are prepared, and the Board of Health, have publicly indorsed the curative qualities of Brandreth's Pills. Such a mark of distinguished consideration has seldom been bestowed upon any medicine.

New-York Tribune.

Daily $10 a year; Weekly $2; Semi-Weekly $3.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE.

Now, as heretofore, THE TRIBUNE strives to be first of all and pre-eminently a news paper.

Our Intention is to make THE TRIBUNE what Horace Greeley would have made it if God had spared him—a frank and fearless newspaper, devoted to the best interests of the whole country; spending its energies and resources freely in the collection of news; keeping its readers informed of the course of events, the currents of opinion at home and abroad, the progress of science and the useful arts · speaking its mind freely on all questions of public concern; detesting neutrality in politics as the refuge of the weak-minded and the timid, but keeping its independence as the best title to honor and usefulness.

THE TRIBUNE of the future shall be the same TRIBUNE which fought so bravely for human freedom, for equal rights, for the cause of the poor, for the advancement of the humble, for the education of the ignorant which made itself the laboring man's guide, the scholar's companion, the welcome visitor at the fireside. Sympathizing with all liberal and benevolent enterprises, pushing forward whatever advances the culture and prosperity of our country, tending naturally to the party which has been identified most closely with the progress and glory of the Union, but at war with abuses wherever they may be found, it shall be, what we formally style it at the head of the editorial columns, "THE TRIBUNE, Founded by HORACE GREELEY."

DAILY TRIBUNE, $10 a year by Mail.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

As The Newspaper for the Household, THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is unsurpassed. It is the best family journal published in the country. Issued every TUESDAY and FRIDAY. It contains nearly all the important News, Correspondence, Reviews, and Editorials of THE DAILY, including everything on the subject of Agriculture, Home Interests, and much interesting and valuable matter, for which there is not room in THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the by living authors. The cost of these alone in book form, would be from six to eight dollars. Its price has been lately reduced, so that Clubs can now secure it at little more than the cost, to single subscribers, of THE WEEKLY. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE

IS THE BEST AND THE CHEAPEST PAPER FOR

FARMERS AND FAMILIES.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, devotes a large share of its columns to Agriculture, employing the ablest and most successful cultivators to set forth what they know of farming in brief, clear essays, elucidating and commending Agriculture as the first and most important of progressive arts based on natural Science.

No other periodical has done more to imbue our farmers with the truth, that the best instructed cultivator of the earth is far superior in efficiency to the strongest or even the most diligent.

We mean to make THE TRIBUNE an authority in every department of Productive Industry. Invention and Machinery are rapidly transforming the processes whereby Labor ministers to the physical wants of mankind.

"Home Interests" are discussed each week by a lady specially qualified to instruct and charm her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is more eagerly sought or perused with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day is condensed, while given sufficiently in detail to satisfy the wants of the average reader.

As to its political principles, THE TRIBUNE is of course, hereafter as heretofore, the champion of Equal Rights, irrespective of Race, Nativity or Color. Independent of all political parties, THE TRIBUNE endeavors to treat them all with judicial fairness. It labors to purify the administration of Government, National, State and Municipal, and whenever those in authority take the lead in this work, it will therein give them its cordial support, but it can never be the servitor of any political party; nor will it surrender or even waive its right to criticise and condemn what is wrong, and commend what is right in the action of any parties or of any public men. To whatever may elucidate the general discussion or action on the topics of the day THE TRIBUNE gives amplest space and most impartial record; its readers have the right to an honest statement of the facts; and this they always get.

In short, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE commends itself to Millions by ministering to their intellectual wants more fully than they are met by any other journal, while its regular reports of the Cattle, Country Produce, and other Markets, will of themselves save the farmer who regularly notes them, far more than his journal's price.

For the family circle of the educated farmer or artisan, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior, as is proved by the hundreds of thousands who, having read it from childhood, still cherish and enjoy it in the down hill of life.

We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE to their friends and neighbors, and we proffer it to clubs at prices which barely pay the cost of paper and press-work.

Better Than Ever.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER

Instructive and entertaining as the LEDGER has been in the past, we hope and intend to make it still more instructive and entertaining in the future. Our experience is greater than heretofore, and our ambition to make the LEDGER the best paper of the kind published in the world, is undiminished.

It is the aim of the LEDGER to cultivate a taste for reading in the rising generation, and at the same time, by the character of its contents, to contribute constantly to their moral and intellectual improvement and growth.

An epicure might as well undertake to write down what he would have for dinner every day for twelve months to come, as for us to attempt, at this time, a catalogue of all the good things that will be spread before the readers of the LEDGER in 1873. Our old subscribers will bear us witness that all the promises we have ever made have always been more than fulfilled. We never let slip an opportunity to obtain any really good and desirable thing. Expense and trouble never stand in our way. And in this respect, as it has been in the past, so it will be in the future.

The LEDGER is particularly devoted to the interests and welfare of the young. A vast number of questions about lovers' quarrels, propositions of marriage, plans for housekeeping, and the best means of brightening the future of youthful married couples, are answered in its columns.

One great and guiding principle with us is to inculcate the sentiments of self-respect and self-reliance, and thus to strengthen and render more manly the characters which are just assuming form, to endure through all their days.

The LEDGER is always full of life. Nobody ever complains that even a single number is dull.

It has the largest number of great and distinguished writers.

It contains the purest, sweetest and most delightful stories, striking narratives, and instructive biographical and historical sketches.

It has the most popular and carefully prepared collection of scientific facts.

Many of the most distinguished clergymen of the country write for it.

All our favorite old writers will continue to write for the LEDGER; and we are always on the keen look-out for any new developments of real rising genius.

OUR TERMS FOR 1873—NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

Single copies, $3 per annum; four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies, (all sent at one time,) will be entitled to a copy free. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterwards add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. Canada subscribers must send twenty cents in addition to the subscription, to pay the American postage. When a draft or money-order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. The postage on the LEDGER to all parts of the country is only twenty cents a year, or five cents a quarter, payable at the office where the paper is delivered.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1874

Astronomical Department.

Computed and arranged expressly for this WORK, by SAMUEL H. WRIGHT, A. M., M. D., Penn Yan, Yates County, N. Y.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1873, by THE TRIBUNE ASSOCIATION, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

ECLIPSES.

There will be four eclipses and a transit of Venus this year, as follows:

I. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, April 16. Invisible in North America.
II. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon, May 1. Invisible in the United States.
III. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, October 10. Invisible in America.
IV. A Total Eclipse of the Moon, October 24, in the evening, and morning of the 25th. Visible throughout America. See the following table:

New and Valuable Tide Table for 110 Places.

To find the time of high-water at any of the places named in the following table, add the time indicated in the first column of figures to the time of "Moon South," or "Moon on Meridian," found in the calendar pages. If the result is more than 12 hours from noon, the time will be the next day in the morning; and if more than 12 hours from midnight, the time will be in the afternoon of the same day. The tide thus found is the first after the Moon's culmination. The second tide occurs 12 hours and 26 minutes later than the first

To Get Correct Time.

When the shadow cast by the Sun reaches the noon-mark, set the clock at the time given in calendar pages of this Almanac, in the column of "Sun at Noon-mark," and it will be exactly right. If a meridian line is used instead of a noon-mark, the passing the lines by the Sun's center is the moment for setting the clock. Any skillful surveyor can make a noon-mark or meridian lines of small brass or copper wires. In doing so, he must allow for the variation of the magnetic needle from a true or astronomical north and south line.

A Table of Sixty-one Bright Stars.

To ascertain when any Star found in the following Table will be on the upper meridian, add the numbers opposite in the left-hand column of figures to the time of "Sidereal Noon" found in the calendar pages. For the reverse of a star, subtract the number opposite in the right-hand column of figures from its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to its meridian passage. Those marked (....) revolve in a circle of perpetual apparition, and do not rise nor set north of the latitude of New York (40° 42′ 40″), for which latitude the semi-diurnal arcs are calculated. The civil day begins at midnight, and consequently 24 hours after midnight, or 12 hours from noon, is morning of the succeeding day; and more than 24 hours from noon, is evening of the next day. From 12h. to 24h. from midnight, or from 0h. to 12h. from noon, will be in the afternoon of the same day. This table is arranged in the order of culmination.

Surveyors and Civil Engineers may obtain the declination of the magnetic needle by observations on the Pole Star when upon the meridian, or when at the greatest elongation east or west. Polaris and other stars pass the lower meridian 11h. 58m. after their upper transit. Thus the time of upper transit of Polaris, add 5h. 54m. and it gives the time of greatest western elongation. If the 5h. 54m. be subtracted from the time of upper transit, it will give the time of greatest eastern elongation. Observations made at the time of greatest elongation are less liable to error than those made at the time of transit. The mean distance of Polaris from the pole this year is 1° 21′ 45 24″. To find its azimuth for any latitude, take from 18.3761941 the logarithmic cosine of the latitude, and the remainder is the logarithmic sine of the azimuth.

NOTE.—In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle, east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle, or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS.—☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon,

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

To ascertain the Length of the Day and Night,

at any time of the year, add 12 hours to the time of the Sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Leap-Year.—Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 without a remainder is a leap-year, except the last year of the century, which is a leap-year only when divisible by 400 without a remainder. Thus the year 1900 will not be a leap-year.

The Asteroids.

About 119 little planets, called Asteroids, have been discovered between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Some of them are so small that to call them worlds might seem inappropriate. But any body having an orbit, though not larger than a cannon-ball, is entitled to rank as a world. Many such may exist which will never be discovered because of their littleness. Very little asteroidal bodies are revolving around the earth, as the moon does. The aerolites, or falling stones, are really such asteroids whose orbits cross the earth's orbit, or else wind spirally inward to the earth as a center.

"THE CLOTHING TRADE OF NEW YORK CITY."

Among the many business houses of this city, there is none more worthy the notic patronage of an appreciating public than the well-known firm of TRAPHAGE HUNTER & CO., Nos. 398, 400 & 402 Bowery, junction of Third and Fou Avenues, and nearly opposite the Seventh Regiment Armory.

Their immense establishment, consisting of three five-story buildings, devoted ex sively to the manufacture and sale of Gentlemen's, Youths' and Childre Clothing, is one of the largest in the city.

For a funeral notice the following is not bad:

The death-angel smote Alexander McGlue,
And gave him protracted repose;
He wore a checked shirt and a number nine shoe
And he had a pink wart on his nose.

No doubt he is happier dwelling in space
Over there on the evergreen shore:
☞ His friends are informed that his funeral takes place
Precisely at quarter past four!

The witty George W. Barton, of Philadelphia, was an eminent lawyer who had served a term upon the bench. Trying a case one day before a judge who was chiefly remarkable for obtuseness, he incidentally and audaciously remarked that he had often seen a great ass in judicial robes. "You speak from experience, I suppose," was the angry retort. "Not at all," replied Barton; "I am speaking directly from observation."

A gentleman may be defined as a man of unimpeachable honor and gallantry, dignified carriage, spotless reputation, a high mind and liberal views.

ASBESTOS ROOFING.

H. W. JOHNS' PATENT ASBESTOS ROOFING was justly awarded the highest Premium (Medal) by the AMERICAN INSTITUTE in 1870, 1871, 1872, and 1873.

It has a larger sale than any other portable or composition Roofing in use, and is shipped to nearly all parts of the world. It is adapted for all climates, and can be readily applied by any one. See page 106 at end of this book.

STEPHEN GIRARD'S will prohibited clergym from ever entering the doors of Girard Colleg At a recent visit of the Knights Templar of Bo ton to the Institution, one of the Knights, a w known physician, who wears a white neckt was passing in, when the janitor accosted hi saying: "You can't pass in here, sir; the ru forbids it." "The h—l I can't," replied the ph sician. "All right, sir," rejoined the janito "pass right in."

THE following dialogue occurred in the Faubourg St. Honore, Paris, between a patriarchal gentleman and his granddaughter: "What makes your hair so white, grandpa?" inquired the maiden. "I am very old, my dear; I was in the ark," says grandpapa, humorously, but with a reckless regard for truth. "Oh," says the child, regarding her relative with a fresh interest, "are you Noah?" "No, I am not Noah." "Are you Shem, then?" "No, I am not Shem." "Are you Ham?" No, I am not even Ham." "Then you must be Japhet," says mademoiselle, at the end of her historical tether, and growing rather impatient at the difficulty that surrounded her aged relative's identification. "No, I am not Japhet." "Then, grandpa, you're a beast."

A MAN with a pistol bullet in his left side, an inch above his heart, a six-inch cut on his head, and a fractured leg, called at a Bangor doctor's office to get fixed up, the other morning. He said they had been having some fun "over at a house."

Moon Apogee, 26th; Perigee, 14th; Highest, 18th; Lowest, 5th.

We have somewhere met with the following, which is more in the style of word-twisting of our modern burlesque writers. It is on the bankruptcy of a person of the name of Homer:

> That Homer should a bankrupt be,
> Is not so very Odd D'-ye See,
> If (it be true, as I'm instructed,
> So Ill-be-had his books conducted.

The Donkey and his Double.—Judge Norbury was interrupted in his charge to a jury once by the loud braying of a donkey in the street of the assize town.

"What is that?" asked his lordship.

Mr. Parsons (with whom his lordship had just had a fiery flare-up) rose and gravely assured him that it was merely the "echo of the court."

SOME years ago, a fat fellow asked Sir Francis Burdett, while in Parliament, for some position, saying, "Do n't you remember me? I used to be a page." "Well," responded Sir Francis; "you have grown into a volume."

A WESTERN editor says he saw a beautiful maiden in the street, the other day, "who had what seemed to be a stake and rider fence of lace around her sloping neck so high she was compelled to tiptoe in order to see over it." Is not this rather ruff?

A SCOTTISH clergyman, says the Saturday Review, quoted a text of Scripture in his prayer, and added for the instruction of his audience, "For that, O Lord! is the correct translation of the passage."

A SEA captain, who was invited to confer with a society for evangelizing Africa, was asked if the subjects of the King of Dahomy kept the Sabbath. "Yes," was the reply, "and everything else they lay hands on."

Moon Apogee, 20th; Perigee, 7th; Highest, 13th; Lowest, 26th.

An old gentleman of the name of Gould, having married a very young wife, wrote a poetical epistle to a friend to inform him of it, and concluded it thus:

You see, my dear sir, though I'm eighty years old,
A girl of eighteen is in love with old Gould.

To which his friend replied:

A girl of eighteen may love Gould, it is true;
But believe me, dear sir, it is Gould, without U!

A private in the army recently sent a letter to his sweetheart, closing with "May Heaven cherish and keep you from yours truly, John Smith."

Punning upon names in epitaphs has been common enough. Here is a specimen:

Who killed Kildare? Who dared Kildare to kill?

ODIST announces on his cards that he oved corns from several of the crowned Europe."

EPITAPH.

God takes the good,
Too good on earth to stay;
And leaves the bad,
Too bad to take away.

"This is a funny cheese, Uncle Joe; but where shall I cut it?" "Oh," said the grinning friend, "cut it where you like." "Very well, said the Yankee, coolly putting it under his arm, "I'll cut it at home."

"There now," exclaimed a little girl, while rummaging a drawer in the bureau; "grandpa has gone to heaven without his spectacles!"

ASBESTOS ROOFING.

B. W. JOHNS' PATENT ASBESTOS ROOFING is now universally acknowledged to be the best substitute yet produced for tin and other expensive kinds of Roofing. It is suitable for all climates, and can be easily applied by any one.

The Tribune Buildings have been covered several years with this Roofing, which has proven entirely satisfactory—Eds. N. Y. Tribune.

See page at end of this book, 106.

a lady in Titusville, Pa., "whose pa had ," and who has since been at a boarding cently returned, and a party was given honor of the event. On the bottom of her cards she caused to be inscribed, "R. S. d one was sent to a fellow who had also money by boring. He did not come, a card with the letters, "D. S. C. C." him one day in the street, she asked him what the letters meant? "Tell me, first, what your's meant?" "Oh! mine was French for 'Respond if you can't accept.'" "Well, mine was English for 'Dam sorry I can't come.'"

A MARRIED lady being asked to waltz, gave the following sensible and appropriate answer: "No, I thank you, sir; I have hugging enough at home."

Moon Apogee 7th; Perigee, 22d; Highest, 25th; Lowest, 12th.

PLEASURE is to woman what the sun is to the flower. If moderately enjoyed it beautifies, it refreshes, and it improves; if immoderately, it withers, desolates, and destroys. But the duties of domestic life, exercised, as they must be, in retirement, and calling forth all the sensibilities of a woman, are, perhaps, as necessary to the full development of her charms, as the shade and the shower are to the rose, confirming its beauty and increasing its fragrance.

IF we are cheerful and contented, all nature smiles with us; the air seems more balmy, the sky more clear, the ground has a brighter green, the trees have a richer foliage, the flowers a more fragrant smell, the birds sing more sweetly, and the sun, moon and stars all appear more beautiful.

ONE of the most important rules of the science of manners is an almost absolute silence in regard to yourself.

Moon Apogee, 4th; Perigee, 21st; Highest, 23d; Lowest, 10th.

When Curran and Bully Egan met on the field of mortal combat, the latter complained of the advantage his antagonist had over him, declaring that he was as easily hit as a turf stack while as to firing at Curran he might as well fire at a razor's edge. Whereupon Curran waggishly proposed that his size should be chalked out upon Egan's side, and that every shot which hit outside that mark should go for nothing.

The story of Dr. Mountain and the witty Charles II. is strongly characteristic of the times. A bishopric being vacant, Charles happened to ask his chaplain, Dr. Mountain, whom he should appoint. "Why, sire," says the latter, "if your majesty had but faith I would tell you whom." "How so," said the king, "if I had but faith?" "Why, in that case, your Majesty might say to this Mountain, Be thou removed into the sea."

CONSTITUTION.

WE, the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.

1. All legislative powers herein granted, shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

SECTION 2.

1. The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states; and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state Legislature.

2. No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

3. Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three; Massachusetts eight; Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one; Connecticut five; New York six; New Jersey four; Pennsylvania eight; Delaware one; Maryland six; Virginia ten; North Carolina five; South Carolina five; and Georgia three.

4. When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

5. The House of Representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3.

1. The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any State, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

3. No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

4. The Vice-President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided.

5. The Senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore in the absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the office of President of the United States.

6. The Senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

7. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States: but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4.

1. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the Congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the place of choosing senators.

2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year; and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5.

1. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

2. Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

3. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question, shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

4. Neither house, during the session of Congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

1. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

2. No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7.

1. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

2. Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it becomes a law, be presented to the President of the United States; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated; who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the Congress, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

3. Every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary, (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the President of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

SECTION 8.

The Congress shall have power:

1. To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, and excises; to pay the debts, and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

2. To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

3. To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes.

4. To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States.

5. To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures.

6. To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States.

7. To establish post-offices and post-roads.

8. To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times, to authors and inventors, the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.

9. To constitute tribunals inferior to the Supreme Court; to define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations.

10. To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water.

11. To raise and support armies; but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years.

12. To provide and maintain a navy.

13. To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

14. To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasion.

15. To provide for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the States respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by Congress.

16. To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of Congress, become the seat of government of the United States; and to exercise like authority over all places purchased, by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings; and

17. To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

SECTION 9.

1. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the Congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight; but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

2. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

3. No bill of attainder, or ex post facto law, shall be passed.

4. No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

5. No tax or duty shall be laid on any articles exported from any state. No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one state, be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

6. No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

7. No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the Congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

SECTION 10.

1. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts; or grant any title of nobility.

2. No state shall, without the consent of the congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws: and the net produce of all duties and imposts laid by any state on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the Congress. No state shall, without the consent of the Congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.

1. The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years; and, together with the Vice-President chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

2. Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the Congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

3. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the President, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose, by ballot, one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then, from the five highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the president. But in choosing the president, the vote shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of a president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the vice-president.

4. The Congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

5. No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

6. In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president; and the Congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president; and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

7. The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected; and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

8. Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States; and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

SECTION 2.

1. The president shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states, when called into the actual service of the United States. He may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices; and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

2. He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. But the Congress may, by law, vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

3. The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

SECTION 3.

1. He shall, from time to time, give to the Congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them; and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper. He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

SECTION 4.

1. The president, vice-president, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.

1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the Congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

SECTION 2.

1. The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more states; between a state and citizens of another state, between citizens of different states, between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

2. In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions and under such regulations as the Congress shall make.

3. The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury, and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the Congress may by law have directed.

SECTION 3.

1. Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

2. The Congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason; but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1.

1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state; and the Congress may, by general laws, prescribe the manner in which such acts, records, and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

SECTION 2.

1. The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

2. A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

3. No person held to service or labor in one state under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor; but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

SECTION 3.

1. New states may be admitted by the Congress into this Union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state, nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned, as well as of the Congress.

2. The Congress shall have power to dispose of, and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claim of the United States, or of any particular state.

SECTION 4.

1. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and, on application of the legislature, or of the executive, (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

1. The Congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution; or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the Congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

1. All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution, as under the confederation.

2. This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

1. The ratification of the conventions of nine states shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

Done in convention by the unanimous consent of the states present, the seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the twelfth. In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

President, and Deputy from Virginia.

AMENDMENTS.

[The following amendments were proposed at the first session of the first congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York, on the 4th of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of states. Laws of the U. S., vol. 1, page 82.]

[The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed by a high equity judge (8th Wendell's Reports, p. 100) to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the states having, at the time of their adopting the constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution:

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislatures of the several states, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely:]

ABSTRACT OF PUBLIC LAWS,

PASSED AT THE THIRD SESSION OF THE FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS, WITH A SUMMARY OF APPROPRIATIONS MADE.

CHAP. LXII. Abolishing grades of Admiral and Vice Admiral in the Navy.—Provides that vacancies occurring in the grades of Admiral and Vice Admiral shall not be filled by promotion or in any other manner; and that when the offices of said grades shall become vacant the grades shall cease to exist.

CHAP. LXIV. Fixes time for holding the Annual Session of the Supreme Court.—The annual session shall commence hereafter on the second Monday of October in each year.

CHAP. LXXXII. Franking Privilege.—Abolishes the Franking Privilege from and after July 1, 1873.

CHAP. CXXVI. Relating to the Construction of eight War Steamers.—The aggregate tonnage shall not exceed 8,000 for all the vessels, and the cost thereof shall not be more than $3,200,000. Four of the vessels shall be built in whole or in part at private yards, upon contract with the lowest bidders.

CHAP. CXXXI. Revising and amending the laws relative to the Mints, Assay Offices and Coinage.—Establishes the mint as a bureau of the Treasury Department. The chief officer of the said bureau, which also embraces in its organization all mints and assay offices, shall be called the Director of the Mint. He shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold his office for the term of five years, unless sooner removed by the President, upon reasons to be communicated by him to the Senate.

SECTION 14 provides That the gold coins of the United States shall be a one-dollar piece, which, at the standard weight of twenty-five and eight-tenths grains, shall be the unit of value; a quarter-eagle, or two-and-a-half dollar piece; a three-dollar piece; a half-eagle, or five-dollar piece; an eagle, or ten-dollar piece; and a double eagle, or twenty-dollar piece. And the standard weight of the gold dollar shall be twenty-five and eight-tenths grains; of the quarter-eagle, or two-and-a-half dollar piece, sixty-four and a half grains; of the three-dollar piece, seventy-seven and four-tenths grains; of the half-eagle, or five-dollar piece, one hundred and twenty-nine grains; of the eagle, or ten-dollar piece, two hundred and fifty-eight grains; of the double-eagle, or twenty-dollar piece, five hundred and sixteen grains; which coins shall be a legal tender in all payments at their nominal value when not below the standard weight and limit of tolerance provided in this act for the single piece, and when reduced in weight, below said standard and tolerance, shall be a legal tender at valuation in proportion to their actual weight; and any gold coin of the United States, if reduced in weight by natural abrasion not more than one-half of one per centum below the standard weight prescribed by law, after a circulation of twenty years, as shown by its date of coinage, and at a ratable proportion for any period less than twenty years, shall be received at their nominal value by the United States treasury and its offices, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe for the protection of the government against fraudulent abrasion or other practices; and any gold coins in the treasury of the United States reduced in weight below this limit of abrasion shall be recoined.

Sec. 15. That the silver coins of the United States shall be a trade-dollar, a half-dollar, or fifty-cent piece, a quarter-dollar, or twenty-five cent piece, a dime, or ten-cent piece; and the weight of the trade-dollar shall be four hundred and twenty grains troy; the weight of the half-dollar shall be twelve grams (grammes) and one-half of a gram (gramme;) the quarter-dollar and the dime shall be respectively, one-half and one-fifth of the weight of said half dollar; and said coins shall be a legal tender at their nominal value for any amount not exceeding five dollars in any one payment.

Sec. 16. That the minor coins of the United States shall be a five-cent piece, a three-cent piece, and a one-cent piece, and the alloy for the five and three-cent pieces shall be of copper and nickel, to be composed of three-fourths copper and one-fourth nickel, and the alloy of the one-cent piece shall be ninety-five per centum of copper and five per centum of tin and zinc, in such proportions as shall be determined by the Director of the Mint. The weight of the piece of five cents shall be seventy-seven and sixteen-hundredths grains, troy; of the three-cent piece, thirty grains; and of the one-cent piece, forty-eight grains; which coins shall be a legal tender, at their nominal value, for any amount not exceeding twenty-five cents in any one payment.

Sec. 17. That no coins, either of gold, silver, or minor coinage, shall hereafter be issued from the mint other than those of the denominations, standards, and weights herein set forth.

Sec. 18. That upon the coins of the United States there shall be the following devices and legends: Upon one side there shall be an impression emblematic of liberty, with an inscription of the word "Liberty" and the year of the coinage, and upon the reverse shall be the figure or representation of an eagle, with the inscriptions "United States of America" and "E Pluribus Unum," and a designation of the value of the coin; but on the gold dollar and three-dollar piece, the dime, five, three, and one-cent piece the figure of the eagle shall be omitted; and on the reverse of the silver trade-dollar, the weight and fineness of the coin shall be inscribed; and the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may cause the motto "In God we trust" to be inscribed upon such coins as shall admit of such motto; and any one of the foregoing inscriptions may be on the rim of the gold and silver coins.

Sec. 19. That at the option of the owner, gold or silver may be cast into bars of fine metal of standard fineness, or unparted, as he may prefer, with a stamp upon the same designating the weight and fineness, and with such devices impressed thereon as may be deemed expedient to prevent fraudulent imitation, and no such bar shall be issued of a less weight than five ounces.

Sec. 20. That any owner of gold bullion may deposit the same at any mint, to be formed into coin or bars for his benefit; but it shall be lawful to refuse any deposit of less value than one hundred dollars, or any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for the operations of the mint; and when gold and silver are combined, if either metal is in such small proportion that it cannot be separated advantageously, no allowance shall be made to the depositor for its value.

Sec. 21. That any owner of silver bullion may deposit the same at any mint, to be formed into bars, or into dollars of the weight of four hundred and twenty grains, troy, designated in this act as trade-dollars, and no deposit of silver for other coinage shall be received; but silver bullion contained in gold deposits, and separated therefrom, may be paid for in silver coin, at such valuation as may be, from time to time, established by the Director of the Mint.

The act consists in all of 67 sections, and is provided that it shall be known as "the Coinage Act of 1873."

Chap. CLXVI. For obtaining information of the condition of banks organized under State Laws.—Makes it the duty of the Controller of the Currency to report annually to Congress the resources and liabilities of banks, banking companies, and savings banks organized under State or Territorial laws; such information to be obtained from the reports to the legislatures or officers of the different States and Territories.

Chap. Foreign Trade of the Dominion of Canada.

[The Dominion of Canada consists of the six provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia and Manitoba. The British North American Provinces, outside of the Dominion, are Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island. The population of the four principal provinces of the Dominion was 3,090,561 in 1861, and 3,485,761 in 1871.]

The Canadian returns of Trade and Navigation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1873, show a total of imports of the value of $126,587,523, and of exports $90,610,573. These figures show a large increase over any preceding year. The official returns of the year 1872-3 have not yet been issued. The following tables give a comparison of the trade of Canada with various countries for the years 1870-1 and 1871-2:

Grand total	$74,173,618	$82,639,663

It appears from the foregoing statement that 29 per cent. of the aggregate importations into the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, during the last Fiscal Year, were from Great Britain, and 32.62 per cent. from the United States of America; the import trade with both these countries, amounting together to upwards of 61 per cent. of the whole importations into those Provinces. This ratio would have been still further increased had the imports into British Columbia and Manitoba been included; but the trade of these new Provinces was necessarily excluded from the comparative part of the statement, owing to the recent date at which they became integral and important portions of the Dominion of Canada.

It is worthy of remark that the trade with the British North American Provinces, outside the Dominion, that is to say Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island, is the next in point of rank after Great Britain and the United States, and that the British West Indies follow in order, thus exhibiting, between Canada and Great Britain, and between Canada and Britain's other possessions in this hemisphere, an aggregate amount of purely British Trade, of $94,681,398.

Population of Canadian Cities.

The following table gives the population of the twenty Canadian cities and towns having more than 5,000 inhabitants in 1871:

Cities.	Provinces.	1861.	1871.
Montreal	Quebec	90,323	107,225
(a) Quebec	Quebec	59,990	59,699
Toronto	Ontario	44,821	56,092
Halifax	Nova Scotia	25,026	29,582
St. John	N. Brunswick	27,317	28,805
Hamilton	Ontario	19,096	26,716
Ottawa	Ontario	14,669	21,545
London	Ontario	11,555	15,826
(a) Kingston	Ontario	13,743	12,407
Brantford	Ontario	8,251	8,107
St. Catherines	Ontario	6,284	7,864
Three Rivers	Quebec	6,058	7,570
Belleville	Ontario	6,277	7,305
Guelph	Ontario	5,076	6,878
Levis	Quebec	5,333	6,691
Fredericton	N. Brunswick	5,652	6,006

Sorel	Quebec	4,778	5,638
Port Hope	Ontario	4,162	5,114
Brockville	Ontario	4,112	5,102

(a) The apparent decrease in the populations of Quebec and Kingston is accounted for by the fact that large garrisons in those cities in 1861 were counted as part of the population.

The Shipping of the World.

The following table shows the number and tonnage of the vessels in the merchants' navies of the nations named in 1870 and 1872:

It will be seen by this that there was a marked falling off in the merchant navy of England in 1872 as compared with 1870, while there was a small increase in the number of American vessels. The effect of the strikes in Great Britain can be seen in the diminished list, the yards in Liverpool, Glasgow, Belfast, Sunderland, and Newcastle being exposed to the chances and uncertainties of the policy of the workman; and Germany shows a falling off from the same cause.

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION.

Statistics of the Business of the Canals and Trunk Railroads.

From the Western Lake ports to the entrance of the Erie Canal at Buffalo, and to that of the Canadian Welland Canal at Port Colborne, the distances are about equal. Of the 500 miles of water navigation between Buffalo and N. York, 345 are by the Erie Canal. Of the 375 miles of navigation between Port Colborne and Montreal, but 71 miles are canal navigation. The Erie Canal locks are 110 ft. long, 18 ft. wide, and 7 ft. deep. The present locks on the Welland Canal are 150 ft. long, 26½ ft. wide, and 10½ ft. deep. The locks of the enlarged Welland Canal will be 270 ft. long, 45 ft. wide and 12 ft. deep. The Erie Canal is navigable for boats 102 ft. long and 17½ ft. wide, drawing 7 ft. of water, and carrying 200 to 225 tons of cargo. The Welland Canal is navigable for vessels 142½ ft. long and 26 ft. wide, drawing 9½ ft. of water, and carrying 350 to 400 tons of cargo. The enlarged Welland Canal, which will probably be completed within four years, will accommodate vessels carrying from 1000 to 1200 tons of cargo.

It thus appears that the great struggle with the Welland Canal for the carriage of grain from the West to the seaboard, for shipment to Europe, is yet to come off. Meanwhile, the railroads, by their complete organization of through freight lines for the carriage of flour and grain, without transhipment, from the West to every village and town in the East which can be reached by the locomotive, have rapidly increased their grain carrying business, while that of the canal, though stimulated by low tolls and an unusual demand for export to foreign countries, appears to have attained its maximum. Unless, indeed, some means be found of increasing the capacity of the canals, grain will be crowded off by the coal, lumber and other bulky freight, for the transportation of which railroad competition is not so keen.

The Champlain Canal extends from Albany and Troy, on the Hudson River, to Whitehall, on Lake Champlain, a distance of 73 miles from the first-named city. The distance from Whitehall to the junction of the Erie and Champlain canals, is 64 miles. The enlargement of this canal to the same capacity as the Erie, has been proceeding for a number of years, and but a small appropriation is required to complete the work.

It thus appears that lumber constitutes over one-half of the produce brought to tide water by the Champlain canal, and one-third of that from the Erie.

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION.

Statistics of the Business of the Canals and Trunk Railroads.

From the Western Lake ports to the entrance of the Erie Canal at Buffalo, and to that of the Canadian Welland Canal at Port Colborne, the distances are about equal. Of the 500 miles of water navigation between Buffalo and N. York, 345 are by the Erie Canal. Of the 375 miles of navigation between Port Colborne and Montreal, but 71 miles are canal navigation. The Erie Canal locks are 110 ft. long, 18 ft. wide, and 7 ft. deep. The present locks on the Welland Canal are 150 ft. long, 26½ ft. wide, and 10½ ft. deep. The locks of the enlarged Welland Canal will be 270 ft. long, 45 ft. wide and 12 ft. deep. The Erie Canal is navigable for boats 102 ft. long and 17½ ft. wide, drawing 7 ft. of water, and carrying 200 to 225 tons of cargo. The Welland Canal is navigable for vessels 142½ ft. long and 26 ft. wide, drawing 9½ ft. of water, and carrying 350 to 400 tons of cargo. The enlarged Welland Canal, which will probably be completed within four years, will accommodate vessels carrying from 1000 to 1200 tons of cargo.

It thus appears that the great struggle with the Welland Canal for the carriage of grain from the West to the seaboard, for shipment to Europe, is yet to come off. Meanwhile, the railroads, by their complete organization of through freight lines for the carriage of flour and grain, without transhipment, from the West to every village and town in the East which can be reached by the locomotive, have rapidly increased their grain carrying business, while that of the canal, though stimulated by low tolls and an unusual demand for export to foreign countries, appears to have attained its maximum. Unless, indeed, some means be found of increasing the capacity of the canals, grain will be crowded off by the coal, lumber and other bulky freight, for the transportation of which railroad competition is not so keen.

NOTE.—The principal article embraced under the head of manufactures is the Syracuse salt, of which 244,222 tons were carried in 1872. Under the head of merchandise is included railroad iron, of which 161,667 tons were carried in 1872. Under miscellaneous are classed iron ore, stone, lime and clay, which, together, amounted in 1872 to 675,780 tons, against 253,411 tons in 1862. For agricultural products and total tonnage, see Tables I and II.

The Champlain Canal extends from Albany and Troy, on the Hudson River, to Whitehall, on Lake Champlain, a distance of 73 miles from the first-named city. The distance from Whitehall to the junction of the Erie and Champlain canals, is 64 miles. The enlargement of this canal to the same capacity as the Erie, has been proceeding for a number of years, and but a small appropriation is required to complete the work.

It thus appears that lumber constitutes over one-half of the produce brought to tide water by the Champlain canal, and one-third of that from the Erie.

* Town, county, and city debt, as given by the Census of 1870.

Notes.

In compiling the above statements of the indebtedness, revenue and expenditures of the several State governments, the object has been to give, as nearly as possible, the actual facts, divested of all technicalities. All bonds of the State held by any sinking or educational fund, have been uniformly deducted from the gross amount of the funded debt. The payment, for the support of public schools for instance, of $100,000 in the shape of interest on State bonds held by a school fund is essentially the same thing as the payment of an appropriation of the same amount. The multiplication of "funds" of every description serves only to involve the financial statements of public officers in such an intricacy of labyrinth that the most clearheaded are only able to ascertain the simplest facts after long labor, while the common mind is absolutely powerless to ascertain how much money is raised or how much expended for the support of government. Indeed, the compiler of these figures frankly confesses that in many cases he is able give only approximate results. Money applied to the extinguishment of funded debt has been deducted from the expenditures. On the same principle the proceeds of loans are excluded from the receipts. In all cases the official statements of indebtedness have been accepted as authoritative, and it is believed that the obligations of the several States, whether floating or funded, have in no case been overstated. Further explanations will be found under the heads of the several States in the notes below.

Alabama.—In the year 1872-3, $806,680.98 were derived from the sale of bonds, and $120,000 from a temporary loan. A temporary loan of $505,145 was paid off. The above items are not included in the above statement of receipts and expenditures. The expenditures include, however, $178,868.95 for treasury warrants of 1869-72, paid off in 1873. The statement of the debt, which is for Sept. 30, 1873, does not include the indorsement of railroad bonds, which it is estimated will involve the State to the extent of $3,000,000, several of the railroads having defaulted. It is also exclusive of State stock to the amount of $2,801,583.84, held by the Educational Funds of the State.

Arkansas.—The State does not pay the interest on its bonds. The statement of floating debt above given is exclusive of overdue interest on the debt, the amount of which is unknown. The statements of funded and floating debt are those given by the State Treasurer under the date of Aug. 1, 1873.

California.—From the receipts, as officially stated, are deducted $597,812 from sales of bonds, and also the interest on State stocks held by the School and University funds. From the expenditures are deducted $762,145 for bonds paid off and purchased, and also the interest on State stocks paid to the School and University funds. The floating debt consists of unpaid warrants.

Connecticut.—The expenditures do not include $673,400, cash paid for bonds purchased.

Delaware.—This is the only State from which the compiler of these statistics has been unable to obtain official information. The statements of the valuation and indebtedness are derived from the U. S. Census of 1870.

Florida.—Part of the State debt consists of $4,000,000 in bonds issued to the Jacksonville, Pensacola and Mobile Railroad Co., in exchange for the 1st mortgage bonds of that company, under an act of the Legislature, passed Jan. 28, 1870. No interest is paid on this portion of the debt. The floating debt consists of $179,296, interest on bonds, exclusive of the J. P. & M. R. R. bonds above mentioned; $262,045 due the State School and Seminary funds; $165,000 secured by hypothecated bonds; and about $242,000 unpaid warrants, &c.

Georgia.—Of the expenditures as above given, the sum of $692,892 was for the payment of principal and interest on the public debt; $286,162, derived from the sale of bonds and temporary loans, are not included in the above statement of the receipts.

Illinois.—Of the gross expenditures of this State, $2,566,788.60 from the State Debt Fund, and $1,014,872.52 from the Illinois Central Railroad Fund, which had been accumulating in the Treasury, were disbursed in the two years, 1871-2, for the extinguishment of the State debt. The sums given for receipts and expenses are one half of the amounts received and expended during the two years ended Nov. 30, 1872.

Indiana.—Of the funded debt, $3,729,016 consists of non-negotiable bonds held by the School Fund. These are not included in our statement.

Iowa.—The receipts and disbursements are one half the amount for the two years ended Oct. 31, 1873.

Kansas.—The State has a Sinking Fund of $135,537.34. The floating debt consists of unpaid warrants drawn on the Treasury.

Kentucky.—The State of Kentucky has outstanding bonds to the amount of $331,394, but to offset them the Commonwealth has $350,000 in U. S. 6 per cent. 5-20s on deposit in New York with the Bank of North America. Bonds of the State to the amount of $1,628,128 are held by the School Fund.

Maine.—The State has a Sinking Fund of $1,090,947. The State debt, as above given, is exclusive of $998,200 in State bonds held by the Sinking Fund.

Maryland.—As an offset to its debt as above stated, the State owns stocks and bonds, on which the interest and dividends are regularly paid, to the amount of $4,794,856. The receipts as above given, do not include $361,208.87, raised by the sale of State bonds for the Maryland Hospital and the Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

Massachusetts.—The gross amount of the funded debt of the State, on the 1st of January, 1873, was $27,692,704. From this we have deducted $1,816,600 for bonds of the State held by its sinking and trust funds. The Commonwealth holds, as an offset to its indebtedness, sinking and trust funds to the aggregate amount of $12,999,894, including the $1,816,600 of State bonds above mentioned. Expenditures do not include those defrayed from the proceeds of bonds, as the Hoosac tunnel. The School Fund amounted to $2,182,412.98 on the 1st of January, 1873. The Commonwealth has never taken advantage of the legal tender act to pay the interest on its debts in paper. Since the suspension of specie payments in 1862, the amount paid as premium on purchases of gold to pay interest, has been $2,475,678.

Michigan.—The valuation given is the equalized valuation of 1871. The statement of the funded debt excludes $34,292.78 of past-due debt on which interest has ceased.

Minnesota.—The entire funded debt of the State is held by the Permanent School Fund. There are, however, $2,275,000 in bonds issued in 1856, in aid of railroads, upon which the State has formally refused to pay interest. The valuation given is that of the census of 1870. The Permanent School Fund consists of securities to the par value of $817,800.

Mississippi.—The $7,000,000 repudiated debt of 1839 is not included in the above statement. The floating debt consists of outstanding warrants on the Treasury.

Missouri.—The sum given as the debt of Missouri, does not include $3,000,000 in bonds issued to the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad Company, secured by first mortgage, and upon which the interest is regularly paid by the railroad.

Nebraska.—Except $16,800 in Territorial bonds, held by the School Fund, the State has no bonded indebtedness. The cash in the Treasury is more than sufficient to pay all outstanding warrants. The receipts and disbursements given are one half of the receipts and disbursements for the two years ended Dec. 31, 1872.

Nevada.—This statement of the funded debt does not include $104,000 of the State's bonds held by the School Fund. The cash in the Treasury is more than sufficient to pay the outstanding warrants.

New Hampshire.—In the statement of receipts and expenditures, we have omitted $226,450 obtained by a temporary loan and payments of $317,700 of the principal of the State debt. The valuation is that given by the U. S. census of 1870.

New Jersey.—The statements of receipts and expenditures include $1,168,803, the proceeds of a tax of two mills on the taxable property of the State at large, apportioned to the several counties in proportion to the number of children between the ages of 5 and 18.

New York.—The receipts include $1,202,571, surplus canal revenues over cost of superintendence and ordinary repairs; and $354,197.97

earnings of State Prison convicts. Receipts taxes and payments of $2,610,784 for the ort of Schools are included in the receipts expenditures. The expenditures are exve of ordinary canal repairs and redemp- of State debt. The amount of the State debt xclusive of $4,188,805 in State bonds held he Trust and Sinking Funds. A special o the amount of $7,000,000, was collected in , which will still further reduce the State when paid into the Treasury. The amount wn, county and city debts is obtained from statistics collected by Mr. Calkins, Clerk of Constitutional Commission, in January, 1873.

egon.—The sums given for receipts and exlitures are one half the amounts for the two s ended Sept. 9, 1872.

nnsylvania.—The receipts do not include ,000 received from the Pennsylvania Rail- Co., in payment of its debt to the State, and xpenditures are also exclusive of $2,476,288, led by the Commissioners of the Sinking l to the redemption of the State debt. The holds the bonds of the Pennsylvania Rail- Company for $9,300,000, which may fairly nsidered a deduction from the amount of the as above stated. It also holds $1,754,322 in various turnpike, bridge, canal, railroad navigation companies. The valuation given at of the U. S. census of 1870.

ode Island.—The valuation is that given e U. S. census of 1870. The expenditures xclusive of $75,000 for redemption of State ls.

uth Carolina.—The valuation given is that e census of 1870. The statement of receipts expenditures is for nine months only. The nditures include not a cent for interest on State debt. The statements of the funded floating debt are taken from Gov. Moses's age of Oct. 21, 1873.

nnessee.—The sum given as the debt of nessee represents the liabilities of the State deducting bonds indorsed which are good, s of the State paid into the Treasury by varrailroads, and amounts due to the State by nt railroads. The receipts and expenditures or four-fifths of fifteen months.

xas.—$544,745 of the floating debt consists paid warrants on the Treasury.

rginia.—The sum given as funded debt, nents two thirds of the debt on the 30th , 1873, and accrued interest up to July 1, the other third "being deferred for settle- with West Virginia." The stocks and bonds e State held by the Literary Fund ($1,029,- are not included as part of the debt of the monwealth. The valuation given is that of ensus of 1870.

est Virginia.—This State, as yet, has incurno debt. The amount given is one third of lebt of the old State of Virginia, which the r holds that West Virginia should assume.

isconsin.—$2,288,900 of the nominal debt of State is in the shape of certificates of indebtss to the Educational funds. The aggreamount of taxes levied in Wisconsin in 1872, 7,895,181; viz., State tax, $781,774; County s, $1,777,051; County school taxes, $257,875; taxes, $2,447,067; School district taxes, 8,605; Road district taxes, $867,759.

Local Indebtedness of the State of New York.

The following is a comparative statement by counties of the bonded debts of the counties, cities, towns, and villages of the State of New York in the years 1870 and 1873. The figures for the year 1870 are mostly taken from the Census. Those for 1873 were collected last winter for the Constitutional Commission then sitting at Albany. The amounts given for the cities of New York and Brooklyn are the net debt, after deducting the Sinking Funds. The aggregate amount of taxation for the year 1872-3 is annexed. For the county of New York the amount stated is that raised last autumn. The counties are arranged in the order of their population:

Pennsylvania's New Constitution.

This instrument contains many things that are new, and some that are good. Apparently, ample provision is made against hasty or unduly considered legislation, against unnecessary special and local legislation, and for the prevention of or punishment for corrupt legislation. The executive department consists of a Governor and Lieut. Governor elected for four years; a Secretary of State, Attorney-General, and Superintendent of Public Instruction, appointed by the Governor and Senate; a Secretary of Internal Affairs, an Auditor General and State Treasurer, to be elected by the people. Neither the Governor nor either of the elective State officers is eligible for the succeeding term. The judicial power of the State is vested in a Supreme Court of seven judges, Courts of Common Pleas, and other inferior courts. The judges are elective, Supreme Court judges for 21 years, ineligible for a second term, and inferior judges for 10 and 5 years. Provision is made for minority representation in the election of judges in certain cases, and also in the election of Directors or Trustees of Corporate Companies. In all cases of felonious homicide, the accused, after conviction and sentence, is entitled to take his case before the Supreme Court for review. Parties to civil suits may, by agreement, dispense with jury trial. On taking office, each officer elect is required to swear that he did not pay or promise to pay any money or other thing of value to procure his nomination or election, other than proper expenses authorized by law; and that he will not accept extra-judicial pay or consideration for the performance or non-performance of his official duty. False swearing in this regard is made perjury. The pardoning power of the Governor can only be exercised by the concurrence of the Lieut. Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General and Secretary of Internal Affairs, or any three of them. All elections are to be by ballot, and every ballot is to be numbered in the order in which it is received, the number to be recorded opposite the name upon the poll list. No Federal or State officer can be a judge or inspector of Election. The Court of Common Pleas may, on application of 5 voters in any election district, appoint overseers of election to supervise the proceeding of election officers. Any candidiate for office guilty of bribery, fraud, or violation of any election law, shall be forever after disqualified from holding office. In acting on Executive nominations, the Senate must sit with open doors and enter the yeas and nays upon the journal. No Senator or Representative can be appointed to any civil office during the term for which he was elected, and no person holding any other civil office can be a member of the Legislature. The State must maintain public schools for all children over 6 years of age, and appropriate not less than $1,000,000 per annum for that purpose. Any woman 21 years of age and upward, is eligible to any school office. No Federal officer can hold a State office. No State debt shall be created except for casual deficiencies in the revenue, to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, to defend the State in time of war, or to pay existing debt. No deficiency debt to exceed $1,000,000.

Proposed Appointment of Judges.

In accordance with the provisions of the new Judiciary Article of the Constitution, the following questions were decided the last election: I. Shall the Chief Judge and Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals, and the Justices of the Supreme Court, be hereafter elected or appointed? II. Shall the Judges of the Superior Courts of New York City and Brooklyn, of the Court of Common Pleas of Buffalo, and the several County Judges throughout the State, be hereafter elected or appointed? In both cases there was a large majority for the election of the Judges. The following is the vote by counties:

Robert W. Mackey's maj. for Treasurer, 25352; Isaac G. Gordon's maj. for Judge of the Supreme Court, 14286; Ulysses Mercur's maj. in 1872 for Judge of the Supreme Court, 40443; David Stanton's maj. in 1871 for Auditor-General, 14575. The vote of Pennsylvania, leaving out the City and County of Philadelphia, compares as follows: 1873, Hutchinson, 184205; Mackey, 185146; Hutchinson's maj. 941; Ludlow, 183214; Gordon, 188575; Gordon's maj. 5361. 1872, Thompson, 264565; Mercur, 286207; Mercur's maj. 21642. Net Democratic gain over 1872: On vote for Treasurer, 21701; on vote for Judge, 16281. The net loss to the Republicans on the vote for Treasurer, compared with that for Judge, in 1873, is 5420. In 1871, the counties outside of Philadelphia vote as follows for Auditor-General: McCandless (Dem., 219011; Stanton, Rep., 222092; Stanton's maj. 3081. From a comparison of the honestly counted vote for Judge in 1873 with that for Auditor-General in 1871, it would appear that beyond the lack of interest shown by a falling off of about 90000 votes in the aggregate, there had been little change in the political sentiment of Pennsylvania. Mr. Hutchinson, in all probability, was the choice of a majority of the voters of the whole State for Treasurer. Total vote for Treasurer in 1873, 464204; for Judge of the Supreme Court in 1873, 466178; for Judge of the Supreme Court in 1872, 668195; for Auditor-General in 1871, 553019.

THE LEGISLATURE.—Under the Old Constitution the Senate consists of 33 members, 11 of whom are chosen annually. It is at present divided as follows: Democrats, 12; Republicans, 20; Liberal Republican, 1. The House numbers 43 Democrats and 57 Republicans. Republican majority: 7 in Senate, 14 in the House, and 21 on joint ballot. Under the New Constitution, members of the Assembly will be chosen at the general election every second year, their term of service beginning on the first day of December next after their election, and continuing two years. The Senate will be elected once in every four years. The General Assembly will meet on the first Tuesday in January every second year. There will be 50 Senators and 200 Representatives.

The general election in Pennsylvania will be held hereafter biennially, on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

NORTH CAROLINA.

By an amendment to the Constitution, adopted by popular vote in August, 1873, the sessions of the Legislature are hereafter to be held once in two years. Several other amendments were adopted at the same time, but they are of no interest to people outside of the State, except that by which the constitutional obligation to consider the public debt "inviolable and not to be questioned," is erased from the Constitution.

The Tribune for 1874.

A YEAR AGO the editor of THE TRIBUNE promised to make this journal, during 187: a much more valuable and complete newspaper than it had ever been before, an it now points to the achievements of these past twelve months with pardonabl pride. Its purpose in 1874 is to surpass its previous record, strengthening its organizatio in every department, adding to its facilities for publishing the news of the world in advanc of all competitors, while fully sustaining its ancient renown as the recognized organ of cul tivated and thinking men, and a high authority in literature, science, and art. Never neutral in politics, THE TRIBUNE is entirely independent of all parties and partizans. I maintains as earnestly as ever, and will always defend the republican principles of equalit and justice, with which, under the control of its illustrious founder, HORACE GREELEY, it wa for over thirty years identified. It values parties solely as means for securing hones government on sound principles, holds itself aloof from all entangling alliances, waits fo the dictum of no caucus or convention, judges of every political act of whatever part solely on its own merits, and maintains the liberty of candid and impartial criticism. TH TRIBUNE endeavors to combine in its editorial discussions frankness with courtesy to all, an wastes no space in personal or professional wrangles with other papers. That the America public appreciate the efforts of THE TRIBUNE is sufficiently proved by the record of the pa year. The beginning of 1874 finds the paper more prosperous than ever before, and th limits to its future usefulness and success widening and disappearing on every hand.

DR. RADWAY'S SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT.

Every drop of the Sarsaparillian Resolvent communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Consumption, Glandular Disease, Ulcers in the Throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands, and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all Weakening and Painful Discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the Life Principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it, for either of these forms of disease, its potent power to cure them. If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood, and this the Sarsaparillian will and does secure, a cure is certain; for, when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing. Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases, but it is the only positive cure for Kidney, Bladder, Urinary and Womb Diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substance like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back along the Loins.

BEVERLY, MASS., July 18, 1869.

DR. RADWAY: I have had Ovarian Tumor in the ovaries and bowels. All the doctors said "there was no help for it." I tried everything that was recommended, but nothing helped me. I saw your Resolvent, and thought I would try it, but had no faith in it, because I had suffered for TWELVE YEARS. I took six bottles of the Resolvent, one box of Radway's Pills, and used two bottles of your READY RELIEF; and there is not a sign of a tumor to be seen or felt, and I feel BETTER, SMARTER, and happier than I have for 12 years. The worst tumor was in the left side of the bowels, over the groin. I write this to you for the benefit of others. You can publish if you choose. * * * *

HANNAH F. KNAPP.

A·A·CONSTANTINE'S

PERSIAN HEALING,

OR

PINE TAR SOAP.

For the Toilet, Bath, and Nursery, and as a Hair Renovator this Soap has no equal. The proof is its unprecedented popularity.

It is THE SOAP for the people. All who use it say, "Try CONSTANTINE'S Soap; we want no other."

It cures Pimples on the Face, Prickly Heat, Chafing, Eruptions, Chapped Hands, Salt Rheum, Frosted Feet, Burns, Fresh Cuts, or Wounds of all kinds, Diseases of the Scalp and Skin, and is a GOOD SHAVING SOAP. It beautifies the Complexion by keeping the skin soft and smooth.

In presenting the above Soap, the proprietors feel confident that it merits all the praise which has been bestowed upon it by those who have used it.

The great and rapidly-increasing demand for this Soap places it foremost in the line of FINE SOAPS FOR EVERY-DAY USE, and for all TOILET purposes.

In the Bath Room, where its cleansing, tonic and healthful effects are experienced upon the cuticle and pores of the skin, it has taken the place of all other soaps, and no one will be without it.

In the Nursery, where mothers are often afflicted with sore nipples, and their children suffer from chafing, rash, prickly heat, sores, etc., its soothing and healing powers make it THE SOAP for every mother's use.

I have used your Soap in my practice extensively, and it has proved the best Healing Soap ever used. It has no equal as a soap for washing the heads and skin of children.

L. P. ALDRICH, M. D., 19 Harrison St., N. Y.

BALDNESS CURED.—I can recommend your Persian Healing Soap for Baldness; it is bringing my hair in beautifully. I consider it the best hair renovator in use.

M. H. COOMBS, 218 Atlantic St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The wife of the Master Mechanic of the Oil Creek and Alleghany River Railroad lost all, or nearly all, of her hair, about two years ago. She used a cake of your Soap at my request, and her hair commenced to grow. And now, after using three cakes for her hair, she has the best and handsomest head of hair in the town, except one. She would not be without the Soap even if it cost $1 a cake. Send me one gross of the Soap.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

TAKE

No medicine which will increase the derangement of the system already disordered by disease. Violent cathartics that sweep through the bowels like a cataract, prostrating the strength and irritating the delicate membrane of the alimentary canal, are never needful. The best that can be given to persons suffering from dyspepsia, bilious complaints, constipation, or any disorder affecting the stomach, the liver, or the excretive organs, is to tone, cleanse and regulate these important viscera, with TARRANT'S EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT. This agreeable alterative operates

COUNSEL

WITH

YOUR

complaint is indigestion, costiveness, nervous debility, biliousness, gravel, or any affection of the kidneys, remember that the EFFERVESCENT SELTZER APERIENT is not only an unequaled purgative, but also a general invigorant, and that its saline principle has a powerful sanitary effect upon the vitiated secretions and the blood. In an age when the sick exercise their

and common sense in determining the merits of a medicine, it seems almost unnecessary to point out the advantages which a specific so gentle, safe and certain in its operation has over the nauseous and pungent drugs which exhaust the bodily energies of the patient, and literally scourge his internal organization, without effecting a radical cure. Invalids, TAKE COUNSEL OF YOUR REASON, and select the remedy which tones while it regulates, and leaves no sting behind.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has been for the space of a generation the Farmer's favorite paper. Besides a complete condensation of the news of the week, a selection of literary and miscellaneous reading, and a full page of the best editorials from the Daily, it contains in every number a greater amount of agricultural matter han is furnished by any distinctively agricultural paper. This is prepared expressly for its olumns by the best agricultural writers and practical farmers in the United States; and as ts contributors are in every part of the country it will be found equally valuable in New England, in the South, on the Pacific slope, or in the Mississippi Valley. Great attention is aid to all subjects connected with the Farm, the Garden, and the Household, and some of he original articles every week are illustrated with wood-cuts. The market quotations of arm produce, cattle, provisions, breadstuffs, dry goods, and all kinds of merchandise, are xceedingly full and scrupulously accurate. The utmost care is bestowed upon the typoraphical arrangement of the paper, and the print is always clear and legible, and generally arger than that of any other New York paper.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE has grown very rapidly in public favor of late. In addition to a careful summary of the news, it contains all the best of the foreign and domestic correspondence and leading articles of the Daily:—it gives specially the scientific intelligence (including the proceedings of all American scientific soieties), with the best of the book reviews, and the miscellaneous matter relating to education, the arts, religion, &c. It has all the commercial news and market reports; all the agriultural articles of the Weekly; and gives, moreover, regularly, a serial work of fiction, resenting in the course of the year three or four of the latest productions of the most popular novelists. As it takes only a few select advertisements, it may be called, considering he extent and variety of its contents, the cheapest newspaper in the world. It is published very Tuesday and Friday, and reaches nearly every post-office east of the Mississippi within one or two days of its issue.

THE TRIBUNE EXTRAS.

An Illustrated LIBRARY for ONE DOLLAR.

A NEW FEATURE has been added to American journalism by the valuable TRIBUNE Extra sheets, which have attained such an extraordinary popularity during the past year. They present the fresh fruit of the best intellects of this and other countries, the most remarkable lectures, the most valuable scientific and geographical researches, at a merely nominal price. The following is a full list of the principal conents of the Extras issued during 1873:—(1.) Tyndall, Light. (2.) Beecher, Compulsory Edication; Phillips, Lost Arts; Bellows, Is there a God? Mark Twain, Sandwich Islands. 3.) Wilder, Brain and Mind; Barker, Spectroscope; Young, Solar Physics. (4.) Weiss, Shakespearean Studies; Seven Art Studies; Parton, Pilgrim Fathers; Bret Harte, Argonauts. (5.) Elsberg, Acoustics; Silliman, Gold Mining; Godwin, Limits of Science. (6.) Beecher, 7 Lectures. (7.) Beecher, 4 Lectures; T. Starr King, Sermon. (8.) Agassiz, 12 Lectures, Method of Creation; Yale College Fossils. (9.) Credit Mobilier Report. (10.) Science Congress at Portland and Deep Sea Dredging. (11.) Vienna Exhibition Correspondence. (12.) Evangelical Alliance Congress. (13.) Farmers' War Correspondence. (14.) STILL ONWARD AND UPWARD!

The New York Ledger

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER.

TIMES change; but there is no change in the Ledger, except that of constant improvement. The year which is past is another year added to our experience, and we flatter ourselves that good as we have endeavored to make the Ledger hereto, we shall be able to render it still better in the future.

Our means, in consequence of the generous support which we have received from an appreciative public, are very ample, and we employ them in paying more largely and liberally than any other publisher has ever paid, for the very best original matter.

We have the profound satisfaction of believing that we have succeeded in combining in the Ledger entertainment and instruction; and that while the Ledger is read with the warmest and most intense interest by hundreds of thousands of persons, it is doing as much as any one publication to inculcate sound principles wherever it goes, and to make better men and women of the rising generation.

All kinds of questions which interest the great family of man are answered in the columns of the Ledger; and a great amount of information on matters of Law, Business, Marriage, Love, Housekeeping, the Relations of Friends, Personal Differences, Etiquette, Plans of Life, etc., etc., etc., is thus communicated.

One great and guiding principle with us is to inculcate the sentiments of self-respect and self-reliance, and thus to strengthen and render more manly the characters which are just assuming form, to endure through all their days.

The Ledger is always full of life. Nobody ever complains that even a single number is dull.

☞ It has the largest number of great and distinguished writers.

☞ It contains the purest, sweetest, and most delightful stories, striking narratives, and instructive biographical and historical sketches.

☞ It has the most popular and carefully prepared collection of scientific facts.

Many of the most distinguished clergymen of the country write for it.

All our favorite old writers will continue to write for the Ledger; and we are always on the keen look-out for any new developments of real rising genius.

However hard the times may be we apprehend there is nothing else of the same cost which our readers would not prefer to be deprived of rather than of the Ledger; and we also believe that the lessons of economy and thrift inculcated in our columns do much to prevent hard times, and to mitigate their severity.

Our readers will bear us witness that we are better at performing than at promising; and, with the assurance that, while our experience is greater, our efforts to make the Ledger the best family paper in the world will not be slackened, we leave them to judge our future by our past.

Our Terms for 1874—Now is the Time to Subscribe.

Single copies, $3 per annum; four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies (all sent at one time), will be entitled to a copy free. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterward add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year. Canada subscribers must send twenty cents in addition to the subscription, to pay the American postage. When a draft or money-order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. The postage on the Ledger to all parts of the country is only twenty cents a year, or five cents a quarter, payable at the office where the paper is delivered.

TRIBUNE ALMANAC FOR 1875.

Astronomical Department.

Computed and arranged expressly for this WORK, by SAMUEL H. WRIGHT, A. M., M. D., Penn Yan, Yates County, N. Y.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1874, by THE TRIBUNE ASSOCIATION, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

ECLIPSES.

There will be two Eclipses this year:

I. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, April 6. Invisible in the United States.

II. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, Sept. 29. Visible east of the Mississippi river as a Partial Eclipse, the Sun rising Eclipsed. Also in Africa and Southwestern Europe. The Eclipse will be annular or ring-like from Sodus Point, on the south shore of Lake Ontario, Lyons, Oswego, Syracuse, Utica, Saratoga, and Northern Massachusetts, to the ocean. Along the central line the size of the Eclipse will be 11½ digits.

For the time of ending and size, see the following table:

Explanation of the above Table.

In the table above it is to be understood that the word "near" and the character ☌ (conjunction) are synonymous, and mean that the two bodies are nearest each other at the time expressed, and that they are then on a line running from the North Pole through both bodies, and have the same right ascension. GR. ELON. means greatest elongation or greatest apparent angular distance from the SUN. STATIONARY means that the planet is then without apparent motion east or west with respect to the Stars, and is about to move in a direction contrary to that it last had. The character ☍ indicates that the planet is opposite the Sun, or 180 deg., or a half circle, east of it, and rises when the Sun sets, and sets when he rises. When a planet is a quarter of a circle, or 90 deg. from the Sun, east or west, it is known by □.

PLANETARY CHARACTERS.—☿ Mercury, ♀ Venus, ♂ Mars, ♃ Jupiter, ♄ Saturn, ♅ Uranus, ♆ Neptune, ● Moon.

The above table enables us to find the planets throughout the year.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

The following tables of the foreign commerce of the United States, Great Britain and the Dominion of Canada, will be found interesting and instructive, as illustrating the transition from a period of great activity in trade to one of great depression. In order to enable the reader to make a full comparison, we have given the statistics of five consecutive years for the United States and Great Britain and three for Canada. It will be found, in the case of the United States, that the imports of sugar, molasses, tea and coffee show a great deal of steadiness, while those of iron, steel and lead, and cotton, woolen, silk and linen goods have heavily declined. Of these facts the table of quantities affords a better measure than that of values.

In examining the exports of the United States, the great fall in the value per cwt. of cotton and provisions, comparing 1869-70 with 1873-4, is to be noticed. Other striking features are the enormous quantities of breadstuffs and provisions exported in the last three years, the increase ranging from two to fivefold in four years. In the case of some of these articles, the capacity of the foreign markets to absorb our productions appears to have been reached, and no further increase is to be expected, at least until trade in Great Britain becomes more active. Bacon, hams, beef and lard are examples of the products to which we refer. On the other hand, there is reason to expect an increase in the exports of coal, lumber, manufactures of iron and steel and cotton goods. The nation is under a necessity to export, both in payment for its imports and for the settlement of its large debts to foreigners. If cotton, breadstuffs, provisions, petroleum, tobacco and the available coin and bullion prove inadequate for such payments, other articles will be taken—namely, manufactures.

The imports of Great Britain are rated at their value, exclusive of duty, in the ports where they are entered, including freights and profits of the importer. They are chiefly raw materials and articles of food. The exports, on the contrary, are largely made up of manufactured goods. The values of the foreign trade of Great Britain are uniformly given in pounds sterling, the value of which is $4.86 and 05-100ths cents in our gold coin.

No. 10.—Foreign Trade of the Dominion of Canada.

[The Dominion of Canada consists of the six Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, British Columbia and Manitoba. The British North American Provinces, outside of the Dominion, are Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island. The population of the four principal Provinces of the Dominion was 3,090,561 in 1861, and 3,485,761 in 1871.]

It appears, from the foregoing statement, that 54 per cent. of the aggregate importations into the Dominion during the last fiscal year were from Great Britain, and 37 per cent. from the United States of America; the import trade with both these countries amounting together to upwards of 91 per cent. of the whole importations.

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION:

Statistics of the Business of the Canals and Trunk Railroads.

From the Western Lake ports to the entrance of the Erie Canal at Buffalo, and to that of the Canadian Welland Canal at Port Colborne, the distances are about equal. Of the 500 miles of water navigation between Buffalo and N. York, passed by the Erie Canal. Of the 375 miles of navigation between Port Colborne and Montreal, but 71 miles are canal navigation. The Erie Canal locks are 110 ft. long, 18 ft. wide, and 7 ft. deep. The present locks on the Welland Canal are 150 ft. long, 26½ ft. wide, and 10½ ft. deep. The locks of the enlarged Welland Canal will be 270 ft. long, 45 ft. wide and 12 ft. deep. The Erie Canal is navigable for boats 102 ft. long and 17½ ft. wide, drawing 7 ft. of water, and carrying 200 to 225 tons of cargo. The Welland Canal is navigable for vessels 142½ ft. long and 26 ft. wide, drawing 9½ ft. of water, and carrying 350 to 400 tons of cargo. The enlarged Welland Canal, which will probably be completed within three years, will accommodate vessels carrying from 1200 to 1500 tons of cargo.

It thus appears that the great struggle with the Welland Canal for the carriage of grain from the West to the seaboard, for shipment to Europe, is yet to come off. Meanwhile, the railroads, by their complete organization of through freight lines for the carriage of flour and grain, without transhipment from the West to every village and town in the East which can be reached by the locomotive, have rapidly increased their grain carrying business, while that of the canal, though stimulated by low tolls and an unusual demand for export to foreign countries, appears to have attained its maximum. Unless, indeed, some means be found of increasing the capacity or efficiency of the canals, grain will be crowded off by the coal, lumber and other bulky freight, for the transportation of which railroad competition is not so keen.

MARKETS FOR AND PRICES OF WHEAT.

The following tables, which have been compiled expressly for this work from the official documents of Great Britain and the United States, will be found to contain information which may be put to profitable use by the intelligent farmer:

I.

Our first table is designed to show: (1.) That the quantity of wheat exported from the United States to foreign countries is subject to great fluctuations. Thus we see that it rose from 3 million bushels in 1859 to 37 millions in 1862; then fell to below 6 million bushels in 1866 and 1867, and increased again to the enormous quantity of 71 million bushels in 1874. (2.) That the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland is, by comparison with other countries, the only market which can absorb any great portion of our surplus wheat. We have counted the wheat which goes down the St. Lawrence as exported to Great Britain, for that is the destination of all but a small portion of it. After Great Britain, Portugal is our steadiest customer. Though the demands of France are in the aggregate larger, that nation is a purchaser only when her harvests are below an average. The same observation applies to Belgium.

II.

We now direct our attention to the market afforded our wheat growers by the United Kingdom. It is to be observed, (1.) That the aggregate British importations have greatly increased since the year 1854, with which our table starts. The average quantity of wheat needed from abroad may be stated at 17 million cwts. fifteen years ago, and 34 millions now, the annual imports varying at present from 44 million cwts. to 24 millions. (2.) In ordinary seasons the three great competitors for the English market are the United States, Russia and Germany, while in years of great abundance France must be added to the list. On the other hand, in seasons of scarcity large quantities of wheat have been bought of Turkey, Egypt and Austria. (3.) Comparing the United States (including our shipments via Canada), Russia and Germany, we find that the United States ranked first as a source of supply in 1856, '60, '61, '62, '63, '64, '69, '70, '71 and '73—10 years; second in 1855, '57, '58, '68 and '72—5 years, and third in 1854, '59, '65, '66, '67—5 years. Russia ranked first in 1865, '66, '67, '68 and '72—5 years, and second in 1854, '56, '59, '69, '70, '71 and '73—7 years, and third in 1855, '57, '58, '60, '61, '62, '63 and '64—8 years. Germany ranked first in 1854, '55, '57, '58 and '59—5 years; second in 1860, '61, '62, '63, '64, '65, '66 and '67—8 years, and third in 1856, '68, '69, '70, '71, '72 and '73—7 years. Thus Russia and the United States are now the great rivals, Germany having fallen to a secondary rank.

III.

We next present a table of average monthly prices of British wheat. We have reduced them to dollars and cents, counting the English shilling as equal to 24 cents in our coin. The English averages are obtained by computation from all the home-grown wheat sold in 290 market towns down to 1864, and since then in 150 towns. They are therefore a trustworthy measure, not only of the value of wheat in England, but of the changes in its value in the principal countries by which the English market is supplied, since when the price of wheat rises or falls in England it rises and falls in New York and Odessa. Table III should be carefully compared with Tables I, II, IV and V. The relations of cause and effect which will be exhibited by such a comparison are very instructive and of the highest importance. Care, however, must be taken not to mistake the cause for the effect, or the effect for the cause. Some of the more important results of these relations of cause and effect are as follows:

(1.) The wide range of the fluctuations, the price in seasons of short supply being sometimes double that in seasons of great abundance. For example, in November, 1855, the average was $2 42 per bushel; in March, 1859, $1 21; in May, 1868, $2 21; and in February and March, 1870, $1 24.

(2.) By a singular coincidence the highest and lowest yearly averages occur quite regularly once in six years. The years of highest prices are 1855-6, 1861-2, 1867-8, and 1873-4. The years of lowest prices are 1858-9, 1863-4, and 1869-70.

(3.) Of the four years of highest prices, two (1862 and 1874) are years of very heavy exports from the United States, and two (1855-6 and 1867-8) of only moderately heavy exports. In the two latter the year's average price rose to $2 22 and $2 05 per bushel respectively; while in the two former it rose only to $1 74 and $1 84.

(4.) The paramount influence of the English home-grown wheat over prices appears from a comparison of Tables IV and V with Table III. Take the first ten years, during which the sales of British wheat were returned from 290 markets. Of this series 1858-9 and 1863-4 are the years of lowest prices; and the three years, 1857-8, '58-9 and '59-60, form a series of low-priced years. It will be noticed that the supply of home-grown English wheat is very great in each of those years, and in strong contrast to that of the years 1860-1, '61-2 and '62-3 which intervene. (See Table IV.) But Table II shows that the imports in the same years are only of moderate amounts; while, on the other hand, in the years 1861-2 and 3 they were very great, and greatest of all in 1861-2, the year of highest price and smallest home supply. This shows: (7), that a full harvest in England depresses prices and discourages imports, creating a competition among the wheat-producing nations in a market already well supplied; (b), that a short English harvest, by advancing prices, attracts wheat from all nations which produce a surplus. (c.) The tables do not show a single instance of sufficient competition among the exporting nations to make a low price in England, when the English harvest, as indicated by the returns of quantities sold, is materially below an average, though it is possible that such an event might happen. The reason it does not is probably because France and Germany are so near to England as to be similarly affected by any influences which cause the English crop to fall short of an average.

(5.) The highest prices, as we have seen, are produced by a short supply of English wheat, combined with only an average surplus for exportation in the United States. Of such years 1867-8 is the best example. The next highest are in years of deficient English supply and full harvests in the United States, of which 1862-3 and 1873-4 are the best examples. Lastly, when the English grown supply is large, as it was in all the years when the average is below $1 40 per bushel, nothing but a failure of both the United States and Russia to produce their usual surplus for exportation can, of late years, at all events, prevent a low range of prices. In the In the year 1855-6 this contingency appears to have happened, the sales of English wheat being very great, and the prices extremely high, but the explanation is that no wheat could be had from Russia on account of the war, and only a little from the United States, we, too, having but little to spare.

(6.) It is a well-known fact that a small quantity of wheat in excess of the average supply depresses prices in a much greater proportion than the ratio of the excess to the average crop. The reverse is the case when there is a deficiency. This fact is amply illustrated by our tables.

(7.) The effect of the expansion or contraction of the currency on the price of wheat in the United States is exactly measured by its effect on the price of gold. The present low price of wheat is not in the least the result of any operation on the currency. The gold premium was as low four years ago, in November and December, 1870, as it is now, as may be seen by consulting the table of the monthly prices of gold on another page of this ALMANAC. On the other hand, it would not be possible to increase the price of wheat by expanding the currency and putting up the price of gold without putting up the prices of other articles in the same proportion, with the superadded disadvantage of fluctuations, which no farmer could foresee, and which would be more frequent and violent as the currency became less valuable.
